Financial Manager Called to Tell About Syndicate Deals.

CLEVELAND WRITES

Long Letter from Him Is Read, Describing Status of Society's Affairs.

WELCOMES AN INVESTIGATION

Workings of the Nylic, a New York Society Composed of Agents, Is Laid Before Investigators by Officer of the Company.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Syndicate operations of the Equitable Life Assurance Company were taken up by the insurance investigating committee today and consumed the entire afternoon session. Henry R. Winthrop, assistant secretary and financial manager of that society, was called to the stand imediately after the recess. He presented and swore to a record of syndicate participations of his company, also to a record of sales and purchases of securities for the past five years. He detailed, as far as he was able, the transactions of the syndicate of "J. H. Hyde and associates," and took memoranda of all information he was unable to supply, which is to be presented at a later date.

One of the operations was in Atlantic Coast Line bonds, in which "J. H. Hyde and associates," the Equitable participating as a member, paid $1,276,096 on call, and received $114,500 profits. Mr. Winthrop said there was nothing on the Equitable books to show who the "associates" were, nor what was Mr. Hyde's personal profit.

The Equitable participated also in a Union Pacific syndicate in the name of J. H. Hyde, and when asked by what authority the society assumed the responsibility of Mr. Hyde's personal operations, Mr. Winthrop produced the minutes of the finance committee in July, 1905, showing a written assignment to the company of Mr. Hyde of his interest in this syndicate. The society had paid into that syndicate $1,670,00.

In many cases the books did not show who were the other participants in the syndicates. In a St. Paul syndicate in 1899 a commission was paid, but Mr. Winthrop said he did not know to whom.

No Profits Are Shown.

November 14, 1900, there was a Southern Pacific gold bond issue in which the Equitable's participation was $2,500,000. The managers were G. H. Squires and associates. Mr. Squires was the former financial manager of the Equitable. There was no profit from this syndicate on the books of the Equitable.

Another syndicate in which the Equitable participated to the extent of $750,000 was the Pennsylvania coal purchasing syndicate managed by J. P. Morgan & Co., through Louis Fitzgerald and associates. Mr. Fitzgerald was director and vice president of the Equitable. Mr. Hughes asked the witness to produce memoranda dealing with this and the Southern Pacific syndicate.

In the Erie bond syndicate, managed by J. P. Morgan & Co., the Equitable was to participate to the extent of 10 per cent. It paid $684,375 to the syndicate. Mr. Winthrop knew of no profits.

BLOODY RIOTS MENACE CUBA

FIVE OTHERS DEAD

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HAVANA, Sept. 22.—Official dispatches received this afternoon from Cienfuegos announced the killing of Congressman Enrique Villuendas, leader of the Liberal party and the most able orator in the lower house, and the chief of police of Cienfuegos during a conflict between the two political parties, the Liberals and Moderates.

Altogether, the dispatch says, six persons were killed and 25 wounded during the conflict.

Dispatches to the government say that besides Congressman Villuendas and Chief of Police Illance, two policemen were killed and a number of policemen and civilians wounded. Rural guards surround the entire block in which the Hotel Suizo, the scene of the affray, is situated.

One telegram says that Villuendas fired the shot which killed the chief of police, while according to another telegram the shot was fired by Jose Fernandez, a Liberal, who has been arrested.

A search of the hotel revealed two dynamite bombs in the room occupied by Villuendas. The police in searching the hotel were carrying out the order of a judge who was informed that explosives were hidden there.

Fight on the Stairs.

As the police ascended the stairs they were met by a party of Liberals, who fired on them, killing Chief of Police Illance. The police returned the fire, killing Villuendas and wounding several others.

Intense excitement prevails at Cienfuegos and Havana. The government authorities fear the result the affair may have on the election of members of the election boards, which will be held tomorrow.

As the news spread throughout Havana the Liberals and Moderates gathered in their respective clubs. It is feared unless the leaders give wise counsel a clash may result tonight. The government has received a telegram from Senator Frias asking it to send reinforcements at once. The telegram says:

"While in Cienfuegos at present the forces are keeping order, every precaution is needed, as there is danger of assault. I recommend the authorities prevent the entrance into Cienfuegos of probable trouble-makers, who are liable to invade the city. There are fears of dynamite bomb throwing."

Acting on the advice of Senator Frias,

GOVERNMENT WILL BEGIN PROSECUTION OF RAILROADS

Giving and Taking of Rebates in Violation of Law to Receive Immediate Attention of Federal Authority—Will Require Much Probing.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Prosecution of the railroads for violation of the Elkins law relating to the giving and receiving of rebates will follow the pleading guilty of four officials of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company yesterday to the charge of conspiring to receive illegal rebates from the railroads. The authority for this statement is District Attorney Morrison, and he was emphatic in his declaration that the government would go after the railroads.

As the Elkins law makes no distinction between the giver and the receiver of rebates as to the degree of guilt involved, the government is in a position to proceed with pretty fair chance that it will be successful in dealing a severe blow to the rebate business of the country.

The case against the railroads will have to be an entirely new one and before a new grand jury. It will devolve upon the government to prove to the satisfaction of the grand jury that the accused railroads were aware that they were paying rebates previously agreed upon. To obtain this evidence will require much digging, or at least will take time, just as the bringing of the beef trust indictments took time.

PRINCE YI IS HOST TO MISS ROOSEVELT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SEOUL, Sept. 22.—Prince Yi, the emperor's cousin, was host today at an open-air garden party given at the old East palace in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt. All officials of note of Korea were present. The wooded paths and colored pavilions were decorated with American and Korean flags. Prince Yi toasted President Roosevelt, while Minister Morgan toasted the emperor of Korea.

Later Miss Roosevelt was present at a gathering under the auspices of Korean Christian women missionaries. A Korean Bible and a prayer book were given to Miss Roosevelt. From the chapel the assemblage proceeded to a garden party given in honor of Miss Roosevelt and her party by American missionaries in Korean districts. All denominations were present, being in attendance at the annual conferences at Seoul.

In the evening in the court yard of the American legation performances were given by Korean military musicians and dancing girls.

DETECTIVES RAID A SHOW AT IMPERIAL

Final Scene of "The Southern Comedy" Not on Program and the Joke Is Not Visible.

Because of its marked popularity, "The Southern Comedy," a tent show at the Imperial fair, provided a drama yesterday afternoon. Since the fair opened the cast has been restricted to negro performers, but without previously accepted contracts County Detectives Harry Merritt, W. C. Armstrong, R. L. McMillan and Thomas O'Brien broke in upon one of the scenes and gave a public performance entitled, "How to Raid a Speakeasy."

The detectives had been on the grounds all day and found everything quiet and the agricultural exhibition free from the contaminating influences of sure-thing men and gamblers. However, there was such popular support of "The Southern Comedy," conducted by Ismael Curtis, colored, of 1584 Rose street, this city, that they decided to see the performance themselves.

On investigation they found the tent had a rear compartment. Entering this they claim to have found a liberally stocked speakeasy, where they say whisky was being rapidly disposed of at 15 cents a glass, with club rates of two for a quarter. Curtis was placed under arrest, the curtain ordered finally rung down, and the prisoner brought to the city and lodged in jail.

FRANCE AND GERMANY END MOROCCAN DISPUTE

An Agreement Is Reached and Both Parties Are Satisfied With the Arrangement.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Information obtained from a well-informed source is to the effect that Dr. Rosen, the new German minister to Morocco, and M. Revoil, representing France, reached a complete agreement on all the disputed points of the Moroccan question in the course of their conference today. Both parties are entirely satisfied with the arrangement.

It is understood that Dr. Rosen and Premier Rouvier will meet tomorrow in order to formulate and sign definite terms of agreement relative to the program to be discussed at the international conference on reforms in Morocco.

The source from which the information came leads to the belief that the lengthy pourparlers are now concluded and that accord merely awaits the signatures of the representatives of the two governments.

HE WINS THE BEER.

Man Hangs by His Toes from Bridge and Ends Feat by Falling Into Creek Below.

LANCASTER, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—As the result of a bet, involving two bottles of beer, an Italian laborer, employed by the H. S. Kerbaugh Company on the new Pennsylvania railroad freight line at Safe Harbor, suspended himself by his toes from the top of the bridge crossing Conestoga creek, involuntarily concluding his feat by falling into the water, 100 feet below.

Fortunately he fell into deep water and was not hurt.

DIES IN HOUSEHOLD SHE SERVED 44 YEARS

Employe in Family of David Bissell Passes Away After Nearly Half Century.

After having completed 44 years of faithful service in the employ of one family, Elizabeth Vance, aged 75, died yesterday in the home of her employer, David Bissell, in Woodlawn road. Her service had been so continued that she occupied an affection and home in the family totally foreign to that of an employe.

Miss Vance was born in Scotland and came to this country when a girl. She was employed by the Bissell family in the capacity of nurse and governess, and this position she continued to occupy until, with added years, she became a loving charge of the family that employed her. Years ago she ceased to feel or even be an employe of the family, and was everywhere loved and respected. She was a member of the Emory Methodist Episcopal church, and was earnestly engaged in charitable work, being a valued assistant to the Rev. R. W. Wedderspoon in church work.

TO FORM BIG REPUBLIC AT ISTHMUS OF PANAMA

President Roosevelt Is Aiding Plan for Consolidation of Small Countries.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The visit of the Panama minister of foreign affairs to Costa Rica to negotiate a treaty of annexation, as reported to the state department by Consul General Lee, is regarded here as a significant development of an idea which President Roosevelt has had in mind for combining the small countries in the territory lying near the Panama zone into one large republic.

It is believed that the president's efforts are being quietly exerted with Colombia in furtherance of his plan. He feels that it would be better for the success of the canal if the territory for a considerable distance to the north and south should be under one government.

It is understood at the state department that the suggestion is meeting with approval.

OLDEST SAILOR IN NAVY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

William McCabe Is 102 Years Old. Saw His First Service on the Frigate Constitution.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—The oldest sailor in the navy celebrated the 102d anniversary of his birth today. He is William MacCabee, and he is an inmate of the Naval home at Grays Ferry road and Fitzwater street.

"Bill," as he is known at the home, is quite well and very happy, but, as for birthdays, he says he has had so many of them that they have ceased to be of much interest to him. He held a reception in his room this morning, when he shook hands with all the officials of the institution and many of those who for years have lived in the home with him.

MacCabee entered the navy when he was 14 years old, and during his active service has been in every part of the world. He was born in Baltimore in 1803, and the old frigate Constitution was the first vessel on which he shipped. He has been in many battles, the most notable of which was the engagement between the Monitor and the Merrimac. When he was 100 years old Secretary of the Navy Moody and Admiral Clark paid him a visit.

HEADLESS BODY HAS NOT BEEN IDENTIFIED

Boston Police Find No Clew Which Throws Any Light on the Latest Mystery of the Hub.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—The identity of the young woman whose headless and dismembered body was found in a suit case, recovered from the waters of Boston harbor, at Winthrop last evening, had not been established up to a late hour tonight. No arrest has been made in connection with the tragedy thus far. The most important point established beyond doubt was that the dead woman had been the victim of an illegal operation.

Early today, the Boston police visited the apartments of a physician in an attempt to learn if any of his patients was missing, but nothing was found that could in any way implicate the physician. Practically the only mark of identification on the body was the scar of a recently healed wound which from its appearance was probably made during an operation for appendicitis.

Word was received from Fall River tonight, that a young woman formerly employed in a dentist's office, in that city, had been missing three weeks. Since her disappearance a young man who was employed in the same office, has been missing also. Relatives of the young woman will visit Boston tomorrow to view the body.

CHARACTER ASSASSINS ARE WORKING OVER TIME

Opponents of Plummer Try to Paint Him as a Man With Horns.

HE IS WITHOUT THEM

Blair County Will Show by Its Vote How the Republican Candidate Stands at Home.

IS JUST A PLAIN, HONEST MAN

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM
WALTER J. CHRISTY, Staff Correspondent.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA., Sept. 22.—J. Lee Plummer does not have horns. He is just a plain man whose word is as good as his bond. He has the respect of his neighbors and will have their votes on election day. Blair county is proud to own him and the majority it will give him next November will show how he stands at home, not only among Republicans, but with the Democrats and Prohibitionists.

The newspapers that are fighting Plummer are daily painting him as a man without character. They do not permit themselves to be hampered with facts. The character assassination game has been overdone and the reaction has set in. The mud-slinging is making votes for Plummer.

As Plummer travels over the state in his campaign he meets many people who tell him: "We thought you were a different kind of a man." They expect to see horns. The other day at West Chester the Republican nominee for state treasurer was introduced to a physician. The doctor studied him for a full minute. He saw a small man, who might have more hair on his head. He looked into a face which had frankness, good nature, honesty and determination written in every line. This man was dressed in a neat suit of black.

What He Expected.

"You are a gentleman, Mr. Plummer," exclaimed the physician. Then he explained the reason for his scrutiny: "I have been reading a great deal about you in papers that are fighting you. From the information I had formed an idea of the kind of man the Republican candidate must be. I expected to see a coarse looking individual, clad in a suit of many colors. I had pictured you wearing a flaming red necktie, with a huge diamond for a stickpin. I have been mistaken and I apologize."

Lee Plummer is about as far removed from the kind of man the West Chester doctor has pictured as it is possible to be. While he likes to meet his fellow citizens and enjoys being on the firing line in a political fight, he is happiest when back in Blair county, where he knows nearly every voter, and Blair county has a good many of them. He is blessed with that happy faculty of remembering faces and names.

Confident of Victory.

The people of Hollidaysburg are all interested in his campaign. They want to see him elected state treasurer and are just as confident as he that he will be chosen to fill the office. It does not do for a candidate to indulge in newspaper interviews. He is willing to chat freely when he knows that what he says is not to be reproduced in print. In a chat of this kind today, Mr. Plummer showed he was in close touch with the situation in the state. It is not a violation of confidence to say that he has not the slightest doubt about his election and believes it entirely a matter of majority.

Since September 1 Mr. Plummer has not attempted to practice law. He placed himself in the hands of the Republican state committee and takes any assignment given him. So far he has made several speeches and will make others during the campaign.

Grist from Berry Mill.

While the opposition has devoted its energies to mud-slinging, Mr. Plummer has refused to answer in kind. Every day he receives a big stack of letters from all parts of the state and is satisfied with the progress of the campaign. There is abundance of proof that attempts at character assassination by the opponents of Plummer are taking grist away from the Berry mill.

Mr. Plummer is a great home man. His residence is one of the prettiest in the town. His family consists of his wife, a daughter and a son. Every night, when in Hollidaysburg, Mr. Plummer can be found at home. On Sundays he is in his pew in the Methodist church. In politics he refuses to stoop to questionable practices and there is nothing in his political career of which he is ashamed to tell his wife. There are no secrets in the Plummer family. In the business world Lee Plummer has a reputation for rugged honesty. Ask most any man in Blair county and he will say the state cannot put its treasury in safer hands.

GOOD ROADS PEOPLE HURT.

Automobile Crashes Into a Telegraph Pole and the Occupants Are Thrown Out.

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—An automobile occupied by Harry Bliss, H. B. Reynolds, Esq., S. M. Winton and J. McBean, members of the "Good Roads" party which left Scranton this morning, crashed into a telegraph pole, and Mr. Reynolds, a prominent lawyer of this city, was hurled violently out, striking on his head.

He was unconscious for some time, but was found to be suffering chiefly from a scalp wound from which he lost much blood. Harry Bliss was also injured slightly. The automobile was a total wreck. Mr. Reynolds is in a serious condition tonight.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—So that she could nurse the man whom she was to wed Thursday Miss Flo Martin, a Muskingum college graduate, today was married to Gordon Thompson on his sick bed at New Concord. The wedding invitations were recalled. The groom has typhoid fever.

FRANCE IS MAD AT VENEZUELA

The Offensive Attitude Toward the Charge D'Affaires Arouses Indignation.

MAY MAKE A DEMONSTRATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The offensive attitude of Venezuela toward M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, has aroused indignation in official quarters here. Although the ministry has not yet taken definite action it is said in the highest quarters that Premier Rouvier undoubtedly will demand that Venezuela disavow the offensive action and adopt a course conformable with the usual courtesies of diplomatic intercourse. The Venezuelan authorities are now seeking to show that their action was directed against M. Taigny personally and not against the French government, but the officials here do not accept the distinction between M. Taigny's personal and official capacity. He has high standing at the foreign office, where he recently served. He also aided Ambassador Cambon at Washington during the most delicate phases of the Spanish war negotiations. Therefore there is no intention here to permit Venezuela to make a scapegoat of him.

The Venezuelan government had, on September 20, made the following reply to the protest lodged September 19 by M. Taigny against the closing of the land stations of the French Cable Company and the expulsion of the manager of the company, M. Brun:

"The government holds documents proving that the French Cable Company has accepted the result of the judicial proceedings brought against it. The government is only waiting to establish new relations between it and the company. M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires, knows this, and therefore the protest can only be considered as an act of personal hostility. For this reason the government will abstain from treating with the French government through M. Taigny."

Defines Frances' Position.

The official directly charged with handling Venezuelan questions explained the general status of the controversy as follows:

"Venezuela supports the closing of the French Cable Company's inland stations on the ground of the decision of the Venezuelan courts. France does not question the general right of the courts, but maintains that the decision of the courts contained nothing authorizing the executive branch to seize and shut up the cable stations.

"Moreover, only a day before shutting up the inland stations Venezuela gave assurances that Gen. Velutini, the Venezuelan minister at Paris, would take steps to satisfactorily adjust the question. Therefore, M. Taigny protested on the ground that the court's decision did not justify closing stations. This protest was not M. Taigny's personally, but followed specific instructions from the foreign office. Therefore it is impossible to raise a personal issue.

"A separate verbal protest was made against the expulsion of Manager Brun of the French Cable Company on the ground that the right to expel foreigners does not apply to M. Brun, who was permanently domiciled in Caracas. It is to be expected that a demand will be made that Venezuela disavow the action taken. The subsequent course of France will depend upon Venezuela's reply."

Inquiry makes it practically certain that Venezuela has placed orders at the Crusot works for eight field batteries and four mountain batteries, the latter consisting of four guns each.

Advocates a Demonstration.

The semi-official Temps this evening printed a leading article reflecting official sentiment on the subject. It said that M. Taigny has been ordered to insist on Venezuela's withdrawing her offensive refusal to deal with him. If the withdrawal is made and President Castro makes an apology then the negotiations will continue. If Venezuela does not accede it will be unwise to immediately break off diplomatic relations by the withdrawal of M. Taigny, since this would leave French interests unprotected. The best course would be for France and the United States to make a joint naval demonstration similar to that in which Great Britain, Germany and Italy took part.

The authorities here say that exchanges will occur at Washington relative to the mutual interests involved in the pending controversies. M. Jusserand, the French ambassador to the United States, will sail for New York tomorrow from Havre on La Lorraine.

OPERATIONS OF THE EQUITABLE SOCIETY ARE BEING PROBED

376,000 call money and received $114,500 profits. Mr. Winthrop said there was nothing in the Equitable society's books to show who the associates of J. H. Hyde were nor what profit Mr. Hyde made.

At a meeting of the finance committee August 1, 1904, when $7,011,560 of securities were purchased, there were only two members present.

A Belated Assignment.

The participation of the Equitable society in the Union Pacific syndicate was taken in the name of James Hazen Hyde. Mr. Hughes asked by what authority the society assumed responsibilities and profit standing in his name. Mr. Winthrop produced the proceedings of the finance committee in July, 1905, at which the chairman reported he had received a written assignment of J. H. Hyde's interest in that syndicate.

Do I understand that until July, 1905, there had been no written assignment of these investments? asked Mr. Hughes.

There has never been.

And there had been payment of $1,670,000 by the society in that syndicate?

Yes.

Before what committee was there any record of this transaction?

There was none.

There was no specific mention of the Union Pacific syndicate in the executive committee's minutes, though it appeared $2,000,000 was called for. Mr. Winthrop found only a statement that money has been paid out. The syndicate has not been closed yet. A further payment of $250,000 for 2,700 shares on July 2, 1905, was authorized, Mr. Winthrop said, by the finance committee.

Ledger Does Not Show.

"Why did the society take the stock?" Mr. Hughes asked.

Mr. Winthrop said there was a letter to J. H. Hyde from Kuhn, Loeb & Co., stating that the condition of his participation in the syndicate was that the stock should be held during the life of the syndicate.

"When these shares were paid for, to whom was the money paid?"

"The ledger does not show."

Passing on to the navigation syndicate it appeared the Equitable participated through J. H. Hyde and associates, but Mr. Winthrop could not tell who Mr. Hyde's associates in this syndicate were.

In the Frick report I find mention of a purchase of $800,000 of the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington bonds to James H. Hyde and associates, but I do not find in the Frick report any mention of any allotment to the Equitable society, said Mr. Hughes.

The Equitable got its allotment from Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

To whom were the payments of $200,000, $100,000 and $121,000 made in 1904?

I think they were made to Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

I find in the Frick report that in the meeting of October 30, 1903, the president was given power to enter into a syndicate for the purchase of $10,000,000 of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington bonds and $10,000,000 Long Island railroad bonds; was that correct?

It was.

I find in the report there was a purchase of Japanese 6s of $820,000, for which the society paid $1,688,117 to Kuhn, Loeb & Co.; is that correct?

I presume they are.

Now, at the date of your first purchase of $1,700,000, May 25, 1904, I find no record in your sub-sheet, but I do find on June 30, 1904, a sale of $1,670,812 bonds at par, but no purchaser named. Who was the purchaser?

The witness said he did not know, but would loook it up.

Reads Cleveland's Letter.

Just before Mr. Winthrop was examined Mr. Hughes read a long letter from Grover Cleveland, who is a trustee for the policy-holders in the Equitable society under the name of Thomas F. Ryan trust agreement. The letter was placed in evidence.

Mr. Cleveland testified of the progress of the trustees in mutualizing the company, and said: "The obstacles that lie in the path of the proposed mutualization are so inherent that even with the greatest study and care they cannot be easily overcome."

In concluding Mr. Cleveland said: "In common with all others who desire the best conditions in this important field of business, where people have so much at stake, the trustees acting for the policyholders of the Equitable society will gladly welcome any aid in their work which may result from the labors of your committee."

At the morning session Thomas A. Buckner, vice president of the New York Life Insurance Company, described the agency system of the company, and the method of paying bonuses.

Describe "Nylic" System.

A "Nylic" system, inaugurated by this company, separating the agents who created business into grades according to term of service, was explained, and these bonuses, Mr. Buckner testified, were charged to rental premiums. Moneys received by agents from "Nylic," Mr. Buckner said, were in addition to the regular agents' commissions.

Witness said, when asked how expensive such a system might be, that the total payments to "Nylic" members aggregated less than 1 per cent of the total premiums.

Mr. Buckner was unable to supply a considerable amount of information desired, but will do so at a later period.

Mr. Hughes asked for full statements of the business written in the United States and Canada; also separate statements relating to foreign countries, showing premiums and commissions paid, that it might be ascertained how much, if any, the business of the New York Life Insurance Company was being extended in the foreign field at the expense of the American policy-holder.

Text of Cleveland Letter.

Mr. Cleveland's letter to the committee was as follows:

Tamworth, N. H., Sept. 18, 1905.

Hon. William W. Armstrong, Chairman of the New York Legislative Committee Appointed to Investigate the Business of Life Insurance in New York.

Dear Sir: The trustees who are the holders for voting purposes of the majority of the stock of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States are so fully in accord with the objects and aims of the investigation your committee has in hand that they cheerfully comply with your desire for a statement from them touching the methods thus far pursued in the discharge of their trust.

The instrument under which the trustees hold said stock and which defines their duties in respect thereto was executed on the 15th day of June, 1905. A copy of said instrument is annexed to this statement. It will be observed that its declared purpose is to carry out as far as possible a plan for mutualization of said society adopted by its directors through an amendment of the society's charter which contemplated the election of at least 28 of its 52 directors, being a majority of the kind, by the policyholders of the society. Under the charter of the society its 52 directors are divided into four equal classes, each class holding office for four years, so that in each year but 13 directors are elected unless vacancies by death or otherwise exist at the time of the annual election which occurs in the month of December.

Plan of Mutualization.

In conformity with the provisions of the charter and for the purpose of effecting the measure of mutualization referred to, it is directed in the second section of the trust agreement that the trustees in the exercise of the voting power of the stock transferred to them, shall at each annual election of directors so vote on said stock that seven out of the 13 persons voted for by them shall be policyholders selected in accordance with the wishes of those insured expressed as provided in said trust agreement, and that the remaining six persons to be annually elected shall be voted for by said trustees in their uncontrolled discretion.

Inasmuch as no annual meeting of the society has been held since the trustees assumed the duties of their trust there has thus far been no occasion for their direct interposition as voting stockholders in the selection of the directors to fill the places of those so classified that their terms will expire with the close of the present year.

The trustees were, however, at once confronted with conditions in the management of the society which had resulted in such numerous resignations from its board of directors that it became absolutely essential to the proper and orderly administration of its affairs that the directorate should be immediately reinforced by filling, to some extent at least, existing vacancies in the board.

The authority of the trustees to act in this emergency is derived from the provisions of the fifth section of the trust agreement wherein it is declared that "in case of vacancies in the board of directors due to resignations, death or other cause, the trustees may make recommendations to the directors of the society as to the persons to be elected to fill such vacancies, to the end that the purposes of this agreement may be promptly and effectively accomplished."

Though the action of the trustees under this section of the trust agreement was nominally advisory, they believed their recommendations would be followed by the remaining directors still in office, and though not so distinctly limited as when directly electing directors at annual meetings, they conceived their responsibility to the society and its policyholders in the premises to be none the less binding and impressive; and they interpreted the last words of this section of the agreement under which they were to act as indicating their obligation in thus filling such vacancies to further the scheme of mutualization, which had become the declared policy of the society.

Thereupon and at the time of the execution of the trust agreement the trustees determined that the persons they would recommend for election to fill existing vacancies in the board should be taken entirely from policyholders of the society. On the 16th of June, the day succeeding the completion of the trust agreement, a notice addressed to the policyholders of the society was prepared by the trustees and signed by them. A copy of this notice is hereto attached.

Its objects were quite apparent. In the first place, it was deemed useful to thus early notify those to whom it was addressed of their privileges in the matter of designating the persons from among their body for whom they desired the trustees to vote at the annual election in December, and also to inform them of the manner provided for the expression of their preferences and to urge them to avail themselves of their privileges in the premises, although it was only necessary that such preferences should be made known to the trustees as early as the 1st of November ensuing.

Notice to Policyholders.

And a further purpose of this notice was to make known the fact that the trustees contemplated at an early date to recommend policyholders to the board of directors for election to fill vacancies in that body and to give such opportunity as the necessity of speedy action by the trustees permitted for the expression on the part of the policyholders of their preferences in the matter of filling such vacancies. This notice was immediately given wide circulation through the public press and by mailing copies to numerous policyholders.

In response to this notice the trustees received representatives from a number of associations of policyholders in different localities who gave valuable and trustworthy advice concerning the choice of those they represented; but with all this, and with diligent effort in other ways to secure information, and after availing themselves of their combined acquaintanceship, the trustees at a meeting held on the 27th day of June were able to recommend only nine persons for election by the board to fill vacancies.

Get New Directors.

On the following day another notice from the trustees to policyholders was published in the public press as extensively as possible, again strongly urging them to give the trustees the aid of their expressed preferences in filling vacancies in the board of directors, and pledging themselves to do all in their power to subserve the interests of such policyholders. Said notice is hereto appended.

Between the date of this notice and the 11th day of July, when the trustees made their last recommendation of persons to fill vacancies in the board, the trustees considered all suggestions made to them on the subject by policyholders, and sought information from other sources. Lists of those holding policies taken from the books of the society were examined, and the qualifications of persons whom they knew were discussed—with the result that at a meeting held on the day last mentioned they were enabled to recommend to the board 14 additional persons to be elected to fill that number of remaining vacancies.

All the persons recommended to the board have been elected. Two of these, however, immediately after their election declined to serve. The net result therefore, of the labors of the trustees in this direction under the authority of the trust agreement, is represented by the addition to the depleted board of directors of 21 new members of such character and business ability as insures the faithful and intelligent discharge of their duties. All of these new directors are policyholders in the society, except two, who it is expected will, as soon as possible, take out policies. Four vacancies still exist in the board of directors.

Points to Opposition.

It should be here mentioned that the right of the society to put in operation the plan of mutualization contemplated by its amended charter and made mandatory upon the trustees under the terms of the trust agreement has been challenged, and a suit brought by a minority stockholder in which an order has been obtained from the court enjoining the society from proceeding under said plan. An appeal from said order is now pending in the appellate division of the supreme court, and its decision on such appeal at an early date is expected. In order, however, that there may not be in any event an infirmity of qualification in a majority of the directors a number of the new members of the board have acquired stock of the society, and these, together with the old members owning stock, constitute a majority of the board of directors.

The trustees feel that in the difficulties which have confronted them, inasmuch as they were compelled to act promptly under the powers conferred by the trust agreement, the results of their care and labor have been as satisfactory as they could possibly have expected. They are not blind, however, to the fact that obstacles lie in the path of the proposed mutualization, which are so inherent that even with greatest study and care they cannot be easily overcome.

Two Sides to Matter.

Mutualization and policy-holding control are pleasant to the ear, but in and of themselves they do not necessarily import good administration or successful management. If policyholders are to be allowed control, they should, in some way, be made to realize their responsibilities as well as their privileges. There are probably nearly half a million individuals who are policyholders in the Equitable society, and yet it would be giving a high estimate to place the number who have thus far made the least effort, directly or indirectly, to acquaint the trustees with their preferences at 25,000; and their desires, when made known, have often been so palpably inconsiderate, or based on such misconception, that they could not with safety be followed.

The trustees have derived the best aid from policyholders in cases where their representations have been made through associations of the insured, regularly organized, and thus enabled to sift and reduce to sensible concentration the multiplicity and contrariety and the frequent misdirected want of local sentiment.

I am certain the trustees, for whom I speak, are heartily in favor of such mutualization as will be real and genuine and at the same time will compel in the direction and management of life insurance companies such business ability, such attention and devotion to duty and such honesty and alertness in discharging fiduciary obligations, as well as promoting legitimate self-interest, as are positively vital to the beneficence of such organizations.

In common with all others who desire the best conditions in this important field of business, where the people have so much at stake, the trustees, acting for the policyholders of the Equitable society, will gladly welcome any aid in their work which may result from the labors of your committee.

Yours very truly,

GROVER CLEVELAND,
Chairman of Trustees.

The committee adjourned until next Wednesday, Senator Armstrong, chairman of the committee, announcing that the three days' session this week seemed so successful that it would be tried next week, and, if matter for the counsel came in as readily as it has been doing, the sessions hereafter will be held but three days a week.

PACIFIC PRINCIPLE IS VIOLATED BY TREATY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LUCERNE, Sept. 22.—The international peace congress at its session today telegraphed congratulations to King Oscar of Sweden and to the members of the Norwegian cabinet on the pacific solution of the difficulties between Sweden and Norway. The attention of the nations adhering to the Hague conference was called to the violation of pacific principles in the Portsmouth treaty of peace.

An address, delivered by Samuel R. Thayer, one of the American delegates, was loudly applauded. He said in part:

Among the twentieth century problems there is one other that deserves more than a passing notice, namely: To what extent, if any, shall preferential treatment be accorded to those nations that adopt coercive measures in enforcing pecuniary claims which are rightfully arbitrable? I shall not stop to discuss this question before this assemblage further than to say the utterly erroneous and perfectly indefensible decision of The Hague tribunal in the Venezuela matter whereby, in a court of equity, preferential rights are accorded to England and Germany over the United States and other powers, has awakened the disapproval, if not the condemnation, of the friends of arbitration everywhere.

That a premium should be bestowed upon the powers in question for putting in jeopardy the very existence of a weak power over a matter which public opinion finally compelled these same powers to submit to a third party for determination, has done much to unsettle the confidence of the public in the usefulness of that tribunal as well as in the equity of its judgments.

FOURTEENTH REGIMENT MEN ENJOY DAY IN SHOOTING

The officers and non-commissioned officers of the Fourteenth regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, held their annual field day at Salt Works station yesterday. The majority of the guests of the regiment spent the greater part of their time on the rifle range, but no official scores were made. A luncheon was served and the shoot was continued during the afternoon. Everything was served in the time-honored hospitable style of the Fourteenth.

NEARLY MISSES SEEING GOLDEN FLOOD POURING

County Commissioner Clark Visits His Producing Oil Wells and Has an Accident—Pinioned Under Buggy, Which Upset.

County Commissioner James A. Clark yesterday appeared at his office, limping, and with a very sore shoulder and back. He had had a narrow escape from death, and the worst part of it was the accident happened just before the big advance in crude oil announced by the Standard Oil Company. If Clark had been killed he would be unable to enjoy the income of $300 a day which is coming to him from his oil wells in Beaver county.

It was while Clark was on a visit to these oil wells that the accident happened. On Thursday he and his partner in the oil venture, Bert Bachman, took the train for Beaver and there hired a horse and buggy to take them out to the oil district. Some of their friends were in a buggy behind them. On the road Clark and Bachman met a hay wagon, and, following the courtesy of the road, the lighter rig drove aside to let the loaded wagon pass. The side of the road was very steep, and when the Clark-Bachman horse was driven to one side horse and buggy both upset. Bachman was thrown out on the horse, upon whose head he promptly sat. Then he looked about to see what had become of the county commissioner.

Clark is somewhat of a hunter and he had taken a shotgun along, intending to ascertain what birds were shootable in Beaver county and to let fly when he saw one from which the state taboo had been removed. Clark had the shotgun in his hands, and as the buggy careened the gun prevented him from making the agile jump which might have saved him, for it caught crosswise in the supports of the buggy top and Clark fell under the buggy. Clark was doing his best to crawl from under, but the buggy held him fast. The friends driving behind the Bachman-Clark rig hurried to the scene, lifted off the buggy and got Clark out.

The county commissioner was not seriously hurt and drove on to the oil wells, and the flood of money that was pouring out of the casing in the shape of crude oil pleased him mightily. But he was stiff and sore yesterday and did not stay long downtown.

RIOTS MENACE CUBA

the government this evening sent a train of five cars loaded with rural guards, the largest number of whom are destined for Cienfuegos, while the others will be distributed in Matanzas and Santa Clara, from which advices received by the government indicate serious trouble may occur at any time. The train also carries artillery, and the troops are supplied with 15,000 rounds of ammunition.

The feeling in Havana tonight is most intense. The Liberals are bitterly denouncing the government, saying they have received no advices from Cienfuegos, because the government will not permit the use of either the government telegraph lines or of the cable lines.

An extra session of the house of representatives was held tonight at which the disturbances at Cienfuegos were discussed. Extra editions of the Liberal papers issued here tonight place the entire blame for the disturbances upon the government.

The mayor of Havana has issued a proclamation forbidding the carrying of canes or weapons of any kind, with or without licenses, in the vicinity of the polling places during the elections tomorrow. An official dispatch says the mayor of Cienfuegos has issued a similar proclamation, and has also prohibited the sale of alcoholic liquors.

Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, governor of Santa Clara province, the Liberal candidate for the presidency, arrived here tonight. According to a report in circulation the governor declares an attempt was made to assassinate him in his official residence.

Gov. Gomez said to the Associated Press he came to Havana to inform President Palma he feared the elections in his province would not be fairly conducted, but after the occurrences at Cienfuegos he would not visit the president. The governor said that this morning, almost at the hour Villuendas was shot, he was reading a telegram from him in which the congressman said his life had been threatened by a policeman yesterday, and that at the hour in which he was writing the telegram the policeman had just entered the hotel and he feared the consequences.

WOMEN FAINT WHILE DIPLOMAS ARE GIVEN

Bad Ventilation in Crowded Hall Causes Interruption of Luckey School Commencement.

Several women fainted last night in Zimmerman hall, Duquesne Heights, during the commencement exercises of the Luckey public school. There was seating accommodations for 500 people, but nearly 1,000 were admitted. The ventilation was bad, and between the numbers on the program the ushers were called upon to carry out prostrated women. Of course, this interrupted things somewhat, but the friends of the graduates were too much interested in the children on the stage to give much attention to those who could not breathe the impure air.

Thirty-one graduates were given diplomas. After solos by Miss Anna Branhall and readings by Mrs. Margaret Ziegler, Chancellor S. B. McCormick of the Western university addressed the class. He said in part:

You who tonight receive diplomas are just at the end of your troubles. I won't say which end. There is no easy road to learning. If you want to become noted scholars you will have to labor hard. A mere attendance at school is not sufficient to make a scholar. The best students I have come across were not the naturally brilliant, but what we know as "pluggers" or plodders. You who intend to be teachers should throw all your energies along that line, always bearing in mind that you must form a distinctive character of your own. Cultivate truthfulness and honesty above all, whatever are your future intentions. We need truthful men and women now worse than ever.

Director Says That Controller May Change His Mind About Hamilton Avenue.

"Mr. Larkin may change his mind. It keeps me busy keeping him straight," said Director Bigelow yesterday when asked what action he would take to meet Controller Larkin's opposition to the Hamilton avenue extension and the controller's threat to have a repealer passed by councils.

"You say that you are keeping the controller straight. Does that mean also that he has quit fighting over water meters?" the director was asked.

"Now you leave Mr. Larkin alone. We want him to make speeches for us in this campaign and you may make him mad," replied the public works director and boss of the Citizens party.

Controller Larkin was told the director had said he might "change his mind."

"You may say that I have not changed my mind and don't propose to," said the controller. "I am going to write a communication to councils protesting against the award of the board of viewers unless the whole project is withdrawn by Mr. Bigelow."

"How can Mr. Bigelow withdraw the project?"

"By having councils repeal the ordinance for the extension of Hamilton avenue. Unless the matter is dropped I will write and I will say just what I think. I will not change my mind for any person," added the controller.

"Mr. Bigelow called on me this morning and I told him just what I have said in the newspapers. I said that the extension of Hamilton avenue or some other street in the neighborhood ought to be made to provide another outlet for Brushton and Wilkinsburg, but that it was a bad proposition to ask the city to pay $275,000 for an improvement for which the property benefitted only pays $41,000. I won't say what the director is going to do about the matter, but if he does not have it all withdrawn I will make an appeal to councils as I first intended."

Andrew Hamilton Denies He Used New York Life $100,000 Check to Influence Legislation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Andrew Hamilton, personal counsel to President John A. He was met at Biarritz by a telegraphic inquiry relative to the $100,000 check made out to him by the New York Life Insurance Company in March, 1904, to which he replied by wire as follows:

"You can deny for me that the check for $100,000 to me from the New York Life in March, 1904, was, as asserted in New York, for purposes of influencing state legislation, or that it was so used."

NO TARIFF LAW AT THIS SESSION

Congressman Mahon Declares There Will be No Revision of Schedules.

FAVORS RATE LEGISLATION

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 16, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.

Although admitting that some of the Republicans of his district favor a revision of the tariff, Representative Thaddeus M. Mahon of Pennsylvania, who is in the city, predicts that there will be no tariff legislation in the next session of congress. He says the entire Pennsylvania delegation will continue to "stand pat" against revision.

In response to questions as to Pennsylvania's attitude upon the railway rate question, Mr. Mahon expresses the opinion that the delegation will not oppose reasonable legislation upon this question, and makes the suggestion that the interstate commerce commission should be reorganized.

"I do not think that there will be any tariff legislation at this session of congress," he said. "That subject has been dead since Speaker Cannon made a show of hands last winter to President Roosevelt. You can count on Pennsylvania being a 'stand pat' state. We are certainly against revision. But there are Republicans in my district who want revision made. We have a lot of shoe factories. They want the tariff removed from hides. But there are stock raisers in my section of Pennsylvania. A farmer who has 18 or 20 head of cattle to market every year would lose $15 to $20 perhaps if the duty were lowered on hides. There's the other side of it. Then the druggists want the duty reduced or removed on certain articles.

"The facts are, however, that you cannot patch the tariff law. It is like a pile of bricks: if you move one, the whole pile will topple over. Wasn't it Daniel Webster who said that the tariff question is a question of educated selfishness? Well, that's what it is. My constituents who want revision, want it because it will help their business, and those who oppose revision oppose it because it will hurt their business. Personally, I am against any tinkering with the law."

"Are the Pennsylvanians as conservative on railroad rate legislation as they were last winter?"

"The Pennsylvanians, including members of congress and railroad officials," replied Mr. Mahon, "are for railroad legislation that is fair and just to all concerned. There are $13,000,000,000 worth of railroad property in this country. The railroads constitute the very arteries of trade. Kill the railroads and you kill our prosperity. One thing we do favor, is the prevention of rebates. The railroads, too, favor that. Some of these big trusts come along and hold up the railroads, demanding rebates that the railroads are forced to grant in order to retain the business. Then, I am in favor of abolishing the evils that grow out of terminals, and I would place the private car lines under the interstate commerce commission.

"That commission, as at present constituted, I would abolish. What do the members of the present commission know about railroad problems? Why, we ought to have some experts in those places, men who have made the study of rates a business and who would not be prejudiced in favor of any railroad. The making of rates is a business in itself.

"President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania does not bother himself about particular rates; neither does the president of any other big railroad system. There is a bureau or department where those questions are handled by men experienced in that line of work. We want such men in the interstate commerce commission, and we must pay them a good salary—$12,000 or $15,000 a year, if need be—to secure the best men in the business."

CASTLE BEGINS DENIALS.

Admits Mistake in One Particular in Shaw-Penrose Allegation—Defends Bank and Himself.

Attorney Homer L. Castle, who in a political speech made serious charges against Senator Penrose, John I. Shaw and a bank in which Mr. Castle was a director at the time, yesterday began his retractions. He said that he was "mistaken" when he said the bank had entered suit against Penrose. On the contrary, he said, the bank had entered suit on an entirely different note for $2,500, signed by Wesley R. Andrews, now the senator's private secretary. The records produced by Castle show that this suit was settled on July 29, 1903.

The sensational part of Castle's allegation was that state funds had been deposited with a bank (the Citizens of Turtle Creek) on an agreement that half of the money would be loaned to Shaw. This showed turpitude on the part of the Republican state organization, Mr. Castle practically said. Yet yesterday he vehemently declared:

"It was a pure business transaction so far as the bank was concerned, and I hold that the bank had a right to enter into the arrangement."

Mr. Castle was a director in the bank and its counsel, and says he knew all about the alleged loan, even the alleged understanding that it was in return for state money deposited with the bank. Mr. Castle also now admits that Penrose did not personally appear in any transaction, and was merely endorser for a note which Shaw discounted at the bank.

President Robbins Says Pittsburgh Coal Will Not Enter Any Operators' Agreement.

MORE COKE OVENS BUILDING

President Francis L. Robbins of the Pittsburgh Coal Company said yesterday that the big company would have nothing to do with conferences of operators to consider agreements preliminary to the next meeting with the United Mine Workers.

"We propose to play fair with the men throughout the negotiations," said Mr. Robbins. "We are urging the men to send their delegates and officers to the next conference uninstructed and qualified to judge the situation fairly as it is unfolded in the convention. It would be unfair for us, when urging this policy, to pursue a different one ourselves, and we shall not do it. I was invited to attend a meeting of operators recently, but I did not go, and I shall not attend any such gatherings. The Pittsburgh Coal Company will go into the next convention entirely unbound by any agreement with other operators."

Mr. Robbins is not an alarmist over the prospects. He has been a leader in the meetings which have led to the peaceful settlement of the questions before operators and miners for a number of years past, and he does not believe that there will develop any conditions impossible of settlement.

The company has let contracts recently for the construction of 100 coke ovens at its Colonial plant No. 1, making a total of 500 at that point. The equipment of the mine, the water supply and all other factors allow this addition to be made with no expense other than that of oven construction and the additional payroll. There will be added 40 ovens at the Redstone mine. This will bring the coke ovens of the Pittsburgh Coal Company to a total of 840 and place it high among the leading independent producers. The company's output for this year was sold at a favorable figure.

The advance of 15 cents on coal at the docks, effective September 1, is to be followed by another advance of 10 or 15 cents October 1. The betterment in prices was forecasted months ago as sure to take place at this time, and the forecasts are now making good. The demand has enlarged sufficiently to cause the resumption of work at two mines, one on the P. C. & Y. and one on the Panhandle. The Hocking Valley mines of the company are all working full, and there will be a shortage of Hocking coal this year, which will have to be met by larger Eastern Ohio and Pittsburgh shipments.

COMPLETE REVIVAL PLANS.

Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign of Christian Congregations to Be Held Next Month.

Dr. Cadwallader Evans is chairman of a committee of eight, composed equally of ministers and laymen, that has had general direction of the preparations for the simultaneous revival among the Disciples of Christ in the Pittsburgh district, beginning October 29. The well-known skill of Dr. Evans as a business and political organizer is manifest in the complete arrangements made for this evangelistic campaign. Forty congregations are enlisted and for their leadership an equal number of the ablest ministers in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and other states where the Disciples are strongest, have been engaged.

The best singers afforded by a body of 1,500,000 people are to assist in this work. Each local church is thoroughly organized within itself, with special committees in charge of the various phases of the effort. Among the churches that will engage are the East End, Alder street and Highland avenue, the Rev. J. G. Slayter, pastor; Central, Pride street, the Rev. C. L. Thurgood, pastor; Hazelwood, the Rev. H. Barnes, pastor; Knoxville, the Rev. F. M. Gordon, pastor.

WORRIES HIS REASON AWAY.

Dishonest Boy in Hungary Said to Be Cause of Sabo Losing His Mind.

The actions of a dishonest boy in Hungary are said to be the cause of Frank Sabo, a former resident of McKeesport, being an inmate of Dixmont. Mrs. Kosma Barballo, a sister of the demented man, yesterday notified the McKeesport authorities that she had received a letter from the man's wife in the old country in which she stated that she had not heard from her husband for a long time and she believed that he had deserted her.

Further investigation disclosed the fact that several letters which she had given to a neighbor's boy to mail to her husband in this country had never been posted, the boy taking the money given him and spending it. Meanwhile Sabo was worrying because he had not heard from his wife.

WILL BE HONOR GUEST.

Mrs. Dean Will Be Present at Meeting in Memory of Husband.

The final meeting of the Dean Pupils' association was held last night and the arrangements completed for the part the association will take in the High school semi-centennial celebration on Monday. A letter was read from Prof. Wallace Radcliff, D. D., of Washington, D. C., regretting his inability to attend. Prof. Radcliff was one of the original pupils in 1855, of whom there are about 25 alive. The Rev. John J. Hill of Uniontown sent word that he would be present if possible.

The association expects to have Mrs. Grace Dean, the widow of Prof. Dean, at the celebration, and it is the desire to have every scholar who attended the High school in Prof. Dean's time present and meet her. Mrs. Dean now lives in Hartford, Conn.

LAUDANUM CAUSES TWO GIRLS' DEATH

Take Overdoses and Die Despite Heroic Efforts on Part of Physicians.

TO DISPOSE OF MURDER CASES

Two girls died in Allegheny county yesterday from taking an overdose of laudanum. They were Minnie Butts, aged 21, of McKeesport, and Emma Jack, ager 21 months, of Hays borough. Minnie Butts was a daughter of Edward Butts of the McKeesport fire department. The girl had been suffering from a toothache and it is supposed took the drug for the purpose of inducing sleep. She was found by her parents in her room in an unconscious condition. Physicians were summoned but they were unable to revive her. She was employed as a night operator at the Pittsburgh & Allegheny telephone office at McKeesport.

Emma Jack was on a visit at her grandmother's home and got hold of the bottle of poison and drank two ounces of it. Medical assistance was summoned but the physicians were unable to save her.

The coroner will dispose of four murder cases next week. The inquest into the death of Antonio Pughese, who died September 15 at St. John's General hospital from a blow alleged to have been struck by Bollis Dadivowski, on September 11, will be held Tuesday. The inquest into the death of George Irwin, who was shot and killed by George Foster, chief of police at Carnegie, two months ago, will be held Wednesday. On Thursday the coroner will dispose of the case of Martin O'Donnell, who was shot by County Detective Jerry Lutz in July. The case of Mamie Quincey, who was shot by her son-in-law, John ("Bud") Williams on September 16, will be taken up by the coroner on Friday. John Quincey, who was also shot by Williams, was released from the Mercy hospital yesterday, and will be summoned as a witness before the coroner.

Charles Stewart, a negro, aged 42, died at the Passavant hospital yesterday from injuries received in a fall while at work on the Carnegie institute, June 17.

Steve Szabo, aged 29, of 12 Rutherglen street, died yesterday at the Mercy hospital from injuries received at Jones & Laughlin's Soho mills, last Tuesday.

Albert Blessinger, a machinist employed at the plant of the American locomotive works in Beaver avenue, Allegheny, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from injuries received in the mill five minutes previous. He was 18 years old and lived at 1511 Brady street, Allegheny. His skull was fractured by being caught in the drill press.

WILL DEDICATE NEW GREEK CATHOLIC CHURCH

The new Greek Catholic church of Duquesne was yesterday turned over to the congregation by the contractors, and will be formally dedicated tomorrow. The preparations include a parade of the uniformed societies of the congregation and others from McKeesport, Pittsburgh, Donora, Homestead and other towns. The exercises at the church will be conducted by Visitator Andrew Hobdobay, a native and resident of Russia, who is here on an ecclesiastical mission for the head of the church. The church cost about $50,000.

Guenther's Success at Luna.

Prof. Guenther, who has been leading his band in two daily concerts at Luna park during the past week, has been re-engaged for next week to wind up the park season. Mr. Guenther has composed a march, which he has dedicated to General Manager Frederick Ingersoll of Luna park, and this march he has played several times during the past week, invariably being forced by his audiences to repeat it several times. As a musician, Mr. Guenther stands among the foremost in this country, and as a a composer he also holds high rank.

All's Well That Ends Well.

Because Ludwig Scherer, a young German who can speak no English, wandered into Homestead on Thursday and got lost, his friends feared that he had been assaulted and robbed. The man had a roll of $250 on his person, and this fact increased their alarm. The young man was located yesterday at the Troutman hotel. He had registered at another hostelry the day before, but became mixed up in his geography, and could not remember his stopping place. He still has his money.

Young People can make no better investment than to join the Night Classes of the Iron City College. They begin Monday, Sept. 25th.

Come out to Brighton Heights Saturday afternoon or evening on Brighton Road cars. The entire property lighted up.

Visitors to the Exposition, and there will be thousands of them in town today, are invited to look through this store and inspect the hundreds upon hundreds of new things displayed for the Autumn season. They can easily spend an educational hour or two. Plenty of time, as the Exposition is only two squares away. Our Restaurant is an inviting place to dine, and it is an inexpensive place, too. We simply want you to consider our store your headquarters, and you will find every modern convenience.

Incident to Our Usual Brisk Saturday.

Some breakfast table reading that will be received and favored both by men and women, as it relates to articles of wear sold for special prices today.

The first item—and one that we consider very important—is for the eyes of women, and is nothing more nor less than $2.50 Fine Corsets for $1.00 Pair.

'Tisn't often that we have the pleasure of offering women such a fine corset bargain, and it is regrettable that we have to tell you that the lot is not very large. The material is a fine French coutil, and the model is a medium high bust, princess hip. Some of the corsets have supporters, with velvet grip. There is a good assortment of sizes.

Our next important item will be directed to men—and we are quite sure they will be interested—

Men's 50c Half Hose for 25c Pair.

This is a recent shipment of fine half hose which we secured from New York, and the materials are lisle thread and plated silk in such finishes as embroidered and striped designs. There are all colors that men care to wear.

Not a pair of these half hose that could be bought in a regular way under 50c.

Today as many pairs as you need at 25c pair.

Two Picture Specials Today.

The first consists of a lot of prettiest little water color fac-similes, every one full dollar value, and which we will sell today for 50c each.

There are over a dozen subjects to select from—the frames are one-half and one inch wide, with neat ornamentation—ordinarily you would pay 75c for such a frame.

These are on the first floor, East.

The second special will be found in the regular Picture Department, fourth floor, West, and will appeal particularly to everyone of a literary turn, being photogravure reproductions of the homes of celebrated American writers, for example, Lowell, Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson, Louisa Alcott, Hawthorne. Unframed, 50c; framed, $1.00.

Women's New Walking Skirts, $10.00.

We have sixteen styles of walking skirts to show you at $10.00.

There are probably more women willing to pay $10.00 for a skirt than any other price. We want to sell more at this price than any other store, and though it is just possible you may find more styles elsewhere, you will find all of the $10.00 skirts we show the very best of their kind brought out this season.

We have them in very light gray worsted and dark gray as well, fine blue and black panamas and in good, sturdy cheviot. If one is looking for plain cloth chiffon panamas are the best, light gray worsteds next, though pretty voiles and broadcloths are liked by many.

There is a variety [illegible] les, cluster pleats, skirts with a great many go[illegible] box-pleated effects, new circular shapes with two-fo[illegible] effect around the bottom.

In addition plenty of novelty effects.

New Plaid Silk Waists for Women.

$5.00, $6.00 and $7.50.

We have been unable to speak of these waists before, as we were a bit cautious in our first purchases, but the demand was so marked that we immediately rushed in new orders. They are ready today in elegant assortment.

Plaids seem to be correct in almost everything for women's wear, as they are seen in coats and in suits and dresses, but speaking of these waists they come not only in silk, but in fetching Scotch flannels.

They are made in the new tuck effects, with deep pleats and other fashionable styles.

New Waists for School and College Girls.

$3.50 and Up to $6.00.

Unpacked yesterday. "Different" from the old kind.

Novelty wool and wash flannel waists built in simple pleated styles, first class for the school room. Light blue, red and green—finished beautifully—cut to fit.

Albatross waists, pretty to slip on for the evening at home. Closely tucked yoke effect with single tucks continuing to waist line, tucked back and deep cuffs, $4.50. White and colors.

$2.00 Handwerck Dolls, $1.00.

Handwerck dolls are noted for their beauty—not only in Germany, their native heath, but in the United States and other countries.

We place on sale today, in the Toy Store, East Basement, and on the first floor, Aisle No. 6, as well, a lot of these handwerck dolls for $1.00 each.

They are 21 inches long, have sewed wigs and sleeping eyes.

The Autumn Styles in Men's Hats.

Though to be sure the change from season to season in men's hats is not so evident as that in women's, yet the change is always a decided one, nevertheless.

If you would satisfy yourself on this point, drop into our Hat Store, second floor, East, and look over the Autumn hats for 1905—they are quite different from the hats of a year back.

Soft Hats and Derbies, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00.
Silk Hats, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00.
Opera Hats, $5.00, $8.00 and $10.00.
Auto Hats and Caps, $1.50 to $6.00.

Livery Hats—

We mention a number of the latest things in coachmen's headwear—

Square Crown Derbies, used for top-wagon or horseback riding—black, tan and oxford—$3.00.
Landau Shape Derbies, bell crown, extra low—black, tan and oxford—$4.00.
Victoria Shape, bell crown—black, tan and oxford—$4.00.
Storm Hats—black only—$6.00.
Silk Hats, newest shape, $6.00.

The New Du Barry Scarfs.

They were brought into favor by Mrs. Leslie Carter, who wears one as Mme. Du Barry, which is always admired by the feminine portion of the audience. Made of a silky crepe-like fabric that is light as tissue yet strong withal—the variety of patterns in almost unlimited dainty rosebud effects on white grounds, delicate stripes and bars on contrasting grounds, large polka dots, embroidered effects and lace-like weaves. Some women call these motoring scarfs. 2½ yards long and a half-yard wide. $8.90 to $12.00.

While in the department look at the new Lace Stocks, Linen Stocks, Mull Chemisettes, Lace Chemisettes, Lace Sets, Fancy Silk Stocks and Ruchings which we are selling under value—75c and $1.00 articles for 50c; 50c articles for 25c.

Cleans Quick—a New Polish—25c Jar.

What does it clean?

Why, dozens of things. For fine furniture it is unexcelled—it will not leave the piano sticky, as does the average furniture polish.

It is splendid for woodwork, for white enamel work, for gilt and bronze frames. Articles cleaned with this cleaner require no soap—as it washes and polishes at one and the same time.

Now being demonstrated in the East Basement.

$5.50 Gas Portable for $3.50.

A good reading lamp is a necessity as the evenings become long and cool. None better for this purpose than the Drop Light, or as some call them, Portable Gas Lamps.

The Lamp we offer for $2.00 less than the rightful price has a stand of brass with dull finished burner, mantle and chimney the very best. The glass shade is dome shape, green, or any solid color preferred, ornamented with deep bead fringe of the same color. Six feet of tubing and a gooseneck make up the outfit.

Everyone who saw this drop light yesterday was highly pleased and considered it a great bargain.

People ordering by mail are requested to send 25c additional for carriage.

Saturday, September 23, 1905.

That oil producers are to share generously in the universal prosperity is pleasing news. The advance of 10 cents a barrel in the price of crude petroleum means busy times in the Pennsylvania oil country. Small wells, hitherto neglected, will once more be put in action, for all the oil that can be produced is needed. The price of oil has steadily advanced during the past 10 days, but this latest jump is the most sensational yet.

A lot of things happen in four years. About this time four years ago President Roosevelt was learning the duties that devolve upon the chief magistrate of the nation. The people were yet in tears over the ruthless taking-off of President McKinley. A monument was talked of to perpetuate his memory, but as yet there is no marble shaft in his honor. It takes a long time to do these things after the convulsive sobs cease. If Senator Hanna had lived there is no doubt that the McKinley memorial would by this time have been an accomplished fact.

The peace ratification meeting at one little town in Japan stands out in strong contrast to the general and increasing dissatisfaction of all classes with the terms of the Portsmouth convention. Some two-score direct memorials to the throne, from associations and individuals, have been presented. The discovery that Japan has undertaken not to fortify Soya strait, despite the premier's recent denial of such an arrangement, has occasioned natural indignation among those who think their nation has already suffered sufficient humiliation. Postbellum problems cause about as much worry nowadays as war itself.

Employment agencies to secure skilled mechanics for the Panama canal are to be established in New York, Chicago and New Orleans, under the auspices of the civil service commission, and suggestion is made that Pittsburgh be likewise favored. It is doubtful if any other city would furnish a larger number of the right kind of men in a given time. Not that idle men are numerous in Pittsburgh, but this is where the men with the right training, in the workshop of the world, can be secured. Complaint is made of the burdensome amount of red tape which surrounds Panama jobs. The new employment bureaus are designed to obviate this undesirable formality and bring the man and the job together with the least possible waste of time.

President Castro's quibble that his government's attitude toward the French charge d'affaires at Caracas is personal and not official will not allay the indignation felt at Paris. The protest of M. Taigny against the seizure of the French Cable Company's property was entirely justified and was in accordance with specific instructions from his government. Whether or not the cable company attempted to render assistance to the revolutionists, the dictator is not going about it the right way to secure compensation. Paris newspapers urge a joint naval demonstration, in which the United States shall participate, to quell Castro's quarrelsome disposition. While the wisdom of our participation may be questioned, it is likely that such a demonstration on the part of France would be entirely satisfactory to Washington.

The Democrats of Ohio have done the talking and the claiming so far, and with their usual capacity for blunders have nominated John M. Pattison. The Republicans now propose to have some say in the matter and will officially open the campaign at Bellefontaine today. It promises to be a memorable opening of a very complex campaign, but judging from the speakers listed to talk they will be equal to the occasion. The Republican party always fights hardest when opposed the hardest. Among those who will speak will be Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, Senator Joseph B. Foraker, Judge West and Gov. Herrick. They will undoubtedly say some things well worth hearing. If the muzzle that prevents the Democratic candidate for governor from talking could be removed, it would tend to increase the plurality Gov. Herrick will receive in the November election.

Our Busy Police.

The unwonted activity of the local police yesterday was conspicuous in two commendable directions. Arrests were made, followed by punishment of persons who carried weapons without authority. The police, we are told, are determined to break up the practice. It is to be hoped they will be successful. The "revolver habit," as it has been called, is distinctly American, and it is responsible, in no small degree, for the appalling number of homicides in this country. The presence of the unnecessary revolver brings fatal termination to many a quarrel which otherwise would have ended in simple fisticuffs. There are good reasons, occasionally, why certain persons should go armed. Such persons can always obtain the proper authorization to do so. In the crowded city there is little excuse for the practice.

Illegal selling of cocaine was the other matter which attracted the authorities' attention. A peddler of the drug has been lodged in jail while the sources of his supply are under investigation, and druggists who sell the stuff without a prescription may have an opportunity to make explanation in court. The cocaine habit seems to be on the increase. Strict enforcement of the law will have a salutary checking influence.

We are glad to be able to chronicle a disposition on the part of the police to do the work for which they are hired.

Exile the Tramps.

These are halcyon days for the itinerants who compose the large and increasing army of American tramps. Not only is early fall weather pleasant for tramping, but the general prosperity throughout the country insures a liberal measure of hospitality to gentlemen of leisure indulging in pedestrian tours. A late estimate fixes the number of professional tramps in this country at 80,000, able-bodied men who refuse to work when they have the chance and for whom the nation is providing food, clothes and lodging. Imprisonment for a few days at a time has no salutary effect; indeed, they generally welcome such comfortable quarters in the winter. They are so impregnated with the spirit of idleness that any form of punishment yet tried has proved futile.

Among the plans suggested is the exiling of the hoboes to some of our island possessions. Guam has been recommended on account of its isolation, its perfect climate and its fertile soil. Placed on the island and provided with agricultural implements, it would be a case of dig or starve, unless sufficient wild fruit and vegetables could be found to sustain life. At any rate the minimum of labor would be required to avert starvation. The exile plan would free us from a very disagreeable class of citizens and cause a noticeable decrease in the number of petty crimes in the rural districts. The tramp in this nation of industrious people is an anomaly. The man who can work and won't, should be sent to a place where he will have to hustle for a living.

Penalty of the "Good Fellow."

The remissness of the auditor of the state of Indiana is causing some painful embarrassment among the politicians of that commonwealth. The ordinary designation of the auditor's faults is embezzlement. It is a smoothing term of conventional usage, but the friends of the unfortunate auditor make the claim, in excuse for his bad accounting of the state funds, that he "is a good fellow," and that he has "only done what others in office have done."

There is the fatal mistake. The auditor had no right to be a good fellow at the expense of the taxpayers of Indiana. Again, he should not have done as others had done. He should have done better, and then his day of wrath would not have fallen on him with the heavy hand that now rests on his offending shoulders. It is so easy to be a good fellow these days, but it is just as comfortable to be an honest fellow. The friends of the good fellow are variant. So long as he spends his money they can be counted on, but when that is gone the "friends" flee and know him not. The final penalty the good fellow has to pay for his roystering existence is severe, but it is the sentence passed upon all who live in the atmosphere of the "good time" and who take no thought of the morrow.

Legal Status of Spooks.

However skeptics may sneer, ghosts have some standing in the eyes of the law. At Lawrence, Kansas, a colored woman, a clairvoyant, has sued a colored man, a landlord, to recover $100 for professional services in removing ghosts from two of his houses. He refuses payment on the ground that the spooks still haunt his dwellings, terrifying his tenants so they cannot sleep at night. According to a Kansas City paper, the case has been set for trial.

Why any one, especially a reader of popular fiction, should wish to banish a ghost from his household is not easily understood. A well-conducted spook of the traditional type should add to the rental value of a house. Who would not be willing to pay additional for the privilege of sleeping in a haunted chamber? A real ghost, which glides into the room every night as the hall clock strikes the hour of 12, and sinks through the floor to the accompaniment of clanking chains, would be better than a 50-cent vaudeville show. A house with a genuine ghost, too, could be rented to a professional spiritualist, who would thus be saved the trouble and expense of having to make ghosts to order. Spirits are all right in their place, as even the Prohibitionists will admit, and it is to be hoped the Kansas courts will see they are given the full rights to which they are entitled.

The Business Situation.

The Pittsburgh district has much in its material prosperity at present to cause gratification to all concerned, but it is not monopolizing the prosperity, for in practically every section of the country there are evidences that the season is one of great returns. In the west a bumper crop of corn is being matured. The position of yield grows better daily as the possibility of serious harm from frost grows less. The yield is indicated at 2,650,000,000 bushels—a record-maker. The good average wheat crop of excellent quality and the second largest oat crop on record have both greatly benefited the agricultural sections of the country. Moreover, the farmer interest has grown to hold such a balance of power in the making of prices, especially wheat prices, that there is no doubt of the grower receiving a fair return for the product of his soil and labor.

In the cotton districts of the south conditions are such that a noted speculator is now trying to form the largest cotton corner on record, and insists that the world's demands will be such that even the large crop gathered cannot equal it.

In the general lines of merchandise salesmen now on the road for houses of all kinds report excellent success. Throughout the country the factories hum and there are fewer labor difficulties than usual.

In the iron and steel lines conditions could hardly be better. There is entire peace except with one company in one line. The prices realized for raw material and finished product alike are profitable, and the call is rather for prompt delivery than for lower price. The market for Bessemer pig iron is established at not lower than $15, at the furnaces in the valleys, and $12, Birmingham, is being obtained for the large sales of southern No. 2 foundry iron. The prices of coke are rising steadily, a few contracts for extended delivery having been made as high as $3 25 for Connellsville foundry coke, while furnace coke from the same region is bringing as high as $2 50 a ton.

Steel billets are above $25, and it is said the manufacturers have united on $25 as the official minimum price, to be compared with $19 50 a year ago.

Rails are ordered for this year's delivery ahead of the mills' capacity. Orders already given for 1906 show that year will be one of activity. The same can be said of structural material, for those who intended to build and did not fortify themselves with their beam contracts long ago are now having difficulty securing deliveries for this year's work.

A new development of the past week has been the startling rise in the price of crude oil, as quoted by the leading interest. From $1 27 to $1 46 a barrel for Pennsylvania has been the change in eight days. It means a great altering of conditions in the producing regions. New operations will be encouraged and small wells which have not been in use for months will again be started. It is confidently expected that there will be further advances. This affects materially a number of other industries, such as lumber, steel pipe, etc., as well as the special oil well supply business.

In the speculative markets the week has been one of activity, both in New York and Pittsburgh. Industrials, such as Pittsburgh Coal and Crucible Steel, which have been under the shadow of suspended dividends, have found a quickened demand and each has risen to the highest quotation since its dividend was passed. The call money rate advancing to 4½ in New York yesterday served to quiet the stock demand there for only a few hours.

A New York judge says a man may command his wife to stay at home, but neglects to state how the command is to be carried out.

An Impressive Warning.

SOME GOOD STORIES OF PITH AND MOMENT

Gossipy Chat and Anecdote of Entertaining and Instructive Character.

Young Dr. Noel had not practiced long enough to have developed those callosities of the heart which are essential to a physician's financial success. And he had, after an heroic struggle, lost a patient—a man who left a widow and $2,500 insurance. It was shortly after the funeral, and Dr. Noel was somewhat worried as to what should be his method of procedure with regard to his fees. He had called into consultation, in his treatment of the case, old Dr. L'Hevre, the nestor of the medical fraternity, and to him he now appeared for advice.

"The widow is inconsolable," he said, concluding his explanation, "and I think that a sense of decency forbids my presenting a bill at once."

The patriarch stroked his long beard thoughtfully. "Inconsolable, is she?" he inquired.

"Yes, absolutely cast down."

"Has she collected the insurance?"

"Yes, I believe—I am sure—she has."

"Well, my boy," said the old man slowly, "you would better present your bill at once, while she is inconsolable and has the money. While she is inconsolable and has the money she will not be disposed to quibble over fees. Her appreciation of the departed is at its flood and money is easy. Later she may be consoled and tighten the purse strings. A sense of decency is a fine thing, young man, but it should not stand in the way of business."

The moral of this story is that this is a sordid age, but we've got to play the game.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Another Good Hen Story.

Quite a hen story comes from Cranberry township, and its truth is unquestionable. During the early harvest the farm hands on the Coulter farm put several tons of hay in the hotel barn and two weeks ago put in enough to fill the mow. On Monday night one of the stable boys heard the sound made by newly hatched chickens, and made a search without finding the birds. The hunt was renewed on Tuesday morning and this time five young chickens, not more than 20 hours old, were found under six feet of hay in the mow. Their mother, dead, and in an advanced stage of decomposition, was also found. There is no doubt but that the mother hen was engaged in hatching out her eggs on top of the first consignment of hay when she was covered by the second batch that was thrown into the mow and either smothered or starved to death. The heat of the packed hay was sufficient to form an incubator and hatch out the five young.—Oil City Derrick.

Preparing for the Worst.

"No more will I hear his footsteps on yonder walk as the clock strikes the hour of 8."

"Gracious, Jeanette!"

"And the old parlor light will never burn low for him again."

"You don't mean it."

"I do, and, furthermore, he will never sit on this sofa three nights a week and call me pet names as he has been doing for the past two years."

"I am astonished."

"And tonight I am going to burn all the old love letters in my trunk."

"B—but why are you going to discard him?"

"Discard him? Why, you goose, I am going to marry him!"—Columbus Dispatch.

Honesty That Stood the Test.

It is only a few years since Woonsocket missed for good the familiar face of Alf Church, for a long time the deputy sheriff and chief of police, a man who was straightforward and blunt in all his dealings. One day a grocer went to Alf for information about a certain Joe White, who had applied for credit and a book at his store, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Good mornin', Mr. Church."

"Mornin'."

"Do you know Joe White?"

"Yes."

"What kind of a feller is he?"

"Purty fair."

"Is he honest?"

"Honest? I should say so. Been arrested twice for stealing and acquitted both times."—Boston Herald.

Her Beautiful Dream.

"It was such a beautiful dream," she said. "Yes?" the other inquiringly remarked. "Such a delightful, entrancing, peace compelling dream!" "Tell me about it, won't you?" "How can I? Words cannot describe it. It was such a divine dream! Such a heavenly vision! Such a rapturous"— "Do tell me." "I can try, but I know that I shall never succeed. It was such an ecstat—but I will try. In my dream I was in a country that I never had seen before. It was a pleasant enough country so far as scenery was concerned, and there were many women there, but—not one man! Imagine how we felt." The other one shuddered. "At last a man actually appeared. He walked straight up to me, never looking at any of the other women, and walked and talked and visited with me only." The narration ceased. "Go on, go on!" the other breathlessly cried. "I want to hear all of it." "Oh, there wasn't any more. I waked up then. But wasn't it a delightful, beautiful dream?" Moral—It is scandalous to tell such stories when everybody must know that there is not a particle of justification for them in feminine nature.—San Francisco Call.

THE UNREPENTANT.

Now my time has come to die,
Good my masters, hear;
This a sinner's litany
Daring to your ear:
Life hath played for me to dance
Up and down the line—
(Eh, I paid the fiddler, sirs,
But the dance was fine!)

Love came swinging to my call—
Black-eyed love and bold,
Gave me scarlet lips to kiss,
Both her hands to hold.
Fast and faster fell our feet
To the music's beat—
(Eh, I paid the fiddler, sirs,
But the dance was sweet!)

I have danced it through the world—
Ah, the merry tune!—
Danced the red sun down the west,
Danced away the moon.
Could I cavil at the price?
Out on souls so mean!
(Eh, I paid the fiddler, sirs,
But the dance was keen!)

Beggared now, my masters all,
Cry your cold dispraise;
Raise your eyes and count your gold,
Trudge your dreary ways;
I, the pauper, richer far,
Envy not nor pine—
(Eh, I paid the fiddler, sirs,
But the dance was mine!)

DAILY GOSSIP OF THE METROPOLIS

Some of the Happenings of New York That Are Out of the Ordinary.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—During a riot last night near the corner of Second street and Second avenue one man was killed by a bullet from a policeman's revolver, the policeman who fired the shot was beaten, kicked and clubbed almost to death, two of his fellows who came to his assistance were assaulted with "blackjacks," and a man and a woman were wounded by others besides the policemen who had drawn pistols. All of this, in the opinion of the clergy of the Roman Catholic Church of the Nativity, which is only two or three doors from the corner, is the result, more or less direct, of the policy of Magistrate Finn in refusing to hold women brought before him by the police of the district.

At the rectory of the Church of the Nativity, one of the assistants said today, when discussing the riot, which had taken place almost directly opposite:

"It is only what might have been expected to happen at any time in this district, where the police, as far as we can see, are doing their duty like men, but do not receive any suport from the bench."

Flower-Lined Grave for Dog.

Mourned by many children who had been her playmates, "Nellie," a fox terrier, the pet of Mrs. McCauley, probation officer in Harlem police court, was buried today in a flower-lined grave in the rear of her mistress' home. For three years the terrier had been the pet and delight of the younger children in the block. The children of the neighborhood insisted upon giving Nellie a proper funeral, and although averse to such a proceeding herself, Mrs. McCauley at last permitted the children to carry out their plan. Every child in the block brought flowers.

New Use for Wireless Telegraphy.

The commerce destroyer cruiser Columbia was ordered to sea this morning from the North river to destroy the abandoned schooner Edward N. Warren, which was deserted in May last with a cargo of lumber and which has been a menace to navigators ever since. The Columbia had scarcely passed out of Sandy Hook when a dispatch came from Washington that the steamer Indian sighted the ocean wanderer yesterday about 100 miles southeast of Sandy Hook. This information was conveyed to the Columbia, then 50 miles from Sandy Hook by wireless telegraph. The "O. K." on the dispatch was received from the cruiser, and the probability is that the Warren will be blown up before nightfall.

Wins Liberty With a Laugh.

Her hearty, wholesome laugh, when she found that no one could understand her dialect, cleared Mary Burda, a pretty 20-year-old Russian girl, of the charge of attempted suicide in Harlem police court today. Magistrate Wahle thought it was not the laugh of a would-be suicide. The police claimed she tried to kill herself by inhaling illuminating gas, but her friends say it was an accident, due to her ignorance of the properties of the illuminant. When she burst forth in amusement at the interpreters' efforts, Magistrate Wahle remarked: "A girl who can laugh like that isn't the kind who wants to commit suicide. You are discharged."

Good as Trip to Ireland.

The public school children of New York city are to have their day at the Irish fair at Madison Square garden tomorrow. The exposition hall has been set aside for the benefit of the children from 10 o'clock in the morning to 1 in the afternoon. Everything will be free to them, including admission. The principals of all the public schools have been notified by the management to bring the children from each school in a body. The following Saturday, September 30, the same hours have been set aside for the children of the orphan asylums and parochial schools of New York.

Sir Gilbert Looks Like Lodge.

"There goes Senator Lodge," whispered a lounger to his friend in the hall of the Hotel Netherlands as an alert, faultlessly attired man passed by the two on his way out of the hotel yesterday morning. But the man taken for the senator from Massachusetts was none other than Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist and British member of parliament. The resemblance between Senator Lodge and Sir Gilbert is somewhat marked at first glance.

Tammany is Waiting for Murphy.

Tammany Leader Murphy is to return to the city on Monday from his summer home and is expected to be on duty at the Fourteenth street wigwam every day until the end of the campaign. It was made known today that beyond the nomination of Mayor McClellan there is no fixed and final slate for the Tammany nominations for city, county and borough offices. Leader Murphy will begin next week discussions with the district leaders about candidates.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings About the People Who Are Traveling.

The Railway club of Pittsburgh held an outing at Imperial yesterday afternoon and its opening meeting for the season of 1905-6 at the Monongahela house last night. About 200 members were present, and one of the best meetings yet held for the discussion of a technical railroad subject resulted from the subject, "End Shocks in Car Service and Provision for Same in Car Framing." This was presented by A. Stucki, M. E., of Pittsburgh, formerly identified with the Pressed Steel Car Company and recently with the Standard Steel Car Company. The subject was treated in a very thorough manner by Mr. Stucki, while phases of the paper were taken up in an interesting discussion by a number of those present. Among the latter were F. T. Besse of the Westinghouse Airbrake Company, E. W. Summers of the Summers Steel Car Company, General Foreman George E. Carson of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie car department, George E. Gies of the Pennsylvania company, and Superintendent of Rolling Stock F. H. Stark of the Pittsburgh Coal Company.

At the business session, which preceded the reading of the paper, officers to serve for the year ensuing from the October meeting were nominated. The list included a new vice president and a finance committee. Changes in the by-laws to provide for these officers were proposed last night, and will be passed on in October. President L. H. Turner presided at the meeting. The nominations resulted as follows:

President, D. F. Crawford and F. H. Stark; first vice president, F. H. Stark, D. J. Redding, D. F. Crawford, F. R. McFeatters, H. W. Watts and W. J. Buchanan; second vice president, George T. Barnsley, G. P. Sweeley, E. B. Gilbert, W. J. Buchanan, D. J. Redding, M. A. Malley; executive committee, F. R. McFeatters, J. P. Prendergast, R. H. Blackall, G. P. Sweeley, G. E. Carson; finance committee, H. B. Ayres, R. Evans, Charles Lindstrom, J. M. Hansen; membership committee, A. M. Schoyer, S. C. Mason, R. H. Blackall, R. A. Bole, J. B. Safford, A. B. Bellows; secretary, J. D. Conway, C. V. Wood; treasurer, J. D. McIlwaine, J. S. Hukill.

One of the best proofs of the growing popularity and usefulness of the club was shown in the application of 39 railroad men for membership. The club now has about 640 members.

Along with the opening meeting of the club there was an afternoon outing at Imperial, where about 100 members and 75 of their wives were guests of the Pittsburgh Coal Company. It was intended to inspect the mine of the coal company, but this could not be done to advantage. After a visit to the Allegheny county fair at Imperial the party assembled about two long tables on the lawn of the home of F. B. Dunbar, superintendent of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Imperial, and an elaborate chicken supper was served. Short addresses were made by President Turner, Vice President W. R. Woodford of the coal company, and Willis C. Squire of the American Locomotive Company. The party went to Imperial in three special cars at 1 o'clock and returned in a special train just before 8 o'clock last evening.

May Help Dan Cupid Along.

It was innocently said, of course, but doubtless the anxiety of the real estate agent for a new lot plan to assist the two young people he took to be bride and bridegroom in selecting a lot for a "house for two" will help Dan Cupid along in the work of piercing two hearts. The young man's name was—well, he is a well-known young man identified with the Carnegie Steel Company, and the young lady is a teacher in the Allegheny public schools. They had gone out Thursday evening for a car ride, and after reaching the end of the new Bellevue car line they decided to take a walk through a part of Bellevue that neither of them had seen. Luckily, possibly, for Dan Cupid, they walked innocently in the direction of the land office. The agent saw them coming and politely asked whether they were looking for a lot.

"No, sir; just taking a walk," growled the young man, as he turned about and asked the young lady to make a hasty retreat.

Then she accused him of not wanting to have such a subject broached, but he assured her that such was not the case. There will doubtless be another vacancy in the Allegheny schools for next year, and it may come before that time if Cupid gets a few more assistants.

✦ ✦ ✦

Mechanics Off for Dedication.

A large party of people representing the Junior Order of United American Mechanics left for Tiffin, O., in a special train over the Pennsylvania lines last night. J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines, was in charge of the party and saw that everything was to their liking. The members of this organization from branches in Allegheny county, together with a number of representatives from other parts of the state, are going to Tiffin to assist in the dedication there today of a manual training and industrial school in connection with the orphan educational institution that was established there about eight years ago. The building was erected at a cost of about $3,000, while almost an equal amount will be expended in fitting up the building for teaching the artisans of the future from among the orphans of the order who happen to be sent there. At the dedicatory exercises John Bask, president of the Allegheny county association, will preside. H. I. Riley of this city will be one of the principal speakers. There were about 200 in the party last night.

SOME TROUBLE IN FUSION CAMP

Citizens Indorse Plummer and Nominate Dempster and J. A. Clark's Friend Kick.

DEMOCRATS MAY NOT RATIFY

The Citizens party has put J. Lee Plummer at the head of their county ticket. While, of course, every good citizen in Pennsylvania would like to see Mr. Plummer, who is the Republican candidate for state treasurer, get every vote available, some of the Democrats in Allegheny county have a foolish idea that Mr. Plummer's opponent, William H. Berry, has a faint chance of winning, and therefore the Citizens, in indorsing Mr. Plummer made trouble for themselves. Col. James M. Guffey insists that Berry must be put at the head of the Citizens-Democratic fusion ticket, and as Mr. Guffey's desires happen to chime in with County Commissioner James A. Clark's ambitions, there may be trouble today when the Democratic committee on vacancies meets.

The Citizens party's committee on vacancies met yesterday to complete their end of the fusion county ticket. Besides indorsing Plummer and thus going contrary to Col. James M. Guffey, they also nominated Alexander Dempster to be Clark's running mate for county commissioner on the fusion county ticket. Clark knows the fusion ticket has no chance of winning, but that with a weak running mate on the ticket he would stand a good chance of being the successful minority candidate, for no party may elect more than two of the three county commissioners.

Clark May Aid Guffey.

Clark somehow considers Dempster a tolerably strong man, one for whom Citizens party voters might put in "qlunkers," that is, ballots with Clark's name scratched, so that Dempster might land the minority commissionership. Clark does not want to take such chances. The ticket made up by the Citizens committee on vacancies must be ratified by the Democratic committee on vacancies, which will meet today. Guffey wants Berry for state treasurer on the ticket, Clark wants nobody for county commissioner, therefore, Guffey and Clark are one.

A close friend of Clark said last night that there would be trouble when the Democratic committee is notified officially today of the action of the Citizens committee. The Democrats may threaten that if the Citizens refuse to indorse Berry the will call another Democratic convention and knock the fusion program sky high by nominating an entire Democratic ticket for county offices. Clark's friend intimated that the Clark Democrats would raise the cry of "Berry for state treasurer on the fusion ticket," thus pleasing Col. Guffey and putting in gram. a strong lick for Clark, while at the same time carrying out Clark's program. What they really will do remains to be seen. The Democrats are so accustomed to being buncoed by the Citizens that it is possible they will swallow today the dose prepared for them.

Vacancies Filled by Citizens.

The vacancies which the Citizens committee filled yesterday and which action will be submitted to the Democratic committee are as follows: For county commissioner, Alexander Dempster. He is about 61 years old, was born in Scotland, came to Pittsburgh with his parents when a boy, worked in coal mines and glass factories, studied civil engineering and was employed by various railroads, was city engineer of Pittsburgh for 10 years, having as assistant E. M. Bigelow, now director of the department of public works; was a coal mine operator, is an old soldier and has a barrel of large dimensions. Mr. Dempster is president of the board of trustees of the Western university, is a trustee of the Carnegie institute, a member of the Duquesne club and a prominent United Presbyterian. For prothonotary, C. G. Mentel of No. 195 Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny. Mr. Mentel was born on September 12, 1867, attended the common schools, went through a business college and became a bookkeeper for a firm in which he afterward became a partner; studied architecture and in 1891 became an architect, which calling he has practiced since. He is a Mason, an Odd Fellow, an Elk and a member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. For director of the poor, Henry Serena of Dravosburg. Mr. Serena is said to have been born in America, was a coal miner, a veteran of the rebellion, was in business for himself and is now retired.

W. S. Woods, chairman of the Citizens party county committee, may appoint the executive committee tomorrow. The executive committee will meet next week to make arrangements for a mass meeting at Old City hall to be held in about two weeks.

FINDS HUSBAND'S BODY.

Ross Township Butcher Has Business Reverses and Hangs Himself in His Slaughter House.

Hanging by a rope to a rafter in his house the body of Valentine Dorr, a Ross township butcher, was found last night by his wife. Business reverses are assigned for his act. Dorr made a visit yesterday, and when he returned home last night he seemed to be in a jovial mood.

About 9 o'clock his wife found her husband hanging in the slaughter house dead. She notified some neighbors, who cut down the body. Dorr was well known. He formerly had a butcher shop in McKeesport, but moved to his old home outside of Millvale several years ago. He was 60 years old and is survived by his widow and four sons.

TRACTION EMPLOYES GIVE MAXWELL A SENDOFF

About 300 employes of the Allegheny division of the Pittsburgh Railways Company last night marched in a body to the residence of Superintendent J. M. Maxwell in Allegheny avenue, where they presented him with a beautiful diamond scarf pin. The procession formed in Parkway and was headed by a brass band. Mr. Maxwell leaves Allegheny to become general manager of the Beaver Valley Traction Company. He will assume his new duties within a few days. He is to be succeeded in Allegheny by M. W. Flannigan, superintendent of the Westmoreland county railway.

Despondent Butcher Hangs Himself

Despondent over ill-health Valentine Door, a butcher of Reserve township, back of Millvale, committed suicide by hanging himself with a strap to a rafter in the barn yesterday afternoon. He had threatened for some time to end his life, but no attention was paid to his talk, as he seemed rational on all other subjects. He had sold meat to residents of Sharpsburg and Millvale for 25 years, and was well known to the residents of both boroughs.

Italian Mysteriously Killed.

BELLEVERNON, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Domenico Cirriciona, an Italian, was murdered in the stable in the rear of August Arrigo's fruit store this evening. He had been working in the stable and came running out crying "Somebody killed me." He lived about 20 minutes. The man had been stabbed in the heart, the knife being found where he had been at work. The weapon is of Italian make.

PRIMARY VOTE IS TABULATED

Result as Announced Is Not Changed, but Figures Show What Might Happen.

LOWRY AHEAD OF COCHRANE

The Republican returning board have completetd the tabulation of the vote at last Saturday's primary election, and Chairman Thomas J. Ford and Secretary Charles A. Muehlbronner were instructed to certify to the proper officers the names of the successful candidates. The total number of votes cast at the primaries was 32,796. This was the number cast for recorder, the candidates for that office having received more votes than candidates for any other office.

The clerks who tabulated the votes kept the votes of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the county generally separate only on the offices for which two or more candidates were running. Where only one candidate was running, the total county vote only was tabulated, Allegheny and Pittsburgh being lumped in with the rest of the couny.

Under the new rules the candidate receiving the largest vote at the primary would not necessarily win over his opponent, for that opponent might receive the larger apportionment of the vote cast at the presidential election. In one case the tabulation shows how this might occur. As will be seen below, I. K. Campbell received 20,563 votes at the primary and C. B. Price got 19,568, yet in the apportionment of the presidential vote Price got 62,655 and Campbell 62,631. Campbell got 996 more votes at the primary than Price received, yet the apportionment gives Campbell 24 votes less than Price. That was because some of the districts which Price carried cast a larger Republican presidential vote than some of the districts which Campbell carried.

Lowry Leads Cochrane.

Another example: Harvey A. Lowry got 5,233 votes at the primary election and Robert K. Cochrane 6,811, receiving the majority over Lowry. Yet Lowry carried districts which happened to have had a large Republican presidential vote, so that in the apportionment of the presidential vote Lowry got 20,091 votes and Cochrane 15,349, which puts Lowry ahead of Cochrane, although Lowry got fewer votes at the primary than Cochrane. Of course John A. Fairman got a majority over both and is the Republican nominee for recorder.

The vote cast in the county for the highest presidential elector on the Republican ticket was 90,504, and the reason Judge James S. Young and Robert E. Stone were not credited with this total was because 26 districts either held no primary election or sent in no returns. The presidential vote in those districts could not, therefore, be apportioned.

The following is the total vote of the county on all candidates, the first column being the vote actually received and the second column the Roosevelt vote of 1904, apportioned among the candidates as provided in the new county rules, in the ratio that the vote of each candidate bears to the total number of votes cast for him and his competitors:

NO INDORSEMENT FOR MR. BERRY

He Will Have No Place on the City Party Ticket of Philadelphia.

THE DEMOCRATS ARE FURIOUS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.

The real reason why the City party has thus far refused to place William H. Berry, Democratic candidate for state treasurer, on its ticket was made known today. Much indignation is expressed by the Democrats, who realize that ex-Judge Gordon has used them to handle his burnt chestnuts. City Chairman Donnelly still hopes for an indorsement of Berry, but he realizes that it will not materialize. What Col. Guffey will say when he learns the true facts had better be left to imagination.

At no time has Gordon intended to permit the City party to indorse Berry. His reason, as explained to the writer by one of the judge's confidants, is that if the City party should indorse the Democratic state ticket, it would be barred from the participation in the Republican primaries next January. At that time the Republican ward and city committeemen are elected, and Gordon, with the assistance of Mayor Weaver, believes the City party will be able to capture the Republican organization. For this reason the City party this fall is to vote a headless ticket, so far as state candidates are concerned.

The Weaver-Gordon combine, I am informed, has no hope of electing its ticket this fall. This view is predicted on the experience derived from many previous efforts, all of which were failures, which have emphasized the fact that the Republican organization of Philadelphia is invulnerable to outside attacks. Weaver and Gordon have therefore concluded that the only way in which they can secure control is to capture the organization itself.

Mayor Weaver is expected to veto the loan bills passed yesterday against his protest. The Republican leaders say councils will override the veto. Next week the Work committee will start its investigation of Mayor Weaver's alleged violation of the Bullitt act in ordering dismissals and making appointments for political purposes. Director Potter will also be asked under what law he threatens to discharge employes for making voluntary contributions to the Republican campaign fund.

Secretary of the Commonwealth Robert McAfee was a visitor today at Republican state headquarters. He had a long talk with Chairman Andrews. Mr. McAfee was on his way to Atlantic City. Another caller was Fred Julian of Emporium.

Director of Public Works Acker today instructed D. J. McNichol & Co. to proceed with the pipe line contract. As the work of this firm is under investigation by the mayor's expert, Maj. Gillette, U. S. A., the order to go ahead is significant.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

WIFE LOSES AN EYE.

Woman Charges Her Husband With Inhuman Treatment.

Charging her husband with clutching her by the throat, dashing her to the floor, and biting her eyes until it was gouged out of its socket, Mrs. John Manatto of Fleming Park, near McKees Rocks, had the man whose name she bears committed to jail last night. He is an Italian while she is an Irish woman.

She is in the care of a physician, who replaced the eye in its normal position and who believes her sight may be saved. Manatto claims the injury was caused by his wife falling down a flight of stairs, though she charges that he frequently beat her into unconsciousness.

Etna Has New Fire Department.

Etna borough has a new fire department. It will adopt the sign of the Phoenix as its insignia and the people will not be obliged to pay higher insurance rates. The old members of the borough fire department, who resigned on account of a difference of opinion with the town council, have been superceded by 18 husky men, who have volunteered their services with the new company. Joseph M. Harmon, borough superintendent of water and light, has been appointed chief.

WATER SHORTAGE STILL EXISTING

Some Residents of Twentieth Ward Claim They Have Not Been Relieved.

TROUBLE IS LAID TO PIPES

A difference of opinion as to the effect of tapping the big South Side main to give the Twentieth ward an increased water supply was expressed last night at a meeting of the residents of the Baum Grove and Friendship avenue districts. The meeting was held in the Friendship school house. About 50 persons were present, among whom was a strong showing of the city payroll gathered from various sections of the ward.

The meeting was conspicuous by the absence of Dr. W. R. Hamilton, David Kirk and others, who were the chief agitators for a better water supply. Charles W. Houston presided. He called upon J. W. Houston, chairman of the special committee appointed to secure relief.

Mr. Houston said he had not secured data from the water bureau as to what measures had been taken by the city officials to give the ward relief. He said he resided at Pacific and Friendship avenues, and had not discovered any particular improvement.

"The pressure is still very light," said H. J. Lynch of Friendship and Winebiddle avenues.

"The pressure is no better than it was before," said William M. Miller, who resides in Pacific avenue.

Advice from City Employe.

"I live in Friendship avenue," said J. W. Wallace, an employe of the public safety department, "and I got an abundant supply when I had the pipes drilled out which connect the house with the street main. That, I believe, is the trouble with others in the district. If they would get some plumber to clean out the connecting pipes they would get plenty of water."

"I can't tell you how it was done, but I know that we have more water than we had before," said Councilman A. G. Roenigk.

"Superintendent Shepherd of the water bureau said there is now sufficient pressure in the pipes, but the mud and rust, which has accumulated there for years, interferes with the passage of the water," said Councilman C. W. Helmold. "If these pipes are cleaned there will be plenty of water for every person. Mr. Shepherd asks that every person who has failed to secure relief file their complaints direct with him, and he will send an inspector to every house to see what the trouble is. If you will notify Mr. Shepherd or the councilmen of the ward we will be glad to give the matter prompt attention. To give the entire Twentieth ward enough water we will have to have the ward repiped, and it will require about $275,000 for new pipes in the Twentieth and also the Sixteenth ward adjoining, where a shortage of water also exists."

Asserts Supply Is Abundant.

"There is an abundant supply," said Councilman G. W. Hammer of Rebecca street. "There was formerly a pressure of only five pounds, and there is now a pressure of 35 pounds, with 10 pounds more being held in reserve, which Superintendent Shepherd says he will turn on whenever needed. At the Ursuline academy, in Winebiddle avenue, they have water on the third floor, something which has not been known in years."

"There is a sufficient supply in my house and a flat which I rent," said Edward Kern, residing in Winebiddle avenue near Penn avenue. "We are getting water on the third floor, something which we have not had before. If the pipes in Pacific avenue and other streets were pumped out the supply might be all right."

Director James W. Clark said the water supply had been improved from a pressure of five to 35 and 38 pounds.

J. W. Wallace moved that thanks be extended to the committee and the councilmen for their efforts in securing an improved water service, and Councilman Roenigk amended the motion by including Director Bigelow and Superintendent Shepherd as entitled to praise. The meeting voted to continue the committee until the increased supply is extended to other consumers who are still complaining of a shortage of water.

NEWS OF THE NEARBY TOWNS AND COUNTRY

PREDICTED WAR IS NOW ON IN OHIO OIL FIELDS

Independent Refiners Extend Their Territory and Will Fight the Standard Oil Company.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

FINDLAY, O., Sept. 23.—The predicted war between the Standard Oil Company and the independent refiners in Ohio, is now on in the Hancock and Wyandot counties' fields. The local officers of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company received a telegram last night extending the lines of the North Lima field from a mile and a half south of the Wood county line 14 miles south in Hancock county, and also embracing the whole of the Wyandot county field. The effect of this will be to give many independent producers North Lima prices, or an advance of five cents on the barrel.

The territory taken in by this extension embraces practically the entire field covered by the independent refiners—the National Refining Company, with its plant here, and the Wyandot Production and Refining Company, which began operations last Saturday in the Wyandot county field. The local independent refiners, in order to compete with the Standard, will now have to meet the latter's prices and pay a few cents in addition to get oil.

These companies have been eating into the Standard's product recently, and the Standard has been fighting them, not only with the old established lines of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, but it has also greatly enlarged the field of the Manhattan, a subsidiary company, by extending its lines and paying a bonus of five to 10 cents over the prices set by the independent refineries. The Standard is buying up all the best production, which has been going to the independent refiners.

LATROBE, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—After the unlimited use of whisky as an antidote for the bite of a copperhead snake, Henry Baur, aged 60 years, lapsed into a state of coma and narrowly escaped being buried alive. Baur, who is a retired business man of Pittsburgh, has been spending the summer in a cottage on the ridge bordering the Youghiogheny river, 10 miles below Connellsville. He was bitten by a large copperhead snake a few days ago.

He was a firm believer in the efficacy of the whisky cure, and at once began the treatment. William Worme, his only companion in his isolated home, was hastily sent to Dawson to secure a quantity of whisky. Upon his return, as no unfavorable symptoms had developed, the treatment was continued.

Later Worme was overcome by sleep watching at the bedside, and when he awoke shortly after midnight he was horrified by the discovery that Baur was cold and rigid. Supposing that he was dead he washed and shaved him and prepared the body for the grave, straightening it out on a board. He then waited for the daybreak, and started to report Baur's death.

Meanwhile a physician, who had been sent for just after Baur was bitten, arrived. Investigation disclosed the fact that the supposed dead man was in a comatose sleep. Antidotes were given and consciousness returned. The cure had been thorough, and no ill effects from the snake bite remained.

MAIL CLERK HURT WHILE WATCHING HIS FIANCEE

Threw Package from Moving Train to Girl He Was to Marry and Was Struck by a Crane.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MARTINSBURG, W. VA., Sept. 22.—Leaning from the door of his car to see if the girl whom he was to marry secured a package which he had tossed out, E. S. Bond, a mail clerk, was struck by a mail crane and fatally injured. Bond's run was between New York and Grafton on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. He was engaged to marry a young woman at Pawpaw, W. Va.

While his train, the eastbound express No. 2, was running through that town this morning he threw from the mail car a package to his fiancee, who was standing on the station platform to receive it. Bond looked out the door to see if the package reached her safely, and just as she nodded and waved her hand to him, his head crashed against a mail crane.

Dr. I. J. McCurdy, of Frederick, who was a passenger, attended the unconscious man until Martinsburg was reached, when he was taken off the train and placed in the King's Daughters hospital. It is said that he cannot live. Bond was to have quit the road in two weeks to enter a medical college. His home was in Randolph county, this state.

BANK FILES EXCEPTION IN THE M'KINLEY CASE

It Is Alleged That as Creditor of the Estate It Was Defrauded by Executrix.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SOMERSET, PA., Sept. 22.—Exceptions to the account made by Mrs. Annie E. McKinley as executrix of the estate of her husband, the late Abner McKinley, have been filed by the Seaboard National bank of New York.

Other exceptions are likely to be filed. The principal fight is to be made on the disposal of the moneys realized by the executrix on insurance policies, the exceptants alleging that as creditors of the estate they were defrauded. The exceptions filed by the bank today declare:

"Annie E. McKinley, executrix of the said Abner McKinley, deceased, has failed to have appraised a large amount of personal property of said deceased, consisting of household property, horses, carriages and other vehicles, harness, office furniture and other property of the value of several thousand dollars, and has failed to charge herself with the value of said property in her account, as exceptants are informed and believe. And hence the accountants should be charged with the same and be required to account therefor as part of the assets of the estate of said Abner McKinley, deceased."

clothing specialized

It has become the custom with many manufacturers to extensively advertise their own production in order to create demand at the stores for Clothing of their make.

We want the men who may have been impressed with any of the advertising referred to, to understand that we carry selections from all the best of the advertised lines and can give you something to suit your taste, judgment and pocketbook, if not from one, then from another.

We think it is good business judgment for the maker to advertise to create demand for his product, but we think it would be fatally ruinous for us to sell one line to the exclusion of others—we could not survive the limitation—could not please all tastes, as we now can so successfully.

All make some undesirable things, tho' all don't make real good things, and as it's the real good things we want for you, we've got to get them where we can.

The pith of this talk is that we are now ready with a very large collection of highest class clothing—the best of the best—and invite inspection with positive assurance of absolute satisfaction.

50c ribbons, 35c

Never has a season opened with such a resolute demand for Ribbons—it seems Ribbons are an essential of every style for Fall wear.

In anticipation of this there was very active buying last summer with the hope and intention of making the volume of business exceed any ever done.

You're now asked to see the showing—see it and compare it with what else you've seen—anywhere.

Note excess of variety and the much less prices.

As a specific instance of the less prices note the 5 and 5½-inch Warp Print Ribbons at 35c a yard—as surely a saving of 15c on every yard you buy as anything can be said to be sure.

hosiery

Would it interest you if we tell you, candidly, a fact—a real fact—not an "advertising statement?"

This Hosiery Department has the established fame of showing the largest variety with one exception—and possibly two—in this country—that means much.

If "Variety" makes no difference to you, do you care about the "price"—if not that, do you care about "quality?"

On any one or all three of these propositions we can readily prove we should have your consideration in your own interest.

CATHOLICS TO OPEN SCHOOL FOR WOMEN

It Will Be the Church's First Pedagogical College for the Sex in This Country.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—One of the most interesting innovations in the Roman Catholic educational scheme, will be the opening in New York, October 16, of the first Roman Catholic pedagogical college for women.

Dr. William H. Maxwell, superintendent of the public schools of the borough of Manhattan, today signed the charter which makes a student, who follows the 90 hours' course prescribed by the new college, eligible to the city examinations for a three years' license to teach in the New York schools outside New York city, provided the student has also the degree of bachelor of arts.

The board of regents of New York state was so impressed with the scope and solidity of the syllabus of the new institution, that it gave its unqualified approval.

Designed chiefly for Catholic teachers in the public schools of New York, all women, irrespective of creed, will be welcomed. It is estimated there are more than 1,000 Catholic women teaching in public schools here. The course will cover history and principles of education, methods, logic, ethics and psychology.

Dr. Harris, United States commissioner of education, has invited Dr. Morgan M. Sheedy of Altoona, formerly of Pittsburgh, to prepare a report of the Roman Catholic parochial schools and colleges, to be incorporated with that of the government, the first instance of the kind in the history of American education.

WOULD ESTABLISH OCEAN ROUTES FOR STEAMSHIPS

France Asks Aid of Uncle Sam in Averting Loss of Life of Fishermen.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Through a note addressed by the French embassy in this city to E. T. Chamberlain, commissioner of navigation of the department of commerce and labor, France has asked the co-operation of the United States in the name of humanity in establishing the ocean routes pursued by mail steamers on the Atlantic, in such manner as to assure the safety of the fishermen who make a livelihood on the banks near Newfoundland. M. Charles De Chambrun, secretary of the French embassy, has a conversation with Mr. Chamberlain upon the matter three weeks ago, and his note is in extension of that conversation. The note says:

"Every year bemoans the constant increase of the sad death list supplied by the many collisions that occur about the banks of Newfoundland, the record of total losses of fishing vessels run down in the fog, in some cases those by whom they were sunk being unable to realize the destruction of human life they have unwittingly affected, and the mourning and destitution they have caused."

France has in its extension of the mail contract to the Compagnie Generale Trans-Atlantique inserted in the new contract the following provision:

"The distance taken as a basis of computation is the average fixed at 3171 nautical miles of actual course, corresponding to the various trips effected in the year between Havre and New York (medirian of Sandy Hook) provided that the mail steamers shall refrain from crossing the Newfoundland banks between the 15th of April and the 15th of October, except when compelled to do so by causes of vis major, which shall be established by producing the log book. With the exception of cases of vis major, every crossing of the banks of Newfoundland by a mail steamer between the 15th of April and the 15th of October, will make the concessionaire liable to a fine of $2,000 francs."

EAST BELLEVUE

INTO A BRILLIANT PANORAMA OF SUCH OPPORTUNITY AS CANNOT POSSIBLY BE IMAGINED BY ANYONE WHO MAY NOT BE AN EYE-WITNESS.

You will notice particularly under the woundrous glow of this splendid arc-illuminating system what natural merit the location possesses as a site for a suburb of unusual magnitude.

The broadness of the territory, the many viewpoints which command vision of each other, the living spectacle of a remarkable belt-line trolley coming in from different directions, to be joined at one grand termini—all this makes a sight grander by far on an electrified night than during the calm sunlight.

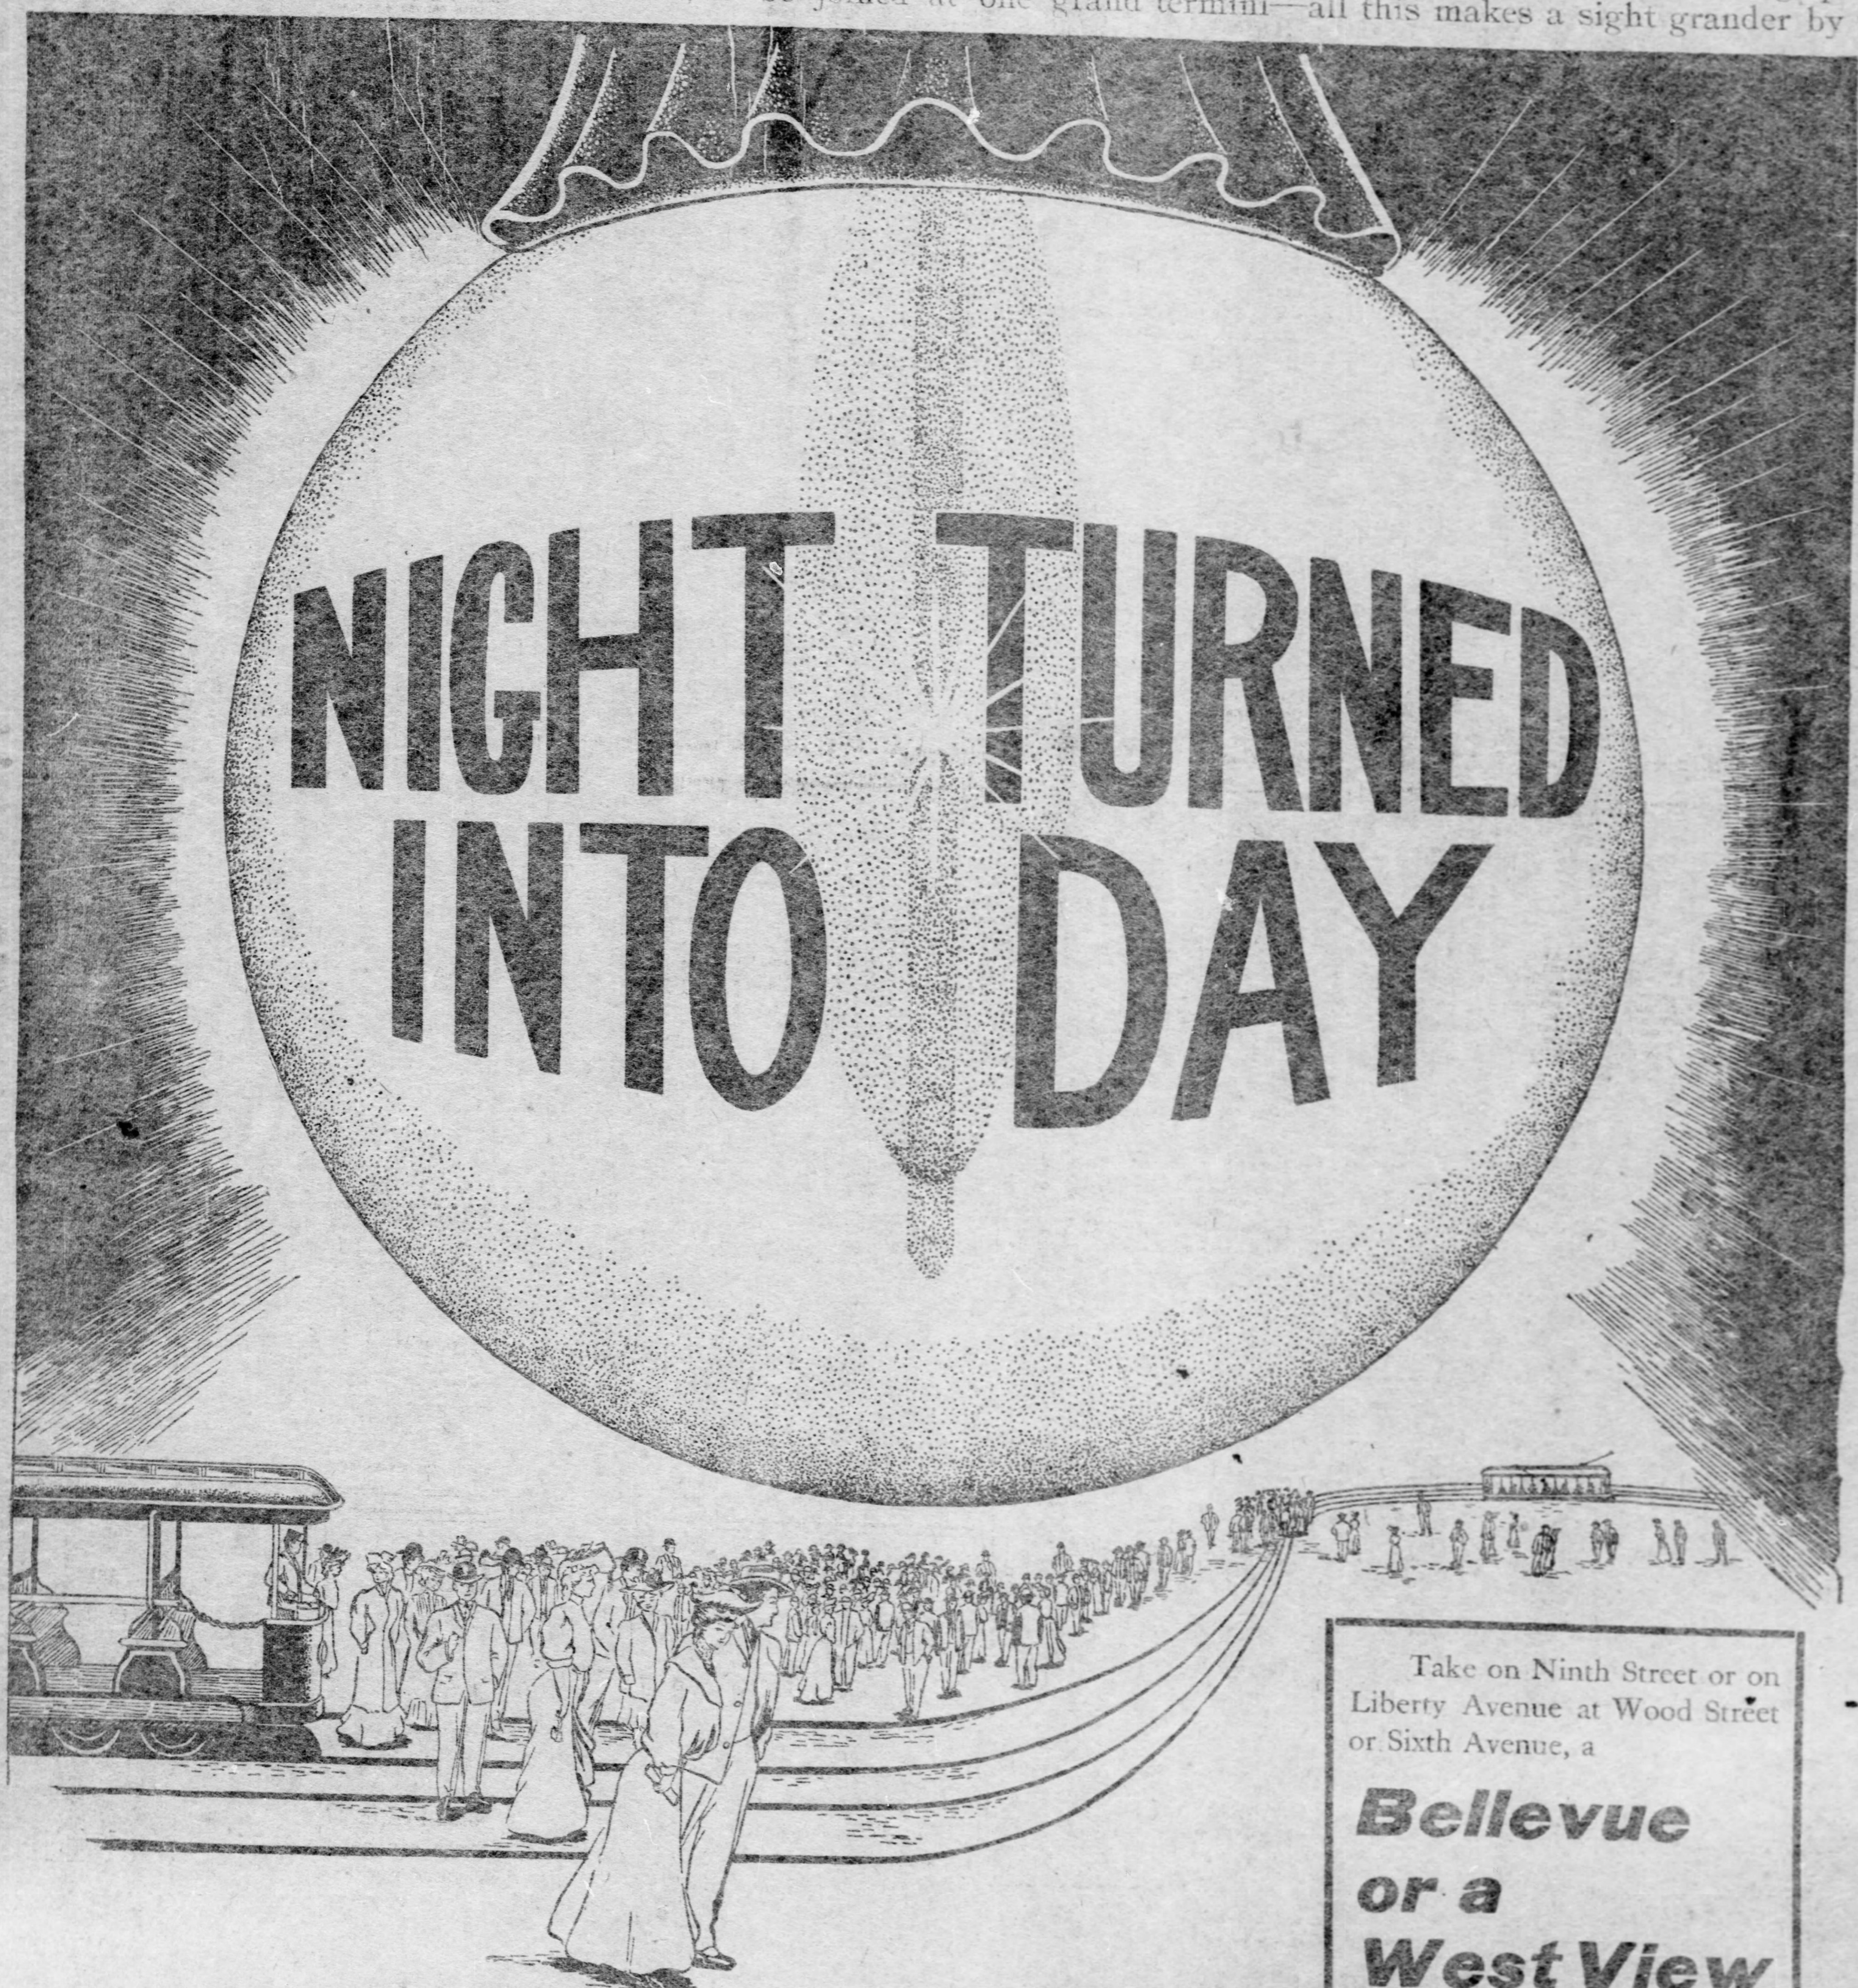
Truly may we say: "Night turned into day!" Just as truly may we state that beautiful Bellevue will have no grounds on which to adversely criticise the strong, fine suburb which is born to make way for the greater destiny—for the population that's been waiting and is now coming.

Coming out of the smoke zone! Coming from lower Bellevue and Avalon, where frontage is high-priced but the future not so promising! Coming from all the boroughs up and down the Ohio. Coming from almost everywhere!

Coming to East Bellevue where $40 to $60 frontage is going like magic into the hands of homeseekers at $2 to $15.

We say $40 to $60 frontage at $2 to $15, because $40 to $60 is what the Bellevue frontage that we are competing with is bringing. The Bellevue frontage that is out of the smoke zone, on Lincoln Avenue, the business thoroughfare, has advanced to even $125 a foot.

All the East Bellevue lots have building restrictions. Most of them are 40x150 ft.



Take on Ninth Street or on Liberty Avenue at Wood Street or Sixth Avenue, a

Bellevue or a West View Car.

Both lines are completed to the property, although over widely different routes.

The streets are graded, sewered, electric lighted. There is also gas, and within twenty days the same fine sand-filtered water that is supplied to Bellevue and West View will be piped to every lot on the plan.

Many of the lots are tagged $100, $150, $200, $250, $300, $350, $400, $450, $500, $550, $600 to $1,000, on terms of 5 per cent down and 2½ per cent monthly, with 10 per cent discount for cash.

Architect's services free. Provisional Premium Bonds free. These are two great specials. Inquire for particulars about them.

GAMES TODAY.

Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
New York at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Boston at St. Louis.

There was an exciting finish at Exposition park yesterday between the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia teams. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Pittsburgh when the Phillies began the ninth inning. Bransfield and Doolin were thrown out. Dooin made a single. Otto Kruger, the ex-Pirate, batted in place of Sparks and sent a beauty to left for a single. Thomas was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Now all eyes were on Kid Gleason, who strode to the plate with much determination. He did hit the ball, but his best was a fly to Leach, and then all eyes were turned on Tommy.

All the action in the game on both sides was confined to the first few innings. For the third time this season Bill Duggleby tried his hand against the Pirates, and for the third time he proved a failure. He lasted three innings yesterday, but in each of his previous appearances here he did not get beyond a half inning. He was certainly game, but had to retire after the third inning. Altogether he pitched only four innings in Pittsburgh this season.

The Pirates jumped on him at the very outset for six hits and three runs. There would have been more runs had not Ganley been caught napping at first base. The youngster was caught by Duggleby, and never ventured near the bench where Capt. Clarke sat. However, he redeemed himself during the game by two sacrifice hits and a splendid catch in center field in the fifth inning.

The Pirates made three runs in the first inning on six hits. Ganley started off with a single to center, but was caught at first. Clymer and Leach also made clean singles. Wagner hit for a single and Clymer scored. Howard, who has not been feeling well and later made way for Hillebrand, struck out. Brain took up the good work by singling to left, scoring Leach. Wagner and Brain tried the double steal. Brain did not succeed in stealing, but Wagner scored while the Phillies were trying to run down Brain. Ritchey made a single, and he and Brain moved up a base on a wild pitch. Both were left when Peitz went out on a grounder to Gleason.

In the second inning the Phillies scored a run. Bransfield hit for a single and scored on Doolin's out at first. Bransfield, by the way, put up a great all-round game and deserved the applause given him.

In their half of the second the Pirates apparently cinched the game by scoring three runs. Leifield and Clymer were on base when Hans Wagner smashed the ball along the left field for a home run, chasing two runs in ahead of him.

A double play by Doolin, Gleason and Bransfield spoiled the only chance the Pirates had of scoring any more runs. Sparks relieved Duggleby after the third inning and only two Pirates reached third base.

The Phillies showed their grit in the fourth by nearly tying the score. Courtney went out on a low liner to Brain and Magee went out to Clymer. Titus biffed the ball along the right field foul line for a single. Bransfield hit to right for two bases. Clymer made a desperate attempt to catch the ball and fell. That is the reason Titus got to second base only. Doolin rammed the ball to center for a single, scoring Titus and Bransfield. Dooin hit across second base. Wagner made a great effort to get it, but it darted away. Dooin went clear to third base. Wagner, after getting the ball, threw to third to catch Doolin and under the throw Dooin went to second. Old man Duffy, still a holy terror, went to bat for Duggleby. He knocked the ball to Ritchey, who failed to hold it, and Doolin and Dooin scored. Thomas forced Duffy at second, and prevented any further scoring.

For the balance of the game the Phillies reached first base only once until the ninth inning, when they went down with the bases full. Attendance 2,500. Score:

DOPING OUT A RACE AT COUNTY FAIR

Did you ever go to a county fair and watch the farmers "dope" out a race? Of course it usually requires the ponies to circle the track three or four times before they make a mile, but this whirling around the oval simply makes the country race more exciting.

At the rural race track you don't see spectators in "horsey" clothes with field glasses swung over their shoulders or with long wads of new money bulging from their pockets, but just the same you will see folks there who can figure out finishes in a way that would amaze the more sophisticated turfman. Here is a picture made at the fair at Imperial during a lively start in the 2:40 trot. It is a characteristic scene. If you think the man with the umbrella and the score card hasn't "doped" how the finish will look, you are a poor student of human nature.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 22.—Coach Piekarski put the Washington and Jefferson football players through light practice this afternoon, preparatory to the initial contest tomorrow afternoon with Bethany college. The coach put the varsity and scrub elevens through a half hour of association football.

W. U. P.

CONNEAUT LAKE, PA., Sept. 22.—With Banbury, Mehl and Art Griggs in the back field the varsity lined up this afternoon against the scrubs in the longest scrimmage of this week's practice. The varsity backs first tried a series of end plays, but failed to gain ground, and were forced to resort to fierce line attacks, to which the lighter scrub line proved far from invulnerable. Capwell made fine gains for the scrubs through the line, showing up better in carrying the ball than in defensive work. Q. Banbury and Swenson made several phenomenal end runs, Swenson hurdling tacklers on a long run for a touchdown. Turner, the new man from the law department, was given a trial at center and several times broke through the varsity line, tackling the runners for losses.

The varsity line has been subjected to frequent changes lately and the rivalry for a place in the regular line-up has brought forth some good work. Ritchey's tackling is exciting comment. Thompson arrived home last night and was out for practice today. The announcement was made this morning that the Grove City management had cancelled the game for September 30.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Foster H. Rockwell, three years quarterback on the Yale football eleven, returned to college today to help coach the back field. Rockwell would have another year on the team but for the fact that in his freshman year he played less than five minutes as a substitute in the opening game of the season. He was dropped soon afterward and returned to a preparatory school, but under the rules his brief experience counts a year.

Today's work was short and sharp, mainly in signals for formations that will be tried in the first scrimmage of the season tomorrow morning. The candidates will be allowed to leave town at noon to spend Sunday with friends.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Regardless of a return of hot weather, Coach Warner today insisted upon scrappy work from the Cornell football squad, because scrimmage will be started tomorrow. A full hour was spent with the pigskin being passed and dropped upon and with a few new stunts in quick starting with the snap of the ball. After this two combinations which are liable to be used first in scrimmage tomorrow were lined up and went through fast signal practice. The lineup follows:

Varsity.	Positions.	Scrubs.
Cook	Left tackle	Oderkirk
Dulaney	Left guard	Downes
Wilder	Center	Phipps
Furman	Right tackle	Fisher
Van Orman	Right end	Babcock
Newhall	Quarter back	Paten
Gibson	Left halfback	Earle
Martinez	Right halfback	Dragoshinoff
Wolheim	Fullback	Davis

Halliday is daily receiving instructions in punting. So far he has been doing very good work, but his drives are hardly long enough.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The Harvard varsity football candidates had their first lesson in tackling this afternoon, when Coach Reid and Capt. Hurley took two large squads over to the reserved section of the practice field and worked them for two hours on the "dummy." The showing was very satisfactory and Reid will now give the most promising players a scrimmage period Monday, in which the real article of football should be shown. The signal work was a feature of the afternoon, little or no fumbling was noticeable.

On the varsity eleven Bartol S. Parker replaced Pierce at left guard. Parker played the position last year against Yale, but from present indications he will have to show better form to oust Pierce from the berth. Six new men reported today, including Roy Spears, who was formerly identified with the class of 1902, and played on the freshman eleven captained by Dave Campbell. Spears left college, but he has entered the Lawrence Scientific school and is eligible for the varsity. Palmer, sub end last year, Prendergast, sub halfback, Church, Clarke and Doyle, the hurdler, appeared also. At the conclusion of the strength tests today Dr. Sargent said that Harvard had the poorest lot of candidates he had ever examined.

Bucknell.

LEWISBURG, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Bucknell's football squad had a light signal and kicking practice today in preparation for tomorrow's game with Lebanon Valley college. Capt. Cooper has returned to college after a short illness and will play tomorrow. Paul Smith, '05, is here for a few days and will assist coaching the quarterback candidates. The probable lineup will be: Goldsmith, left end; Baldwin, left tackle; Cooper (Capt.), left guard; Talbert, center; shade, right guard; Pierson, right tackle; Binns, right end; Frank, quarterback; Van Fleck, left halfback; Lenhart, fullback; and Obendorff, right halfback. Hawk, Frymire, Shorkley and Martin will be substituted later in the game.

Lehigh.

BETHLEHEM, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Instead of resting the men for the Albright college game tomorrow, Coach Newton ordered a scrimmage today. In the scrimmage Capt. Herman's eleven scored a touchdown, but only after half an hour of hard work in which Place, Brumbaugh and Torrey did good playing. A college massmeeting was held today and a hustling committee composed of McMullen, Daugherty, Price, Farley, Evans, '06; Mackall, Conrad, Carlock and Waddell, '07, was appointed.

Waynesburg Beats Fairmont.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Waynesburg beat Fairmont today, 6 to 1. Elmer Cannon pitched gilt-edged ball and fielded his position in fine shape. The game was never in doubt after the second inning, when Harry Wilhelm hit a homer with a runner on base, after which Fairmont seemed to lose nerve and played ragged ball. Milt. Montgomery duplicated Wilhelm's hit in the sixth. Score:

Waynesburg .... 0 2 2 0 1 1 0 0 *—6

Fine Weather and Races Will Attract Big Crowds to Brunots.

With delightful summer weather in prospect and the horses never so good this year as right now, the excellent card of seven races should attract a banner crowd to the matinee at Brunots island this afternoon. White Injured in Auto.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The first serious accident among the automobile racers who are preparing for the Vanderbilt cup races on Long Island, took place today when Walter C. White, one of the entrants, together with his chauffeur, was seriously injured. They were driving Mr. White's racing machine over the race course and attempted to make a sharp turn at Lakeville without reducing speed. The machine went off to one side of the road and struck a telegraph pole, throwing the occupants out. Doctors were summoned and the two men were taken back to their headquarters.

Notice to Lyceum Players.

WORLD'S RECORD IS EQUALLED

Audubon Boy Paces a Mile at Readville in the Fast Time of 1:59 1-4.

EAST MAY MEET THE WEST

READVILLE, MASS., Sept. 22.—More than 3,000 enthusiastic followers of harness racing saw Audubon Boy pace one of the most wonderful miles ever made under adverse conditions at the Readville track today. His time for the mile was 1:59¼, equalling the record made by Star Pointer 7 years ago. Audubon Boy started to beat 2:00¾. Weather conditions favored record time, but the protracted rains earlier in the week left the track heavy. The assistance of a pacemaker was useless, Audubon Boy having distanced his pacemaker before the half-mile post was reached.

In making the trial for the record, James Y. Gatcomb, owner of the chestnut stallion, refused to use a wind shield or to have a running horse draw a cart with canvas attached between the wheels in the lead during the mile, preferring to make the attempt in the same way that Star Pointer gained the world's record of 1:59¼ at the Readville track seven years ago. This is the present record with the runner or pacemaker going alongside. Dan Patch in 1902 paced a mile in Readville in 1:59¼ under similar conditions, but as he went to beat that time it was recorded as a losing performance. Since then Dan Patch has gained a record of 1:56, but this mark was made with a running horse in the lead.

It was a little after 4 o'clock when Audubon Boy tried for the record. The first quarter was made in 29 seconds and the next in 28¾ seconds, making the time for the half-mile 57¾ seconds. When the time was announced the crowd cheered. The third quarter was reached in 1:27¾, but before this it was seen that whatever the time of the mile Audubon Boy would have to make it entirely unassisted, the pacemaker then being 100 yards in the rear. Gatcomb did not make a stirring drive at the finish and was 31½ seconds coming to the wire, making the time for the mile 1:59¼, just equalling Star Pointer's time and giving Audubon Boy that mark, inasmuch as his attempt was for the purpose of beating 2:00¾.

As a result of Audubon Boy's performance today a match between the east and west is considered probable, Audubon Boy representing the east and Dan Patch the west. It is said that W. W. Savage, owner of Dan Patch, will agree to a match of speed at Memphis, Tenn., next month, as Gatcomb is anxious for a race.

Sweet Marie failed in an attempt to beat 2:04¾.

The remainder of the program consisted of several minor races. Axtelle gained a new record of 2:12¾ and Lord Roberts, by Arion, made a mark of 2:14.

Ten per cent of the gross receipts from all games will be paid to the National commission; 60 per cent of the remainder from the first four games will go to the players, 75 per cent to the winners and 25 per cent to the losers.

All the rest of the gross receipts will be divided equally between the two clubs.

Youngstown Wins at Niles.

NILES, O., Sept. 22.—Special.)—Niles was defeated in today's game by the Ohio Works, 5 to 1. Geyer pitched fine ball for Niles and with good support would have won his game. The features were the sensational fielding of Kruger and a sensational catch of a line drive by Geyer, making a double play, getting the runner off third. Red Nagel, who played third base for Niles last year, will join the Niles team tomorrow. Score:

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The first scrimmage of the year took place on University field today. After the usual rudimentary drill in passing, tackling and falling on the ball, the ends were given a long tryout in covering punts. McCormick and Bard did the kicking. At the conclusion of the practice two teams were lined up for a 15-minute period, in which neither side scored. The first team, with McCormick carrying the ball, displayed considerable ground gaining ability, but the work as a whole was very ragged.

Caruthers occupied Dutcher's place at center and passed the ball in a very acceptable manner. McClintock, who was kept out of the game last season on account of injuries, played quarterback on the first team and ran it well. Munn, who has been a substitute for the last three years as a back, was tried at end and showed up well. He is fast in getting down under punts and tackles well. Braser at left end also attracted attention by his fierce tackling.

U. of P.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Real football work begins at Penn tomorrow, when the first scrimmage of the season will be held. The coaches feel that the candidates have had sufficient hardening to warrant a more bruising practice and from now on until the end of the season daily scrimmages will be held on Franklin field. From the crowd in the grandstand today one would judge that the university had opened and all the students were on hand. But it is only the vanguard. Today's practice developed nothing new. It was noticed that the practice of blocking and charging from drop kicks was continued for a long time. While the practice was more for the charging forces, still Luby succeeded in placing some nice ones between the posts. Several of the men were absent from the practice on account of re-examinations and entrance examinations. Injuries are not very numerous are slight.

Come out to Brighton Heights Saturday afternoon or evening on Brighton Road cars. The entire property lighted up.

ROBERTS OF OAKMONT, THIRD

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HAMILTON, MASS., Sept. 22. — Will Anderson of the Apawamis Golf club successfully defended his title as open golf champion by winning today over the Myopia Hunt club's course. Alex Smith and Stewart Gardner both led Anderson the first day, but the Apawamis man passed them the second day.

BIG TENNIS MATCH TODAY.

Childs and Stephens Will Battle Again for Western Pennsylvania Championship.

The match for the tennis championship of Western Pennsylvania, postponed from last Saturday, will take place this afternoon on the courts of the Pittsburgh Golf club, Northumberland avenue, the contestants being Dr. T. W. Stephens, holder, and C. L. Childs, challenger. To prevent a repetition of last week's delay, when darkness intervened with the score two sets all and three games all in the fifth set, play will be called this afternoon at 2:30 sharp. Last Saturday nearly 1,000 people witnessed the match, and preparations have been made for an even greater crowd today. Stephen and Childs have each won the cup twice, and the winner today will own it permanently.

Hogan Tells Why.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 22—(Special.)—Marty Hogan of the Ohio Works team says the reason he agreed to go under national protection was that he wanted to secure the territory for a team in a regular league next year. Hogan has signed Pitcher Ferguson of the Louisville American association team for the balance of the season.

SULLIVAN DEFEATS LEWIS.

Washington Kid Receives Well-Merited Decision Over a Philadelphia Boxer.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.—Kid Sullivan of Washington got a well-merited decision over Harry Lewis of Philadelphia at the end of a 15-round fight tonight. Lewis proved himself a splendid boxer and a good general, but though he landed many blows, some of them powerful ones, he was unable to seriously hurt Sullivan, who looked anxious most of the time. Lewis had something the best of the fifth and sixth rounds, the others up to the eighth being even.

In the eighth Lewis went down from a terrific body blow, but got to his feet before Referee O'Hara reached the count of 10. He was evidently badly hurt, but came back gamely, though ineffectively. From that round to the end Sullivan had all the better of it, and in the final round even the holding that Lewis had been resorting to for several rounds scarcely saved him from a knockout.

RUBE WADDELL IS NOT SOLDIERING, SO HE SAYS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—George Edward Waddell, the famous "Rube" of the Athletics, writes an evening paper denying the ugly rumors circulated because of his failure to pitch during the past few weeks. It had been intimated that people interested in the New York club had arranged to keep Waddell out of the world's series. Waddell says he has not been "soldiering." His arm, he says, he cannot use, and he does not know what is wrong with it. He continues in part:

"I have too much pride in my club and my clubmates and manager to ever think of such a thing. Just to think how I, who have been so well treated and made so much of by the baseball patrons of the country, ever could bring the game into disrepute. I tell you, I would rather lose my left arm than ever to betray the confidence reposed in me by the sporting public. I hope to come around all right, and that we will win the pennant, and then for the world's series with the New York Giants. If I am in condition, I tell you I will certainly buffalo them. It will be the greatest effort in my life to beat Muggsy McGraw's crowd."

Last Day at Imperial.

"Colonel Forrest wins the heat and the race; time, 2:29¼," and the Imperial fair was a thing of the past. The first annual fair, which was held by the Allegheny County Agricultural association, closed yesterday with a glorious finish and Imperial laid aside all her pomp and excitement and once more settled down to the same little village that she formerly was. The weather yesterday was ideal and the track was fast, hard and in excellent condition. A crowd of more than 2,000 people turned out to see the finish, coming from all parts of Allegheny county. Pittsburgh was very well represented, many parties driving out from Coraopolis. Summaries:

HIGH SCHOOL MAY PRACTICE WITH W. U. P.

The Pittsburgh High school candidates were given their first practice yesterday afternoon under Coach Rugh. About 30 men showed up and for almost an hour the squad was chased up and down the field after punts. No scrimmage work was attempted, although there were formations. It is probable the high school team will practice some this fall with W. U. P. The W. U. P. team will be home before the Pittsburgh club closes its season, and it will be necessary to practice at some other park than Exposition. An invitation will be extended W. U. P. to work at Friendship park. Captain Worrell of high school thinks well of the plan.

William R. Morley, Columbia's head football coach, has arrived at the training quarters. The line-up that caught the coach most, with the weights of the men, follows: Enos, left end, 160; Echeverria, left tackle, 195; Ross, left guard, 230; Algeltinger, center, 204; Ryan, right guard, 193; Thorp, right tackle, 215; Hurley, right end, 173; Donovan, quarterback, 154; Starbuck, left halfback, 177; Armstrong, right halfback, 170; Carter, fullback, 180.

Tom Hammond arrived today in Ann Arbor, and when the announcement reached Whitmore Lake there was a whoop of joy that went up from the throats of the Michigan squad. Tom Hammond is now probably the greatest player among the Wolverines. The announcement last spring that he would go into business this year, and the fact that he did not show up early, caused a little uneasiness. His brother Harry, who won the "M" last year, has also arrived. The only veteran missing now is Schulte, and he is expected hourly.

TO ASK BIGELOW TO TEAR DOWN NEW STREET SIGNS

Twentieth-Ward Councilmen Declare the City Is Being Cheated—Markers Are Cheap and Unsightly—Will Call on Director Today.

The new street signs which have been put up throughout the city within the past few days are causing general dissatisfaction, and complaints will be lodged today with Director Bigelow. The street signs came up for an animated discussion by the Twentieth ward councilmen last night, and it was resolved that the matter would be laid before Director Bigelow at once.

"Director Bigelow and the city are being cheated," said Councilman Helmold. "The city is paying 75 cents for every one of these signs that are put up on telegraph poles or any old pole in the most unsubstantial and unsightly manner. The signs are held in place only by a nail driven through the center into the pole and is far from being a permanent fixture. Half of them will be down in a month. They are merely tacked up and present an unsightly aspect. No other city in the country would have such signs sticking up in the streets."

Corroborative testimony was given by Councilmen Roenigk and Hammer and others who were present. The delegation stepped up to the signs tacked up at Negley and Penn avenues and examined them. Each sign is about 15 inches long, made of tin or light sheet iron, with dark background and white letters. As Councilman Helmold states, they are attached to telegraph poles by a nail driven through the center. Instead of the ends of the four sides of the signs being fastened together in the form of a square and permanently secured, the two signs are placed above and crosswise to the other two, making far from a neat appearance.

"Director Bigelow ought to make the contractor tear every one of those signs down or else Controller Larkin ought to refuse to pay for them," said Mr. Helmold. "They are not put up according to specifications. The contract was given to a Nineteenth ward man. The city is paying out $5,000 for the job."

GRAFT CRUSADE TO BE RESUMED

Allegheny Confederation of Churches Begins Its Fall Housecleaning.

PLEA FOR GOOD CANDIDATES

The Allegheny vice crusade is to be continued. The Federation of Churches on the North Side has hopes of cleaning up the city beyond the bridges. The church people point with some pride to the success of last year's work and declare that they will make every effort in the future to stamp out corruption. They say that they are well provided with funds to carry on the campaign. The executive committee of the organization makes the following declaration of principles:

First—We aim to awaken the moral and religious people of our city to the importance of joining hands and making an aggressive attack on the great evils which exist among us. These evils exist because of the astonishing indifference of good people. They can be suppressed by the exercise of united moral force and the use of legal means.

Second—Known places of evil resorts, such as disorderly houses, speakeasies and gambling houses, are to be abolished. The friendly relations and the partnership of the city government with the dives are to cease. Public office is to be administered as a public trust.

Roosevelt an Example.

Third—The federation stands for the enforcement of law by the officers of the city. That is their business. We point to President Roosevelt and Governor Folk of Missouri as examples of officers who enforce the law.

Fourth—We commend the course of District Attorney Robert E. Stewart and the able counsel, John C. Haymaker and John Marron, who have been engaged with him in the prosecution of the graft cases. They have displayed extraordinary courage, energy and patience in this great work, and we recognize the fact that they have done their work in the face of tremendous obstacles. This federation will continue to give them its loyal support, as will the great mass of the moral and upright citizens of Allegheny.

Fifth—It is wiser, cheaper and better in every way to elect men to fill municipal offices who will give the city good government than it is to elect bad men and then undertake to compel them to obey the law. Therefore one of the chief aims of the federation must be to secure the election of men of good character and sound views, and who will pledge themselves to do the right thing. The federation must also aim definitely, for several reasons, to defeat bad candidates.

To Purify Politics.

Sixth—The federation is concerned about city officers, and not about politics in general. We have no desire to organize a political party or to nominate candidates. Our plan is to organize a body of voters who will hold the balance of power and also can elect or defeat the party candidate as the case may require. Politics has little or nothing to do with this business. It is a matter of morals, decency and good local government.

Seventh—We call on the leaders of the political organizations to put forward a man as candidate for mayor whose personal character and whose public and private conduct and utterances have been such as to leave no question as to his attitude on the honest enforcement of law against these evils which abound in our midst. Such a candidate, by whatever party put forward, will command the vigorous, open and aggressive support of the federation, both at the primaries and at the election. If no such candidate is presented we will be compelled to name one.

Eighth—Since many things may transpire to the profit of our cause between now and the holding of the primaries in January, we ask the members of the federation to be patient and hold aloof from pledging their support to any candidate until the atmosphere is clarified and the time ripe for united action.

Ninth—We have faith in the moral and honest people of Allegheny, that they will rise above party politics and loyally support the federation in its efforts to secure a faithful and honest enforcement of law.

Among the Clubs.

Daughters Meet at Reception.

The daughters of American pioneers and patriots met together yesterday afternoon at one of the most charming receptions of the season. It was the reception and tea given by the Keystone chapter, Daughters of the American Pioneers, in honor of its regent, Mrs. Henry J. Bailey, and Mrs. Alfred E. Clark. The old mansion of Mrs. John Musgrave in Center avenue was the scene of the affair, which was attended by the Daughters of American Pioneers, Colonial Dames, Daughters of the American Revolution, United States Daughters of 1812, and a member of the Martha Washington Memorial association. Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Clark received in the long parlors of Mrs. Musgrave's home, Mrs. Musgrave, Mrs. Minnie Ourey Roberts and Mrs. Thomas P. Fleeson, the members of the reception committee, standing with them. The house with its wealth of historic furnishings and old family portraits looking down from the walls, was decorated with wild flowers and flowers gathered from the gardens. There were banks of goldenrod in the long double parlor while an American flag was draped upon the wall at each end. In the library blazed the scarlet geraniums, while a tall crystal and silver epergne stood at each end of the tea table in the dining-room, containing pink carnations and ferns. The refreshments were served on exquisite old china embellished with dainty pink rose-buds. In the hall were great masses of wild purple asters.

Inventing Ways to Secure Money.

The committee in charge of the theatrical benefit for the Soho public baths is in correspondence with several managers and in a day or two expects to be able to announce the play selected and the date on which the benefit will be given. Mrs. George B. Motheral is chairman of the committee of ten which will have charge of the benefit to be given during October. Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the finance committee of the board of managers of the Soho public baths was held in the office of the chairman, Controller John B. Larkin. Other members of the committee who were present were Mrs. Wallace H. Rowe, Mrs. Franklin P. Iams, J. Boyd Duff and Charles G. Willock. Methods for raising money were discussed and the committee decided to prepare an appeal which will be sent out to all charitably inclined people and supplemented by personal visits by the members of the committee. The board is desirous of securing a fund of $75,000 to build and equip such a building as it has in mind. For this purpose additional ground is needed beside the old Phelan property in Fifth avenue, Soho, which was purchased over a year ago. The city appropriated $25,000 for the Soho public baths project, $16,000 has been raised in various amounts and by the appeal to be issued shortly the finance committee hopes to so increase the fund for the building that work may be commenced soon.

Have Printed the Bird Laws.

The Burroughs club of Western Pennsylvania is distributing posters of the Pennsylvania laws for the protection of the song, insectivorous and game birds. Two thousand copies have been given out, together with more than 1,000 leaflets for farmers and gardeners, at the Allegheny county fair at Imperial. The posters may be secured by forwarding a 2-cent stamp with address. The Burroughs club will have a field excursion today to the summer home of Dr. W. R. Stephens, near Sandy Creek, for the study of the wild life of the woods. Each member of the party will take his lunch. Cars leave Center and Penn avenues, Wilkinsburg, at 10 a. m. An indoor meeting will be held at the home of the secretary, Miss Mary H. Gibson, North avenue and Hill street, Wilkinsburg, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Any one interested in the aim and work of the club is invited to go on the excursion this morning or to attend the meeting tonight. C. Leon Brumbaugh of Wilkinsburg is the president of the club.

Planning New Work.

The West Penn Hospital Cot club will hold its annual meeting Wednesday, October 4, when the annual election of officers will take place. The club is planning a new line of work to be taken up this fall and winter. Its past record is good, the purchase of an ambulance fully equipped, even to the mules and their harness and the livery for the driver, the furnishing of a children's ward and the maintenance of a private room having been the accomplishments of the past ten years. The work this year will lie in another direction, though still connected with hospital work, and the announcement is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest by friends of the members of the club. Mrs. William H. Normecutt has been for years president of the club, which is composed of 20 young women of Shadyside and the East End.

Daughters Ready for Work.

The first meeting this fall of the Dolly Madison chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, will be held on Monday, September 25, at 2:30 o'clock in the home of the regent, Mrs. Robert T. Reineman, in Bidwell street, Shadyside. Several members of the chapter were in Canada this summer and visited Lundy's Lane, the site of one of the battles of the second war with England, and at the meeting next week steps will be taken to mark the site. The informal business meeting will be followed by tea. Last Saturday Mrs. Edward H. Ward, the chaplain of the Dolly Madison chapter, gave an afternoon tea for the Dolly Madisons.

Charters for Cambria Electric Lines.

Charters were granted at Harrisburg yesterday to four street railway companies, all headed by J. Toner Burr of Pittsburgh as president, to be built in Cambria county, connecting towns along the Pennsylvania railroad. The towns to be reached are Gallitzin, Cresson, Lilly, Bens Creek, Cassandra, Portage and Wilmore. Attorney George M. Hosack represented the applicants.

LEASES ARE MADE SHORT ON THE SCHENLEY ESTATE

Way Is Laid Open for the Addition of Eleven-Acre Tract Entrance to Pittsburgh's Favorite Park.

Just because Director Bigelow has not paid a trip to Skibo castle, Schenley park has remained without a wide public entrance, and the Scotch philanthropist has been shorn of the opportunity of adding a new beneficence to Pittsburgh. Nevertheless, things are shaping themselves for big events at Schenley park and there is every probability that the time is not far distant when the city will own a respectable entrance to the favorite breathing spot.

The Commonwealth Real Estate Company, which acts as the agent for the Schenley estate, has forbidden all leases of the 11-acre tract of land in Forbes street, opposite the Hotel Schenley, for a term of more than one year, and to show that the city means business in an effort to buy the property at an early date, the tenants who have expressed their anxiety to renew their leases on the holdings for next year, have been met by the statement from the Commonwealth company that there is yet plenty of time and that there is no occasion for haste.

"You know that I would like to have that whole 11 acres for a park entrance," said Director Bigelow yesterday. "It is necessary to the esthetic environment of such a magnificent plot of ground. Andrew Carnegie, who is one of the administrators of the will of Mrs. Schenley, said that all that was necessary for me to do was to call at Skibo. I have not been at the Dumfermline castle simply because the chance has not offered. When I proposed the building of a statue of Mrs. Schenley the controller opposed it and the Orphans, headed by William M. Stevenson, harped against it. In spite of all this opposition, there is yet a chance for a deal. I have always favored it. According to the statement of Mr. Carnegie, it would not cost the city a single cent."

John H. Herron, president of the Commonwealth Real Estate Company, stated yesterday that while he knew of no deal with the city at this time, that it had been a rule established with the management of the Schenley estate for several years that no lease should be taken for a longer period than one year, and that if the city made overtures for the property, or if Mr. Carnegie and Mr. Bigelow should reach an agreement, that there would be little impediment in their way from long leaseholds.

OBSERVE PRESIDENT'S DAY.

Art Teachers' Club of Pittsburgh Plans a Big Celebration for Next Monday Afternoon.

The rooms of the Pittsburgh Kindergarten college in Fifth avenue on Monday afternoon will be decorated in apple green and lilies of the valley. This strange combination of color and bride's flowers will mean that the Teachers' Art club of Allegheny county will be holding its first meeting of the year. It will be "president's day" and will call forth all the art instructors of Allegheny county. Miss Alive Henry, president of the club and art teacher in the Forbes school, will be the chief recipient of the honor of the day. Miss Cora Stebbins will be the leader of the day's topic and Miss Agnes Lawton will tell of her recent tour of Europe. There will be music and an hour devoted to social intercourse. The discussion of the day will be given over to water color sketching and painting.

The Teachers' Art club was organized three years ago and is affiliated with the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women. Its officers are: Miss Alice Henry, president; Miss Mary Garrettson, first vice president; Mrs. M. E. Van Wagonen, second vice president; Miss Kate Woolston, secretary; Miss Anna Johnston, treasurer; Miss Eugenie Rayburn, librarian.

HOLDS PAROLI FOR COURT.

Accused of Being Responsible for Death of John Earl Hull.

Joseph Paroli, a 17-year-old Italian boy, was held for court in $2,500 bail yesterday on a charge of murder. He is accused of being responsible for the death of John Earl Hull, son-in-law of Police Superintendent Wallace. During a fight in Grant street on the morning of September 5, Hull was thrown to the pavement and sustained a fractured skull, from which he died at the Homeopathic hospital.

When the coroner investigated Hull's death Paroli was exonerated and later the dead man's mother made information against him. The mother and Raymond Downing, who was with Hull on the morning of the fight, were the principal witnesses yesterday. Downing insisted that the attack was unprovoked, but admitted the men had been drinking.

Says Girl Sold Ring.

Miss Nellie O'Neill was committed to jail yesterday to await trial in court on a charge of larceny by bailee. It is alleged by D. Carter, who made the information, that Miss O'Neil bought a ring on the installment plan about a year ago and, after making several payments, went to Ohio and disposed of the ring. Upon her return to Pittsburgh she was arrested.

Woman Breaks Her Ankle.

Mrs. Jane Bragley of Grandview avenue, Duquesne Heights, while coming out of Zimmerman hall, where the Luckey school exercises were held last night, fell over the setps leading down from the door to the pavement below and broke her ankle. The patrol wagon was called and she was taken to her home.

Claim Mind Was Unbalanced.

The remains of Theodore S. Blair, who committed suicide in the Greensburg jail by hanging himself with a blanket, will arrive in McKeesport today and be interred by his friends. Blair was a former resident of McKeesport. His friends claim he was an inventor and that his mind must have been upset by study over mechanical inventions.

MR. WALLACE IS CROSS.

Delivers Tirade Against District Attorney and Grand Jury Because Lack of Evidence Releases Prisoner.

Superintendent of Police Alexander Wallace was real cross yesterday. This time it was the district attorney and the county grand jury that displeased him. The occasion was the fact that George Laughren, who was arrested on September 11 charged with stealing $138.50 from H. A. Lande, a storekeeper at Third avenue and Cherry alley, had been released from jail by the grand jury, because no indictment could be found.

Lande withdrew his complaint, and this, together with the fact that the police did not produce sufficient evidence before the jury, left it powerless to indict. District Attorney Stewart said yesterday the police were notified to appear before the grand jury, but for some unknown reason failed to appear.

Hearing of Loughren's release, Supt. Wallace relieved himself of a tirade against the county officers, charging that the prisoner had enlisted the aid of friends of the county authorities and thereby gained his release. He charged that the aid of Select Councilman Patrick F. Toole had been secured to have the prisoner released. Toole stated last night that while en route to the court house Lande asked him what could be done to have the case dropped. He advised him to see the district attorney and ask that the bill be ignored.

House Breaker Is Captured.

The residence of D. Summerman of 1541 Center avenue was entered by Ben Richards, a negro, early yesterday morning for the purpose of robbery. The inmates of the house raised an alarm and the negro was captured by Policeman John Jenkins and taken to the Center avenue station house. He was held in $500 bail for court on a charge of house breaking.

GETS FORTY MEMORIALS CONDEMNING PEACE TREATY

Throne of Japan Is Asked That the Agreement Be Not Ratified—Humiliating Clause in the Document.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TOKYO Sept. 22.—The number of direct memorials to the throne from different associations and individuals condemning the peace treaty and asking that it be not ratified, exceeds 40, among which is an address signed by six professors of the Imperial university, one of whom was recently placed on the retired list owing to his strongly-worded anti-peace thesis.

This memorial strongly urges the necessity of refusing to ratify the peace treaty and condemn it as entirely annulling the purpose of the war as set forth in the declaration of hostilities. It is also stated that indisputable reasons exist for refusing to ratify the treaty, which is deemed to be pregnant with the elements of humiliation and future danger to the national interests. In conclusion the signers of this address say they humbly beg the throne to condescend to consider the spirit in which the address is presented.

In spite of persistent editorials in the leading newspapers demanding the resignation of the cabinet, it is believed the ministers will continue to hold office until after the adoption of the post bellum measures, especially those regarding finance and the Chinese and Korean problems.

It transpires that in spite of Premier Katsura's assurance to the contrary to the editors, there exists a clause in the peace treaty by which Japan undertakes not to fortify Soya strait. As a result intense indignation is felt among the influential classes, as this is deemed to be the greatest humiliation Japan has ever suffered. The restriction thus placed on her territorial liberty is looked upon as being an unbearable indignity and as constituting the blackest record in the history of a country, which has never experienced defeat at the hands of other nations.

The constitutionalists are gradually assuming a firm attitude of opposition to the government.

INVESTIGATION TICKLES MAYOR

Thinks It Funny That Immorality of Police Should Be Called Into Question.

SAYS WOMEN HAVE BIG JOB

"Ha, ha, ha! That's the funniest thing I have ever heard. Any person who tries to investigate the immorality of people will have a big job. It's a joke. Ha, ha, ha!"

Mayor Hays laughed boisterously yesterday when he was told that the Union Missionary society of Allegheny county had appointed a committee of five women to investigate the immorality of the Pittsburgh police. The particular thing that appeared to strike the mayor as funny was not that the immorality of the police was to be investigated, but that any investigation of immorality was to be made. The idea seemed so funny to him that he could hardly control his merriment. When he recovered from his fit of laughter he said:

"The Pittsburgh police are above the average. Of course we have had men on the force who got drunk and who entered immoral houses, but whenever we heard of it we dismissed them. Quite a number have been dismissed from the force for this reason. The women who say they are going to investigate immorality have not come to me or written me. It is really the funniest thing I have ever heard of."

The women of the Union Missionary society who have begun the investigation do not think the matter at all funny, but take it in a decidedly serious manner. As published yesterday in The Gazette they have enlarged their investigating committee on account of the obstacles which have been put in the way of the committee.

"It's a dreadful thing that men cannot be gotten for the police force upon whom the women can rely for protection. What we want is better men on the police force," said Mrs. R. C. Wylie, one of the members of the investigating committee. Mrs. Wylie is the wife of a pastor of a Reformed Presbyterian church, and is a member also of the executive board of the Union Missionary society.

After the alleged assault upon Mrs. M. B. Dick by Policeman Kilgallon the society took up the matter and appointed a committee to investigate other misdeeds of the police. The committee was increased by the addition of two members because of hindrances which the committee claims were placed in its path by the police bureau. The committee is now composed of Mrs. R. C. Wylie, Mrs. M. F. Hitchins, Mrs. Samuel Hamilton, Mrs. D. C. Martin and Mrs. Alexander Hunter.

Mrs. Wylie was asked yesterday if the committee was making any investigation of intemperance on the part of the police. "No, we are confining ourselves entirely to immorality of the police," she replied. "There is surely some method by which the women of Pittsburgh can be better protected. Not only in the East End, where the incident occurred that started the investigation, but all over the city the probing will extend. The matter will probably resolve itself into a petition to the people asking that better men be demanded for the police force."

October 12 will be known as Christian Endeavor day, when the church workers from Western Pennsylvania will attend.

LEGAL NOTICES.

W. A. GRIFFITH, Attorney, 1412 Park building, Pittsburgh, Pa. In the matter of petition of James A. Shields for the satisfaction of a mortgage filed at No. 832, October term, 1905, in the court of common pleas No. 2 of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, to Zera H. Coster and Thomas W. Wallace and their respective legal representative or representatives. Take note that the petition of James A. Shields respectfully represents:

1. That prior to the third day of April, 1849, William Larimer, Jr., of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, was the owner of a certain tract of land situate in Peeble township, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, adjoining the town of East Liberty, and situate on the Frankstown road near the Greensburg turnpike road, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at a white oak on the northeast corner; thence north fifty-six degrees thirty-five minutes west (N. 56° 35' W.) thirty-five and five-tenths (35.5) perches to a pin; thence south fifty degrees twenty-five minutes west (S. 50° 25' W.) fifty and sixty-eight hundredths (50.68) perches to a post; thence south sixty-four degrees fifty minutes east (S. 64° 50' E.) sixteen and four-tenths (16.4) perches to a pin; thence north sixty-four degrees fifty minutes east (N. 64° 50' E.) sixteen and four-tenths (16.4) perches to a pin; thence north eighty-four degrees fifty minutes east (N. 84° 50' E.) seven and four-tenths (7.4) perches to a pin; thence north seventy and one-half degrees east (N. 70½° E.) thirty-five perches to a stake; thence north fifty-four and one-half degrees east (N. 54½° E.) fourteen and five-tenths (14.5) perches to the place of beginning. Containing seven acres and one hundred fifty-five and three-fourths perches (7 a. 155¾ perches).

2d. That on the 3d April, 1849, the said William Larimer, Jr., executed and delivered to the said Zera H. Coster and Thomas W. Wallace his certain mortgage conditioned for the payment of the real sum of [illegible] and binding the premises hereinbefore described, which said mortgage was duly recorded in the recorder's office of said county, in mortgage book, vol. 12, page 28.

3d. That on or prior to July 3d, 1851, the said mortgage was fully paid by the said mortgagor to the said mortgagees, and upon that day a receipt was entered upon the margin of the record of the said mortgage as follows: "Zera H. Coster and Thomas W. Wallace do hereby acknowledge to have received satisfaction in full of this mortgage. Witness our hands and seals this 3d day of July, 1851. Signed: Zera H. Coster (seal). Witness: A. T. Azor."

4th. That for some reason unknown to your petitioner, the said receipt was never signed by the said Thomas W. Wallace, notwithstanding that the entire mortgage was fully paid to the mortgagees therein named.

5th. That your petitioner is now the owner of premises bound by the lien of said mortgage, and has erected thereon a large three-story brick business block, and expended thereon large sums of money.

7th. Your petitioner is also informed and believes that the said mortgagees cannot be found within the county, and that, if they are living, they reside outside the county of Allegheny.

He, therefore, prays your honorable court to direct the service of notice upon said Zera H. Coster and Thomas W. Wallace, stating the facts set forth in this petition, and requiring them to appear at said term and answer the petition in accordance with the acts of assembly in such case made and provided. Whereupon the court made the following order:

ORDER OF COURT.

And now, to wit, September 14, 1905, the within petition presented in open court, and upon due consideration thereof, the sheriff of said county is hereby directed to serve notice, stating the facts set forth in the petition, upon the said Zera H. Coster and Thomas W. Wallace, or their respective legal representative or representatives, if to be found in the county; and in case the parties cannot be found in the said county, then the sheriff shall give public notice as aforesaid in one or more newspapers published within or nearest to the said county, once a week for four weeks successively prior to the then next term after the petition has been presented, requiring the said parties to appear at the next term of court and answer the petition aforesaid. Per Curiam.

Wherefore I, James W. Dickson, sheriff of Allegheny county, hereby give notice to the defendants above named and their respective legal representative or representatives, if any there be, to appear in said court on the first Monday of October, A. RISE IN CALL MONEY HAS MUCH EFFECT ON MARKET

Still the Tendency Upward Was Manifest and Active Demand for Stocks Arises—Local Market Was Strong and Active.

The call money rate yesterday carried an admonition against speculative excess and the rise in the rate and its effect in the stock market. Operations were conducted with caution and the market was under pressure at times, but the disposition to proceed with the upward movement whenever free from the actual necessities of the money market was still in evidence. Call loan rates advanced to the highest level of the year under the demand for accommodation to carry over until Monday, which is required under the stock exchange rule.

On the other hand the promise was for a good bank statement and operators in stocks were loath to forego the advantage which might come from the sentimental effect of this today. It appears that the movement of funds on balance to the interior during the week had hardly been sufficient to wipe out the small gain on the week's sub-treasury operations. The cash reserves of the banks should seem, therefore, to be little changed from last week. The principal interest attaches to the loan item. There has been some withdrawal of credit from the stock market during the week, but it is not clear whether this has been on the part of the banks or has been due to some retrenchment on the part of the trust companies on the loans previously taken over from the banks. A decrease in the loan item of the banks should result in an improvement of the surplus reserve item. Such an improvement undoubtedly would be welcome as a margin against future needs.

It is not supposed that the movement of funds to the interior has ceased for the season. From September 25 to September 30 there falls due a 50 per cent installment of subscriptions to the $100,000,000 Pennsylvania convertible bond issue. On September 30 is payable a 37½ per cent installment on $32,000,000 of Atchison convertible bonds. Bankers connected with these operations assert that full payment has already been made in anticipation of the maturity of the obligation by a large number of subscribers, in order to save interest. The same is true of the final installment on the Japanese 4½ per cent bonds, which falls due on October 16. The coincidence of the first two operations with the quarterly settlements in the money market will undoubtedly add to the strain at that time.

Discounts were shaded in London yesterday, but foreign exchange held firm in New York, leaving the position still closed to further gold engagements. The hesitating tone of the day's stock market was due to these mixed prospects in the money market. Special stocks were advanced to hold the market during the periods when it was under pressure. Louisville & Nashville, Reading and St. Paul were the prominent examples for the railroads. The influence on Louisville & Nashville was the rumor of a proposed issue of Atlantic Coast line bonds in exchange for Louisville & Nashville stock at a valuation above the present price. St. Paul reflected the confident assertions that the $25,000,000 of new stock authorized is to be offered to stockholders at advantageous subscription rates. The movement in Reading was in the same hands as for some time past. Amongst the specialties Brooklyn Transit and the American Tobacco securities were prominent.

Dread of a possible violent flurry in the money market late in the afternoon had something to do with the early depression and when the money demand for the day was satisfied without any actual flurry an active demand for stock sprang up which extended notably the gains of the strong features and caused a recovery throughout to above Thursday night's level. The closing was firm at the top.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,280,000. United States 2s coupon advanced ½ per cent on call.

The most important news that came to the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was the sensational advance in the Standard Oil Company's oil quotations. As was to be expected Pittsburgh Gas and Oil responded to this advance, and the stock gained 3½ points, reaching high at 63¼ and closing at 63. There were 355 shares traded.

In addition to this specialty the general market yesterday was strong. Crucible Steel common took its turn at activity and with transactions involving 2,155 shares the stock closed at 13, a rise of ¼. There was a small sale at 13⅛. In the preferred issue the day brought again a high mark for the year and the stock closed at that figure, 68½. Fire Proofing preferred was stronger, closing at 26, an advance of ¼. Ohio Fuel, selling ex-rights, was down 4¼ points. Pittsburgh Coal preferred continued strong in Pittsburgh and New York, and on sales of 960 shares reached and closed at 58⅝, a gain of ⅝. Tonopah Extension was one of the most active stocks of the day. In all 2,410 shares of this issue were sold, and the activity resulted in a price of 6.20. United Copper was 1 point higher at the close—36. Westinghouse Electric seconds, Colonial Trust and Independent Brewing bonds sold unchanged. The total transactions of the day were 9,121 shares of stock and $1,000 bonds. In number of shares the day ranks among the most active of the year. Over half of the transactions, however, were in comparatively low-priced stocks—Crucible Steel common and Tonopah Extension.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The startling advance in the oil quotations for the Pennsylvania product made by the Standard Oil Company yesterday had a widespread effect in Pittsburgh. With a total of 19 cents advance per barrel announced within 10 days, the entire aspect of the oil business has been changed and where all was at a standstill, now there will be life and activity, especially since few believe that the price has reached the top. With the showing in the last monthly statement that a decrease of 500,000 barrels had been made in Pennsylvania stocks, it is not remarkable that the leading interest should begin to worry concerning the future and place the prices at a figure which will set the "wildcatters" to work.

The effect of this price is felt not only by those directly interested in the production of oil. It comes home to the lumber interests, the tube and pipe manufacturers, the rope manufacturers and a score of other industries which find in the oil business a large market for their products. It affects very directly also a couple of Pittsburgh companies which have extensive oil interests, the Pittsburgh Oil and Gas Company and the Manufacturers Light and Heat.

The Pennsylvania production of the Pittsburgh Oil and Gas Company is approximately 1,500 barrels daily. Its total production is 700 barrels additional. A good proportion of the latter shares in the advances made recently. An addition of over $330 to the daily earnings of the company is meant by the oil advance. The Manufacturers Light and Heat has an oil production of over 1,000 barrels daily in Pennsylvania and about 100 barrels in Ohio. Its daily earnings will be increased nearly $250 by the new prices. Inasmuch as the price sagged from $1.85 to $1.27 in 1904, it can be seen how much loss of income was brought by the reduction. The return to $1.46 is a very considerable item.

According to a director of the Wabash, the Gould holdings of its voting securities amount to about 33 1-3 per cent. Cyrus J. Lawrence says that he will support Joseph Ramsey, Jr. The holdings controlled by him amount to debentures entitled to 2,621 votes, common stock 2,028 shares and preferred stock 2,675 shares. He says that most of the present Wabash directors represent very little stock, and that they will not be in a position to afford Mr. Gould much support at the coming meeting.

The fact that the New York banks gained something over $1,000,000 from the sub-treasury since Friday of last week, as compared with a $5,600,000 loss for the same period of last week, helped sentiment, since it was generally assumed that there would be a good bank statement today. So many factors, however, must be taken into account that there is no ground for assuming anything. Bankers assured their friends that they do not feel apprehensive at present about the monetary situation. Part of the gain of the banks from the treasury arises from the paying over of the $600,000 gold arrived from Europe.

Chairman W. L. Brown of the American Shipbuilding Company announces that the plants are filled for the balance of the fiscal year, which ends June 30, 1906, and the chances are that some of the approximately $8,000,000 worth of new work on hand will be carried over to the next year. There will be an immense amount of repair work during the winter.

The success of a new Pittsburgh district concern is seen in the fact that the Driggs-Seabury Ordinance Corporation of Sharon has been awarded a contract by the United States government for 176 semi-automatic rapid-fire guns of various sizes. The order will keep the local plant busy for at least a year. The first delivery will be made in two months. The contracts amount to several hundred thousand dollars. Six hundred caissons are also to be furnished.

A New York stock exchange seat was quoted at $85,000 bid.

STOCKS RULE STRONG IN A DULL MARKET

Dealings Were Professional, as Usual, and Speculative Sentiment Mixed.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The Herald this (Saturday) morning says: Stocks ruled strong in spots yesterday. Activity was, as has been customary of late, confined to a limited number of issues, in which the banking pools and cliques have been active. Aside from these vitalized issues the market was intensely dull and brokers with selling orders to execute in the non-active group stated it was with great difficulty they could sell their stocks without concessions in price. Dealings, in other words, were professional, and there was little, if any, enlargement of public participation.

Speculative sentiment continued unchanged and was decidedly mixed. Among the older commission house brokers outspoken hostility to the market was expressed and these men continued to discourage operations by outsiders. On the other hand the great gambling operators were enthusiastic over the market's strength.

Aside from the various developments in the money market, there was very little in the news of the day affecting the general market. The street was as usual flooded with rumors of prospective deals, "melon cuttings," and the like, and in very well-informed quarters credence was given to the report that the St. Paul road would authorize an extension to the coast.

The reported exports of wheat were larger. Banks made a much better showing during the week on the matter of currency loss, but this was largely offset by the advance in call rates to 4½ per cent. The stock market was influenced not in the slightest by the news of the day, but responded wholly to the operations of the concentrated buying. The manipulation was aggressive, and there was doubtless some covering by trading shorts, which contributed an element of strength.

The Wool Market.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The offerings at the wool sales today amounted to 14,139 bales. There was a brisk demand for all descriptions and prices showed a hardening tendency. Americans bought fine and medium greasy crossbreds freely. Scoured and slipes were in keen demand for home and German buyers at the highest prices of the series. Following are the sales in detail: New South Wales, 2,100 bales, scoured, 8½d@1s 10d; greasy, 7¾d @1s 2½d. Queensland, 2,000 bales; scoured, 1s 3d@2s 2½d; greasy, 7½d@1s. Victoria, 600 bales; scoured, 1s@2s; greasy, 9½d@1s 2d. New Zealand, 6,100 bales; scoured, 8½d@1s 11d; greasy, 6½d@1s 5½d. Cape of Good Hope and Natal, 500 bales; scoured, 1s 4½d@1s 11½d; greasy, 6½d@9½d. River Plate, 1,200 bales; scoured, 9½d@1s 6½d; greasy, 10d. Punta Arenas, 800 bales; scoured, 1s@1s 4d; greasy, 9½d@1s. Falkland islands, 200 bales; greasy, 10d@11½d.

BOSTON, Sept. 22.—The Commercial Woolen Bulletin will say tomorrow of the wool market:

A moderate business has been transacted by the smaller woolen mills in lots from 25,000 to 100,000 pounds. The worsted mills have temporarily ceased operating. Territory wools have the call, with half-blood scarce and three-eighths becoming so. Fleeces have sold occasionally at full prices, and Australian crossbreds and merinos have also shown considerable activity. Contracting in the west has met a setback for the present, growers' ideas being too far above buyers' to result in more contracting.

The shipments of wool from Boston to date from December 29, 1904, according to the same authority, are 177,908,919 pounds, against 165,880,976 pounds at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 280,331,008 pounds, against 261,383,434 pounds for the same period last year.

Exploding Tank Kills Druggist.

WILKES-BARRE, Sept. 22.—John Ricketts, aged 32 years, a prominent druggist of this city, while charging a soda water tank at his drug store in Plains, three miles from here, tonight, was injured by the explosion of the tank. He was taken to the City hospital where he died an hour later.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Supplies of money were more abundant in the market today and the demand was quiet. Discounts were slightly easier. Bill buyers were cautious in view of the uncertainties of the outlook. Trading on the stock exchange was dull owing to the monetary situation, in consequence of which an advance in the Bank of England's rate of discount is considered inevitable soon. Trading was inactive partly owing to the approach of the settlement, while the week end caused some realizations. The movements were irregular. Consols were easier, depressing other sections. Americans opened dull and inactive and moved irregularly at about parity with few improvements. Louisville & Nashville and Southern Railway were exceptionally firm. The market closed dull. Canadian Pacific was affected by realizations. Japanese were firmer. Japanese imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 105. Consols for money, 89½; consols for account, 89 9-16; bar silver steady, 28⅝d an ounce; money, 2@2¼ per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2 15-16@3 per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 2 15-16@3 per cent.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Three per cent rentes, 99 francs 75 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 16 centimes for checks. Prices on the bourse today were heavy at the opening, but became steady and firm on the belief of an early settlement of the Moroccan question. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 95.10 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 520.00.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—Prices on the boerse today were rather weak and trading was limited.

Twenty-Five Houses Will Be Built on Former Shaw Property, Euclid Avenue.

HOMESTEAD SALE OF $50,000

The largest building operation announced this year for Bellevue is being shaped up by the new owners of the John I. Shaw property at the foot of Euclid avenue. It will involve the erection of 25 first-class houses, plans for which are now being drawn by Architects E. M. Butz & Co. The property is one of the most desirable in the borough and has a frontage of about 600 feet in Irwin avenue, 500 feet in Laurel street and 300 feet in Spring street. The old Shaw residence, a large frame house which stood near the center of the plot, has been sold for $7,000, and moved. The property has been divided into 40-foot lots, the corner ones being 50 feet wide and all having a depth of 120 feet. These are valued at from $1,200 to $2,000 each. The houses to be erected will be of various designs, many of them being copied from the beautiful suburban homes in the east. A large number of them will be on the cottage style and many of the reception-hall type, with different exterior finish. The contracts for the entire lot will be awarded shortly and it is expected that most of them will be completed for spring occupancy. They will be only about four blocks south of Lincoln avenue in a choice residence section and will be sold at from $6,000 to $8,000 each.

Big Railroad Deal in Homestead.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has purchased from August Miller his lumber yard in the First ward of Homestead for about $50,000. The property includes an entire square lying between the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Youghiogheny railroad and the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad, and West and Hays streets. It has a width of about 500 feet and a depth of over 150 feet. A small brick office building stands on the northeast corner of the lot, and a few frame sheds make up the other improvements. For years the lot, which is near the plant of the Howard Axle works and one square from the Mesta Machine works, has been used for a lumber yard. At this point the Pennsylvania has only five tracks, and it is said that the purpose of this purchase is to afford room for broadening the right of way to include eight tracks, which the railroad has just above this property.

The property of James Moore at 37 Tunnel street has been sold for about $18,000. The lot is 25x80 feet and is improved with a brick house facing on the east side of the street between Wylie and Fifth avenues. The sale is at the rate of $680 a front foot, or $9 00 a square foot.

Two Good Sales Are Closed.

The Aronson Realty Company yesterday closed the sale of the Beulah Gardner property at the northeast corner of Wylie avenue and Kirkpatrick street, Thirteenth ward, for $20,000. The buyer is A. Perelstine, the shoe merchant, who will improve the rear of the lot with a flat building to cost $9,000. The lot measures 48x100 feet, extending back to an alley and is improved with two business buildings and a dwelling, the total rental of which is $1,800 a year.

Jacob Tannenbaum proves to be the buyer of the Lang property at 207 Grant street, the sale of which through the Aronson Realty Company was published in The Gazette last Sunday. He secures title to the property from John Goettman, who bought it recently for $32,000. Mr. Tannenbaum pays $33,000 for the lot, which is 20x80 feet and is improved with a three-story brick store building, which is under lease to next April for $150 a month.

W. B. Rath of the Land Trust Company has closed the deal for George H. Shickler's purchase of 150 feet of the McKee frontage in McKee place, Fourteenth ward, which was detailed in The Gazette last week. The exact price was $15,500, or a little over $100 a front foot. Contractor Francis E. McGillick will begin the erection of three apartment houses Monday, to cost $30,000 each.

Joseph P. Cowan and Thomas B. Lappan have bought from J. Smith Lawson an improved property, 36x90 feet, in Broad street, near Sheridan avenue, Nineteenth ward, for $17,000. The property adjoins the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, which owned it until 1887.

The Merchants Savings and Trust Company handled the sale of the property at 2155-2157 Center avenue for $17,500, which was published in this column yesterday. Title to the property comes from Charles A. Schlegel. The building is a three-story brick on 40x75 feet. Th same company sold for Sarah Sigel to Marcus Stoner 1423-1425 Clark street, two brick buildings on 25x100 feet, for $4,750, and for Thomas Coffey to J. Starimberg a three-story brick building on 14x100 feet, at 2040 Webster avenue, for $3,000.

"Looks Good" for Lot Sellers.

At no time during the year have conditions been more propitious for the marketing of allotments, as the sales of the last week show. Today, with fine fall weather, promises to be the banner day of the season on the big allotments which are now on sale. At East Bellevue the new allotment on the West View loop, which the Freehold Real Estate Company is pushing in true Brookline style, everywhere is ready for an early closing out of the 1,780 lots. Less than one-half that number remains to be sold, and the company will have an extra large force of salesmen on the property today and tomorrow to look after the prospective buyers. The Brighton Heights allotment has been selling steadily all this week, and judging from the bulk of inquiry received by the agent, George T. McDonald, a big hole will be made in the remaining lots today. The Brighton Heights Land Company is pushing the work of making a cement wall along Termon avenue and has the handsome entrance to the property practically completed. Another grading project will be announced by the company in a few days which will work wonders on the big knob that occupies the summit of the property. Although the Burns & Reilly Real Estate Company did not announce its Centervue allotment in Wilkinsburg until yesterday, it had a list of advance prospective buyers that took off more than a score of the lots at the outset. This property forms a handsome addition to the well-known Singer allotment, and with the $35,000 which the owners are spending on it in improvements, will make one of the most attractive lot plans for well-to-do home-hunters announced for two years.

New Site for Allegheny Church.

The congregation of the First Church of New Jerusalem, which lately sold its old church at Sandusky and Isabella streets, Allegheny, to Kerr and Snodgrass for $60,000, has bought through the Real Estate Trust Company the old Stoner homestead at Pearl and Sandusky streets, Allegheny, for $10,000. Attorney J. M. Stoner was the last owner of the property. This consists of 80x160 feet, on which stands the old Stoner residence, a 13-room brick house built in 1850. The congregation is composed of Swedenborgians, and the brick and stone church which they will erect on the new site will be the first church edifice to be built by that denomination in Greater Pittsburgh.

West Liberty building operations continue to show up in a way that brings joy to the lot owners in that district. The Beechview Methodist Episcopal church at Sixth and Pennsylvania avenues is half completed and the congregation expects to occupy it by December. Over 40 houses have been completed on the property within the last four months and a score or more are now under way in the first two West Liberty plans. Thomas Davis, assistant treasurer of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Telephone Company, has started a $6,000 house on a 60-foot site at Pennsylvania avenue and Thirteenth street, and M. Giles has started a $9,000 brick house in Seventh avenue, near Sharon avenue.

George M. Bole has sold six lots, 50x125 feet each, on the west side of Taylor avenue, near Laurel street, Bellevue, for $15,000, or $50 a front foot. The purchaser is a local builder who will improve the sites at once with six $7,000 brick houses. Mr. Bole himself is now building an $8,000 residence at Grant and Woodlawn avenues, Bellevue. His brother, H. E. B— has also sold to different purchasers four lots, 50x125 feet each, on the east side of Taylor avenue near Laurel street, Bellevue, for $10,000, or $50 a foot. Two of these will also be improved at once.

SUGAR MARKET GROWS FIRMER WITH BIG CUT

Flour Is Still Weak and Produce Lines Nearly All Show Some Reductions.

Although somewhat weak the several lines in the grocery trade which have been undergoing cuts recently held steady yesterday. Sugar has strengthened considerably, the heavy cut having had the effect of bringing out buyers who feared to wait for a further reduction. They are wary, however, and no large lots are being bought. The flour market is as weak as ever and offers no hope of immediate improvement.

In green goods, produce and fruits there was a light trade yesterday. There were numerous changes recorded. Potatoes still show as strongly as before. Apples are a little cheaper. So are peaches. Lemons have met a decided reduction. Cheese made a decided upward move yesterday and butter and eggs remained steady.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 16 cars hay, 13½ cars oats, 7½ cars corn, 3 cars straw, 2 cars rye; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 2 cars hay, 1½ cars oats, 2½ cars corn; Lake Erie railroad, 2 cars hay, 1 car oats, 2 cars corn, 1 car rye.

The oats market attracted attention yesterday. Receipts have been so light that there is a scarcity and buyers are out early to get what may arrive. There is not much relief in sight from this condition. Hay remains steady and ear corn is a little weaker.

Lower Southwest Completions Are Small and Discouraging

The late completions of the lower southwest fields are all light and so located as to give no evidence of any considerable amount of new producing territory. In the River Front district, Wood county, the Northorp Oil Company has completed a test on the Rosie Northorp farm and has a duster in the Cow Run sand at a depth of 350 feet. In the Cairo district, Ritchie county, the Stewart United Oil Company's No. 18 on the Kennedy Oil Company's farm is quite a remarkable producer. It is now two weeks since this well was completed and shot, and it is still holding up at 100 barrels a day. In the lower edge of Wood county, Fannie Anderson & Co. have completed a second test on the Bresteats farm and have a duster in the Cow Run sand at a depth of 975 feet.

In the Yellow Creek district, Calhoun county, the Carter Oil Company has drilled its No. 7 on the J. E. Snider farm through the Berea grit and has a show for a 20-barrel producer. To the northeast of developments the South Penn Oil Company's No. 2 on the C. W. Sitcott farm is holding up at 40 barrels a day since it was shot. In the Wallace district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 4 on the M. Manion farm 62 feet into the stray and got a slight increase in gas, but no oil. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the same company has drilled its test on the J. A. Harris farm through the fifth sand and found nothing but a little gas. The same company has drilled its No. 23 on the I. D. Morgan farm into the stray above the Gordon and has shut down. B. W. Peterson's No. 17 has been completed and will be given a shot. On Horn creek, Troy district, Gilmer county, the Crude Oil Company has drilled its important test on the Peter Cole farm to a depth of 1,900 feet and has shut down. On Middle Island creek, West Union district, the Southern Carbon company is drilling at 1,125 feet at a test on the Virginia Correll farm. On Meathouse Fork, New Milton district, Doddridge county, Trainer Brothers are down 1,400 feet at a test on the A. F. Randolph farm. On Arnolds creek, Central district, the Philadelphia company drilled its test on the W. M. Elliott farm to a depth of 3,600 feet and failed to find the Gordon or fifth sand.

The little pool on the Ohio side, located north of Steubenville, Jefferson county, is to the front with another good producer. Castner Brothers have drilled in their No. 9 on the W. P. Black farm and have a show for a 100-barrel producer in the Berea grit. This is the ninth completion on this farm and all are producers. In the Woodsfield district, Monroe county, the Pure Oil Company and Mooney have drilled their test on the Charles Schumacher farm through the Berea grit and have a show for a 50-barrel producer. In the New Matamoras district the Camden Oil Company has completed its test on the Williamson heirs' farm and has a 15-barrel pumper in the Keener sand. The same company has completed a test on the H. Monteith farm and has a pumper of the same size.

In the Marietta district, Washington county, the Boston Oil Company has completed No. 5 on the W. Root farm and the well produced 50 barrels the first 24 hours. In the Payne district C. E. Bennett & Co. have completed No. 5 on the J. A. DeLong farm and have a five-barrel pumper. In the West Creek district Latshaw & Tate have completed their No. 2 on the Samuel Robinson farm and have a five-barrel pumper in the shallow sand. In the Chester Hill district, Morgan county, P. E. Koester has completed No. 19 on the J. L. Ellis farm and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper. In the same district Basser & Wilson have completed No. 13 on the Elwood Yarnell farm and have a very light pumper.

CORNER AT LIVERPOOL STRENGTHENS MARKET

Sharp Advances in Cash Wheat at the American Grain Centers Is Another Factor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—An alleged corner at Liverpool in wheat for September delivery had a strengthening effect on the wheat market here today. Sharp advances in the price of cash wheat at the principal American grain centers tended to emphasize the strength. At the close wheat for December delivery was up ⅝@¾c. Oats show a gain of ⅛@¼c. Corn and provisions are practically unchanged.

With the exception of a slight reaction immediately after the opening the wheat market was strong the entire session. At the start the December option was a shade lower to ⅛c higher, at 84⅜c to 84⅝@84¾c. Pit traders were quite free sellers for a time, and, in consequence December eased off to 84½@84⅝c. Weather in the northwest was clear and this fact was apparently the chief cause of the selling pressure. Sentiment in the pit, however, soon became bullish. The cause for the change in feeling was a report from Liverpool stating that the price of wheat for September delivery had advanced almost 4d there today as a result of an attempt to corner the market. This news brought out active buying from shorts. In addition a leading bull became active on the buying side and this caused the demand to become more general. Advices from Minneapolis reporting an excellent demand for cash wheat, with millers bidding in competition for the offering, reinforced the bullish feeling which the news from abroad had inspired. At St. Louis and Kansas City, also, cash wheat was reported to be in good demand. Under these conditions prices were steadily forced upward until December touched 85⅝c. The market continued strong the remainder of the day, closing quotations being almost the highest of the session. Final quotations on December were 85½c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 99,000 bushels. Exports for the week, as shown by Bradstreets, were equal to 2,178,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,255,000 bushels, compared with 1,244,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 1,002 cars, against 816 cars last week and 997 cars a year ago.

The feature of trading in the corn market was the persistent demand from a leading trader for May delivery. It was reported that the total purchase of both May and December amounted to nearly 2,000,000 bushels. Notwithstanding this urgent demand the market exhibited no unusual strength owing to the liberal offerings from commission houses. Weather was ideal for the maturing of the crop. This doubtless was the chief cause of the comparatively insignificant advance in prices. The market closed firm. December opened a shade to ⅛c lower at 45@45⅛c to 45¼c, sold between 44⅞@45c and 45c, and closed at 45¼c. Local receipts were 347 cars, with 117 cars of contract grade.

Oats were firm in sympathy with strength of other grain. Export demand was not so urgent today, the higher prices curtailing shipments. December opened a shade lower to a shade higher, at 27⅞c to 29c, sold between 28⅞c and 29⅛c, and 29⅛@29¼c, and closed at 29⅛c. Local receipts were 224 cars.

Provisions were firm as a result of active demand by a local packer for October lard. At the close January pork was up 2½c at $12 37½; lard was unchanged at $6 77½@6 80; ribs were up 2½c at $6 50.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 35 cars; corn, 345 cars; oats, 271 cars; hogs, 11,000 head.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Gold to the amount of $10,000,000 will be contributed to the world's wealth by Nome and other mining camps in that vicinity as a result of the work of the present season. This amount will be $3,000,000 in excess of the total yield last year. The estimate is furnished by Fred Wing, in charge of the United States assay office. Eugene Alles, chief assayer for the Alaska Bank and Safe Deposit Company, says his bank alone will ship $2,000,000 more this season than it has already sent out; and with the remaining shipments for the Miners' and Merchants bank, Mr. Wing believes, the total will reach $10,000,000.

The Los Angeles Express says that information is secured from the highest authority that the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad will build a branch to the Bullfrog and Goldfield mining fields. The work of constructing this branch will begin within a short time.

F. J. Campbell and F. L. Ballard, representing the minority stockholders of the Golden Cycle Mining Company of Cripple Creek have issued a circular to the stockholders, describing the protest they filed with J. T. Milliken, president of the company, against the new charter the majority stockholders wished to file in the office of the secretary of state of West Virginia for the company.

Last week papers were forwarded to New York city conveying the undivided one-half interest of Charles Morgan in the great Saratoga group of mines in Russell gulch to H. T. Rogers and associates of New York. The consideration is not made public, but it is very likely covered by six figures. Yesterday papers were filed with the secretary of state incorporating the Saratoga Development Company, with a capitalization of $100,000, in order to concentrate the interests in the Saratoga properties. The officers of the new company are: John Owen of Idaho Springs, president and general manager; E. A. Whitfield, New York city, vice president; H. T. Rogers, New York city, secretary and treasurer. The new company will at once push operations on the property with all possible speed, with the principal object in view of unwatering the 10 miles of underground Saratoga mine workings, which are now submerged.

Great progress is being made in the mines of San Francisco district, Mohave county, Arizona, in the rapid opening up of the Victor, Gold Road and other gold properties. Rich discoveries of high-grade gold ores are being made in all the mines daily, and in each case the best of results obtained. Breasts of ore from five to 30 feet in width, and from 200 to 500 feet deep, that will assay from $10 to $100 a ton as averages, and kidneys of ore that will run from $2,000 to $10,000 and $12,000 a ton.

Lake and electrolytic are quoted at $16 @16 25, and casting at $15 75@16 00. Lead unchanged at £13 15s in London and at $4 @4 90 in the local market. MERMAID IS FOUND.

Girl Who Plays Part on Press Club Night Chosen.

All of the details were completed last evening for Pittsburgh Press club night, Monday, at Luna park. The selection of the young lady who will take the part of the mermaid and dive from the boat into the lagoon after shooting the chutes was a hard task, as there were so many applicants. The number of persons who wanted to enter the "goosewalk" also was unusually large, and fine discrimination had to be used in picking the best material for those who will imitate the principal nationalities in the world.

The 10 barrels of confetti that will be given away free on Monday evening arrived at the park and were locked up. They will not be taken out until 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Come out to Brighton Heights Saturday afternoon or evening on Brighton Road cars. The entire property lighted up.

TRADE CONDITIONS SHOW A WHOLESOME GROWTH

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Current trade shows a distinct gain in comparison with the same time last year; crop reports are reassuring, and evidences of continued activity are noted in almost every department of industry. A wholesome growth, without the threatening danger of reckless inflation of prices, is a commercial condition greatly to be desired. Fall trade is now well under way, especially encouraging results being achieved in drygoods, millinery, footwear and all lines of wearing apparel, while mercantile payments are unusually prompt for the season. There is a steady consumption of groceries and other staple articles of food, and in furniture, crockery and numerous household utensils the distribution is vigorous. Manufacturing plants in the leading industries receive large orders, a heavy tonnage of iron and steel business being placed and machinery houses making very cheerful reports; footwear shops have ample business in sight; textile mills are busy, although new contracts come forward more slowly; flour mills and sawmills have enlarged production, and the fuel markets reflect the stimulus of active factories. A little damage was done by floods in the southwest, but weather conditions are favorable on the whole. As grain comes to market more freely there is difficulty in averting freight blockades and railway earnings thus far available for September exceed last year's by 2.5 per cent. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed a gain of $532,846 in imports, but a loss of $4,068,163 in exports.

Failures this week numbered 206 in the United States, against 225 last year, and in Canada 34, compared with 30 a year ago.

Bradstreets tomorrow will say:

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending September 21 are 2,178,428 bushels, against 1,682,404 bushels last week, 864,872 bushels this week last year, 2,060,450 bushels in 1903, and 6,077,070 bushels in 1902. From July 1 to date the exports are 13,961,801 bushels, against 16,260,490 bushels last year, 36,314,681 bushels in 1903, and 53,009,125 bushels in 1902. Corn exports for the week are 1,272,195 bushels, against 1,225,063 bushels last week, 867,390 bushels a year ago, 775,229 bushels in 1903, and 74,962 bushels in 1902. From July 1 to date the exports of corn are 13,131,087 bushels, against 6,836,689 bushels in 1904, 11,605,260 bushels in 1903, and 901,927 bushels in 1902.

STOCK COSTS MORE TO HAUL THAN PASSENGERS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Passenger service on the Iowa Central railroad, as far as operating expenses are concerned, costs the railroad company less than to handle cattle and other live stock shipments, according to J. M. Tittemer, freight traffic manager of the Minneapolis & St. Paul and the Iowa Central railroad companies. Mr. Tittemer gave the information today before Federal Judge S. H. Bethea, who is hearing cases of the interstate commerce commission against 18 railroad companies, on questions of alleged illegal discrimination in feright rates.

"The rate on live stock from Missouri river points to Chicago are more than just to the shipper and less than just to the carrier," declared the witness. "Most of this traffic is what we call pickup, and our company must provide yards at various stations, at a great expense, for the reception of the cattle. It costs us more to receive and care for the live stock than for the same service for passengers. We provide scales and scale houses, windmills to pump water, pave the yards with vitrified matrial and erect buildings which will withstand cold and heat alike.

"These yards cost about $12,000 or $14,000 each, and we are at some expense keeping them up. We spent $50,000 last year in maintaining our yards. Our road has lost money. I believe the rate on live stock is too low."

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

D. C. Clapp Gives a Little History of the Bath House Contention.

D. C. Clapp, whose wife is the president of the board of managers of the Lawrenceville public baths and wash houses, says it is a mistake to suppose that the assistance of Henry Phipps was asked for the construction of the building and the maintenance of the institution. On the other hand, Mr. Clapp says, Mr. Phipps, without any solicitation whatever, made a written proffer to bear half the cost of the institution and its support, and verbally offered to do more, if necessary. Mr. Clapp asserts Mr. Phipps withdrew his support before the building was under roof without giving any reason for his change of attitude.

In conclusion, Mr. Clapp says, the attorneys for the board of managers have assured the women that they have a good case and are sure of recovering the money covered by the written pledges, between $10,000 and $11,000.

THE THREE RIVERS

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 4.6 feet and the river was falling.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 22.—At 6 p. m. the Ohio river was 12 feet and falling. The last of the towboats passed up today for the headwaters with a tow of empties. That boat was the Valiant, which brought a tow of coal from Pittsburgh on the last rise and is returning with a tow of empties for Pittsburgh. It is not expected that the boat will get much farther up the river than the Pomeroy bends, where she will be forced to lay up until a rise comes sometime later. There is a decided fall in the river at all points from Pittsburgh to Louisville. The repairs on the Madison packet, Levi J. Workum, have not been finished as expected and she will be laid up for several days yet. In the meantime the Avalon is running in the place of the Workum. Clear and pleasant.

MARIETTA—Seven feet; stationary. Clear, fine. Bedford up, 9 a. m.

RIVER WORK IS RUSHED.

Major Sibert Is Pushing Contracts on All Government Dams.

Maj. W. L. Sibert is pushing the work on all the government dams in the three rivers. Today is the last day for filing bids for the erection of a power house at lock No. 2 in the Monongahela. The major is also advertising for men on that work. He wants two pile-drivers, two hammermen, laborers and handymen. Good jobs can be secured by the right kind of men for the balance of the season, and the government pays good wages for an eight-hour day.

The contracts have been let for raising all the wickets in the Ohio river dams from six to nine feet, and work is progressing rapidly on these structures. None of them can be finished, however, until next season, as the frequent rises in the river this season greatly delayed the work.

The rivers are falling rapidly again and unless some rain falls soon the packets will again have to suspend. The Columbia was the only boat in yesterday and brought a big cargo of whisky from the Monongahela valley distilleries.

The time has expired for filing data relative to the construction of a draw bridge over the back channel at Brunots island. The matter is now up to the engineering department. The data will all be submitted to the secretary of war with a recommendation from the local engineer in charge and the decision on the matter will come from Washington.

JOHN P. MAGILL GETS PROMOTION

Pittsburgh Traffic Man to Become General Freight Agent of Ocean Steamer Line.

SIGNAL ENGINEERS COMING

John P. Magill of Pittsburgh has been appointed general freight agent of the Frank Zotti Steamship Company of New York. He will assume his new duties in a few days, having resigned as traffic manager of the H. J. Heinz Company to accept the position at New York. The Frank Zotti Steamship Company is a new concern, designed especially to carry on the transportation trade between New York and the Mediterranean ports. In doing this it becomes a direct competitor to the Hamburg-American line boats that ply into the Mediterranean waters. Frank Zotti, the well known steamship agent of New York, Chicago and Pittsburgh, is president of the company.

Mr. Magill, who will direct the traffic affairs of the new steamship company, is well known among the traffic men of the country. He has had a career that well fits him for the duties that he will assume. He started as a clerk in the traffic office of the Erie here when that office was in Wood street. After his apprenticeship he served successively as traveling freight agent of the following roads: Missouri, Kansas & Texas, Chicago & Alton, Central States Dispatch, Cotton Belt and Pittsburgh & Western. He was promoted to division freight agent of the Pittsburgh & Western at Youngstown, O., and served in this capacity until the road was merged with the Baltimore & Ohio, after which he became commercial agent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Youngstown. Three years ago he became traffic manager of the American Lumber Company and about 18 months ago he became traffic manager of the Heinz company. He is one of the active spirits of the Traffic club of Pittsburgh and is now serving as first vice president of that organization. No successor has been named for the traffic managership of the Heinz company.

Railroad Advertising in London.

J. T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, in charge of the operating and traffic departments, claims that his company is the first to attempt a railroad Americanization of London. The company recently established the European agency at London, and Mr. Harahan suggested to his foreign representative that an immense map of the Illinois Central system and the territory be painted in colors on the big plate glass window of the office at 153 Leadenhall street. An artist was secured and the work was started. Curious Londoners began to gather around the artist, and the gaping people were watching the work with astonishment, when several "Bobbies" came up, cleared the sidewalk and ordered the work of painting the map stopped because it was creating undue commotion and excitement. The representative of the Illinois Central said that the presence of the crowd was just what was wanted, and that the company had a right to use its window for advertising. Then the insurance company protested, but Mr. Harahan said that the advertisement was worth more than the mere glass, and insurance was passed by. In this connection it is interesting to note that the Great Central railway of England has opened an office at No. 1 Broadway, New York, with E. Patman as representative for Anglicizing America.

Engineers to See Terminals.

As guests of the Pennsylvania system next Tuesday, almost all of the leading signal engineers of the United States will be conducted over the 100 miles of terminal lines of the Pennsylvania system in this immediate district. This trip will be made in a special train on which will be several officers of the Pennsylvania lines east and west of Pittsburgh. Among these will be Signal Engineer W. McC. Grafton of the lines west, and Engineer of Signals C. D. Fowle and Assistant Engineer of Signals A. H. Rudd of the Pennsylvania railroad.

This party will be composed of the signal engineers, and in some cases other officers, of almost all of the large railroads of the United States. They have learned something of the signal system of the Pennsylvania system's terminal lines here and of the block system that is operated on the main line between here and Philadelphia, and to see these at first hand they are coming here for the inspection trip. From here the engineers will travel to Philadelphia by daylight next Wednesday, and on Thursday a trip will be made over the Philadelphia terminals.

Luxurious Cars Are Demanded.

"Luxury of travel was never so much demanded as at present," said a Pittsburgh passenger man yesterday while talking about the Pennsylvania system having to add an extra car to its 18-hour flyer. "It is now no uncommon thing for either of the limited trains to carry from 70 to 100 passengers. People that were formerly well satisfied with traveling in the old-time coaches now demand the sleeping cars, and those who formerly patronized the sleeping cars are now demanding something exclusive, something like the Pennsylvania special and Pennsylvania limited trains. The Pullman Company has never had so many fine cars in service as at present. Every time a railroad asked for equipment for a regular train the Pullman people are asked for something better than was furnished before. This has become necessary to meet the demand of the travelling public."

Wabash Changes in Contemplation.

According to information from Chicago, Robert Blickensderfer has resigned as general manager of the Wabash lines east of Toledo to become consulting engineer of these lines, the latter office being less arduous for the veteran transportation chief than was the office of general manager. According to the same source of information Vice President B. A. Worthington is to become general manager and H. W. McMaster, now superintendent of the system, is to become general superintendent. It is probable that along with the promotion of Mr. McMaster will come the promotion of the assistant superintendents, C. A. Van Dusen of Toledo and K. M. Nicoles of Columbia. Mr. Worthington said yesterday that there is nothing official, so far, in the proposed changes.

Harding Back With Gould?

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Wall street received a report today by way of Cincinnati that Russell Harding, who has been managing the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system, will, as a result of the sale of that system to the Erie, go back to his old employment with the Goulds, and quite likely succeed Joseph Ramsey, Jr., as president of the Wabash. This report was, however, generally discredited in railroad and financial circles by men familiar with the situation. Mr. Harding is understood to have a contract at $40,000 a year with the C., H. & D., which the sale of the latter will not affect. He is known as a very able railroad man. He left the Gould service because of a difference with Mr. Gould.

Painting Union Station Trainshed.

The Union station trainshed is being given the first coat of paint since the one given it at the time it was completed. This was three years ago. The painters are making little headway with the work because of the difficult task, not [illegible] that of painting the iron framing and the roof of the shed, but that of enduring the smoke that is arising continually from the locomotives to the roof. Along with the painting, all of the windows and skylights are being repaired. The work will require a couple of months for completion.

Many Attend Opening Lecture.

The opening lecture of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley branch of the Young Men's Christian association at Forty-third street was delivered last night by J. B. Griggs, former general secretary of the central association of Pittsburgh, on the subject, "Ireland." Mr. Griggs had the lecture illustrated by 125 fine lantern slides. There was a large attendance in the association hall, and the valley branch has begun a winter season that augurs well.

Railroad Notes.

J. A. Dalton, brakeman at the Union station terminal, has returned to duty after a week's illness.

A picnic and dance were given by S. B. Neff Lodge 225, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, at Kenwood Lawn, East End, Thursday afternoon and evening. It was well attended.

M. S. Brooks, steward of the Union station restaurant, accompanied by Mrs. Brooks, returned yesterday from a vacation visit of 10 days at Mr. Brooks' former home at Hornellsville, N. Y.

W. H. H. Willis, special agent of the Pennsylvania's traffic department, has returned from his vacation and is relieving Chief Clerk L. J. Fox of the local division freight offices of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are enjoying a vacation visit in Ohio.

General Superintendent R. L. O'Donnel of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley division of the Pennsylvania, accompanied by Superintendent C. T. Dabney and other division officers, left here yesterday morning for a trip of inspection over the road from here to Buffalo to determine something of the improvements necessary next year.

It was reported last night that Charles Watts, general superintendent of passenger transportation of the Pennsylvania lines west, was to be given a higher office; that P. A. Bonebrake, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division, would succeed Mr. Watts, and that J. A. McCrea, superintendent of the Cincinnati division, would succeed Mr. Bonebrake. An officer of the Pennsylvania lines in a position to know of such a proposed change said that he had not heard a hint of it.

LAWYER'S REMARK STOPS TRIAL SHORT

Assertion by the State's Attorney in the Maxwell Case Saves the Jury Trouble.

NEGRO BURGLAR IS SENT UP

Because of an improper question asked the defendant by the assistant district attorney, the trial of David B. Maxwell, charged with assaulting Gertrude Estelle Meeds, a 9-year-old Oakmont girl, came to an unexpected end yesterday afternoon in criminal court. The defendant was on the witness stand, and an assertion made in the hearing of the jurors by Assistant District Attorney Seymour caused Judge Macfarlane to order the case discontinued and discharged the jury.

Maxwell was being cross-examined by Attorney Seymour after his direct examination. In trying to secure an admission from the defendant Attorney Seymour asked him if he had not assaulted other little girls besides the Meeds child. Before Maxwell could answer John C. Haymaker, his attorney, objected, and Judge Macfarlane sustained the objection. Attorney Seymour then said they could prove that Maxwell had been guilty of improper conduct with other children in the vicinity of his home. This brought Attorney Haymaker to his feet at once, and he moved that the case be taken from the jury's hands and discontinued, which followed. Maxwell will be tried again at the next term of court.

Edward Johnston, alias Jackson, the negro burglar who attempted to kill Superintendent of Detectives Thomas A. McQuaide in his office about a month ago, entered a plea of guilty to robbing the residence of J. C. Bane, 225 North Craig street, and was sentenced four years to the penitentiary. Johnston admitted robbing the house, but denied trying to kill Superintendent McQuaide, saying he was only trying to prevent McQuaide searching him. Judge Brown said that Johnston's previous record as a soldier in the Philippine islands had caused him to mitigate the sentence, as his crime was of a most serious character.

Brings Suit Against Daughter.

Suit was entered by Harriet J. Meskimen, a widow, against her daughter, Florence C. Meskimen, to restrain the latter from selling or encumbering two pieces of property in the Fourteenth ward. Mrs. Meskimen says that for 20 years she conducted a boarding house in South Highland avenue and now has one at 304 South Craig street. She supported her daughter until the latter was 25 years of age, and then took her into partnership on equal terms. They made money and part of it is invested in the Fourteenth ward property. The South Craig street property was sold and the proceeds invested in $38,500 of the Manufacturers Heat and Light Company's bonds. The plaintiff says her daughter is now threatening to sell the furnishings of the house and other property, and she demands an accounting.

Damages in $10,000 are asked by Thomas Goldie from the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Company for the death of his wife, Anna Goldie, who was struck by a train.

Suit has been entered by Charles A. Fagerstern against Charles F. Dahlstrom and others to recover four lots in McKeesport. The plaintiff claims that in a real estate deal he was fraudulently induced to give a deed for the lots in question.

In the suit of John B. Lovall against M. B. Johnston, executor, Judge R. S. Frazer decided that the property at issue having been bought with the funds of C. B. Lovall & Bro., was partnership property. The trustees of C. B. Lovall, deceased, are directed to transfer the property to John B. Lovall, the surviving partner.

File Exceptions to Report.

J. H. Henderson, the auditor in the case of J. C. Lashley against the Iron City Savings and Loan association, filed his report, which shows that the total amount of claims is $230,320.46. The balance for distribution is $56,766.69 and the rate of dividend is .2463. The auditor says that in this distribution no dividends are allowed to holders of stock who are borrowers of money from the association on mortgages remaining unpaid, as it is the auditor's opinion that when a settlement is made by the mortgage borrowers with the receiver this matter may be more readily adjusted. Exceptions have been filed to the report.

Judge Brown held a short session of juvenile court, at which nearly a dozen delinquent children were disposed of. Mary Cooney, who escaped from St. Paul's Orphan asylum, where she had been placed by her mother, and who was found by the probation officers dancing in the ballet at Luna park, was committed to St. Joseph's Protectory for Girls at Norristown. David Dempster, the East End boy who threatened to cut the throat of a playmate, was sent to St. Mary's Industrial home at Baltimore. The other cases were of minor importance and the children were returned to their parents.

The grand jury approved the report of the board of viewers for the erection of a new bridge over Crouses run in Hampton township.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed by Leroy M. Eicher, a boarding house keeper of Cambridge Springs, and Samuel Klee, a merchant of Carnegie. Eicher gives his assets as $450.90 and his liabilities as $862.80. Klee's assets are $3,050 and his liabilities $6,199.15.

The following true bills were returned by the grand jury: Embezzlement, G. A. Ende, S. B. Charticrs (2); false pretense, Frank Franklin; larceny, Morris Freedman, Ethel Williams; larceny by bailee, Thomas Kelly; aggravated assault, John Losek, James Kulaski, Walter Johnston, W. J. Hill et al., Christ Coulson; felonious assault, Frank Seller, Mike Maloney, Silas White (2); selling liquor illegally, George Demio (2); assault and battery, Andrew Laurence, John Berkel, "John Doe," Bessie Jackson, John Coyne (2), Homer Dawson, Fred Campbell, Herman Wendt; misdemeanor, Andrew Holiday, James Mullarkey, Samuel Frazier, Robert Rorison, John McCaffery, W. H. Hall, Kate Chinchak.

Executions issued—Arbuckle & Co. vs. P. Costello, $1,923.83; D. K. Jones vs. James D. Montooth, $148.85.

Decrees in divorce—John P. Hadfield, from Alberta Hadfield, desertion; Philip Ferschineg, from Mary Ferschineg, infidelity and desertion; M. N. Greer, from Maggie E. Greer, desertion. A libel in divorce was filed yesterday by Cora L. Neidergill against Charles H. Neidergill for desertion.

OLD TAX AND DAMAGE CLAIMS ORDERED PAID

Finance Committee Grants 117 Exonerations at One Sitting. Getting Votes.

One hundred and seventeen tax exonerations, which were held up by a subcommittee for months, were favorably reported to the finance committee yesterday, and by that body ordered sent to councils with an affirmative recommendation. One of the members of the finance committee stated tthat these exonerations were demanded by property owners and were necessary for the administration to get votes in the present campaign. The exonerations aggregate $4,068.31.

The ordinance authorizing the sinking fund commission to cancel the bonds of the old borough of East Birmingham, amounting to $62,000, was approved. The bonds do not mature until 1918, but they are to be retired because there is an excess of $4,200 in the sinking fund above the amount required.

The committee approved the claim of W. L. Mellon for $25 for damages to his family carriage by a fire engine last December. Mrs. Sarah Scaife was also granted $200 for a broken rib and other injuries received last June by falling on a muddy sidewalk in Aldine street. Mrs. King was also allowed $78 for breaking a leg by falling in Williams street five years ago.

These were not the only claims several years old, which the committee granted without dispute. A resolution was approved to pay E. K. Morse and W. L. Miller each $25 for assisting Emil Swensson in the inspection of the South Tenth street bridge several years ago. A resolution to pay Mr. Swensson was previously reported to councils. The committee ordered 12 lots, seized by the city for non-payment of taxes, seven in the Thirteenth ward and five in the Eighteenth, to be sold at public auction. The transfer of $2,000 from the Banksville avenue improvement fund to build boardwalks in the Thirty-fifth ward was laid over.

BIG JUMP IN CRUDE OIL, AND OTHERS EXPECTED

A Phenomenal Advance of 10 Cents a Barrel for the Pennsylvania Product.

The rapid advance of the credit balance market within the past week, amounting to 5 cents for crude of the Pennsylvania grade, was to some a surprise, but when the purchasing agency opened yesterday morning and Pennsylvania credit balances were advanced 10 cents, making the quotation $1.46, there was a general surprise, and on every hand one heard nothing but expressions of gratification at the sudden turn of prosperity for the producers of high grade crude. With the exception of Tiona, no other changes in the previous quotations was noted. The present advance of 10 cents at a single move is the greatest that has been recorded since the memorable rapid upward strides in April, 1895, when the credit balance market was advanced 25 cents at a single bound.

To those familiar with conditions the advance of crude of the Pennsylvania grade and not the other grades, is well understood. All through the year there has been a drain on Pennsylvania stocks, while those of the less valuable grades have not been so greatly impaired. When Kansas and the twin territory production is taken into account, the stocks of the inferior grades have been increasing for more than a year.

The last advance in the credit balance market put it up to within four points of what it was on the first of the year. The changes that have since transpired would seem to warrant that a still greater appreciation can be expected in the near future.

A revival in field work is confidently expected, but it is yet too early to even guess with any degree of accuracy as to its extent or the result of the new work to be started or how far the cleaning out and putting the old wells in better condition to increase their production will supplant the drain on stocks.

Claims Shortage in Accounts.

H. H. Allen, agent of the Wabash railroad at Rooks station, was sent to jail yesterday to await trial in court on a charge of embezzlement. The information was made by A. W. Mayne, traveling auditor of the Wabash system, who alleges that upon investigating Allen's accounts recently he found him to be short about $300. The deficiency was in freight and traffic accounts, it is said.

THINKS HE WAS DRUGGED.

Sharon Man Explains That He Was Given Knockout Drops in Pittsburgh and Wasn't Married.

Roy Kent, the young Sharon man who is alleged to have disappeared on the eve of his marriage to Miss Ella Peters, a daughter of the Rev. E. B. Peters of Smithfield, Pa., returned to Sharon last night, saying that he was administered knockout drops in a Pittsburgh drug store and knew nothing until he woke up in the Griswold hotel on Wednesday morning. The wedding was to have taken place on Wednesday afternoon.

Kent states that he went to Uniontown with his prospective father-in-law to secure a marriage license and went to the railroad station to get a time card. For some unaccountable reason, he says, he boarded a train and knew nothing until he woke up at the Griswold hotel. He says he met a stranger on the train and believes this was the man who put the drug in a glass of soda water which he drank in Pittsburgh.

Consign Mortgage to Flames.

The congregation of the Buelah Park Methodist Episcopal church, McKeesport, has arranged for a mortgage burning service at the church tomorrow night, when papers representing a debt of $1,500, which has been wiped out, will be consigned to the flames. There will be special addresses and music.

It's a live, substantial, permanent home proposition. A plan with a future and with a present such as few new residential districts could ever boast. We are proud to be identified with such a property. Its success is certain. Buyers of the most critical kind who have already seen it in numbers, have heaped unstinting praise on Centervue and its beautiful surroundings.

Back of their enthusiasm is the solid, substantial certainty that the money they put in a Centervue lot is coming back to them, two for one in the comparatively near future. A step from the border line of Centervue on to any property about it means from $20 to $25 a foot more than Centervue prices. Don't you think there's some reason to enthuse?

A REAL BEAUTY SPOT

While delightful situation is not the only factor to be considered in buying a home site, still it is of first importance. In this connection Centervue is characteristically fine.

On one side a grand panoramic view of Brushton, Homewood, Squirrel Hill and portions of East Liberty stretches out before you, proving at a glance Centervue's closeness to Pittsburgh's most charming residence districts. On the crest overlooking Singer Place and scattered throughout the property are long avenues of forest shade trees zealously preserved to add charm to this location. A sweeping stretch, level as a race track, tells accurately the natural "lay of the land."

The famous old spring on Centervue, the best known in Wilkinsburg—is better than the "Howe Spring" at Fifth and Highland avenues.

TO BE A SHORT SALE

Only 153 lots. How they'll go when once the superb location and the manifold merits of Centervue are investigated! Even while you are reading this a lot of far-sighted buyers will be busy picking their pet location on the plan.

From the fact that it is a high-grade proposition and that every lot has building restrictions it can be set down as certain that only houses of better grade will be built. Remember, that while Centervue is in the midst of a built-up district, its unique situation affords delightful seclusion.

Centervue's Improvements Guaranteed

No other residence part of Wilkinsburg will be better provided with improvements or will afford more comfort-giving facilities. Centervue will have

Paved Streets
Granolithic Sidewalks
Stone Curbs
Sewers

These improvements will be completed in exact accordance with municipal regulations. The Centervue Land Co. obligates itself to fulfill above at no additional cost to purchasers. In addition there will be ample police and fire protection, and, of course, free delivery.

Centervue is easily accessible from the heart of Pittsburgh. Nowhere else can the home builder be equally satisfied at such moderate prices.
